

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. George Wingfield Moss of Kings Mountain announce the engagement of their daughter, George Anne, to Edwin Lindsay Marston, Jr., of Briarcliff Manor, New York, son of Mrs. Katherine Marston of Briarcliff Manor, N. Y. and Edwin Lindsay Marston Sr. of Englewood, New Jersey. The wedding will take place here in late December.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Huffstetter announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda Gail to J. D. Moss, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moss, Sr. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The wedding will be an event of December 22.

CWO And Mrs. Charles B. Wright

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Caton

Catons Wed In Lutheran Church Rites, Now At Home In Spartanburg, S. C.

St. Matthew's Lutheran church provided the setting November 2nd at 7 p.m. for an exchange of vows uniting Miss Linda Ann Sanders of Kings Mountain and Marion Caton of Spartanburg, S. C.

Dr. W. P. Gerberding officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. Darrell Austin was at the organ for a program of traditional music. Miss Teresa Jolly sang "Whither Thou Goest" before the ceremony and the benedictional "Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was designed by her mother of re-embroidered Alencon lace and peau de soie and featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline, long sleeves and a full skirt with back panel of tiered ruffles which flowed into a chapel train.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bride's sister, Mrs. Karl Moss and Mr. Moss of Colorado Springs, Colorado; Mrs. Joe Caton, Miss Juanita Cleary, Mrs. E. V. Graves and Mrs. Tommy Terry, all of Spartanburg.

For a wedding trip the new Mrs. Caton chose a beige suit with brown accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Spartanburg, S. C. is home for the newlyweds.

Miss Brown, Pvt. Graham Plan December Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parker, Jr. of near Shelby announce the engagement of the latter's daughter, Rita Gail Brown, to Pvt. Gene Graham of Fort Gordon, Ga., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Graham of Kings Mountain. The wedding will be an event of December 22.

Social Calendar

Thursday: 7:30—Azalea Garden club at the home of Mrs. Sam Hamrick, Shelby road.

Saturday: 9:00—12p.m.—American Legion Dance for members and guests.

7:30—Women of the Church at First Presbyterian church.

7:30—Spiritual Life Group meeting at Central Methodist church.

8:00—Women's Society of Christian Service at Central Methodist church.

Tuesday: 2:30-8 p.m.—Grover Woman's club pre-holiday bridge benefit at the Grover Rescue Squad building in Grover.

8:00—West School Parent-Teacher Association in the school auditorium.

Wednesday: 10:00-12—Ladies Bridge luncheon at the Country Club. Reservations by Tuesday 5 p.m.

Mrs. Margaret Ward and Mrs. Kenneth Hustetter spent the weekend in Charleston, S. C. as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pride Ratterree and family. The Ratterrees and their guests attended the Citadel football game Saturday night.

Future Homemakers Attend Rally

Thirty-five Future Homemakers of America representing the Kings Mountain high school chapter attended the District VI meeting at West Lincolnton high school Saturday.

Kings Mountain delegates, under direction of President Margaret Swanson, participated in the election of a state treasurer. The seven candidates for the office spoke briefly before the voting. Members of the balloting committee, all of Kings Mountain included Martha Heaton, Pattie Steffy, Helen Goforth, Suzanne Lockridge, Barbara Plonk, Jane Morris, Debbie Smith, Janice Woods, Linda Roberts, Sandra Lynn and Carolyn Heaver. They compiled the 810 ballots and declared a run-off among the three candidates having the greatest number of votes.

Jeannine Austin of Rock Springs was elected treasurer during a run-off election. Eleanor Holton, Shelby high school, was elected district representative for Nation Chairman of Projects.

Principal speaker for the morning session was Dr. Mildred Morgan who used the topic, "Family Friendships". She defined adolescence as "when you have one foot in the nest and don't know where to put it next." Elaborating on the subject she continued, "You will live with yourself forever, make a life you will be proud of."

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. James Long, PO Box 352, Bessemer City, N. C., announce the birth of a son, Thursday, November 7, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Martin, Pickney Station, Gastonia, N. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Thursday, November 7, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Logan, Rt. 2, announce the birth of a son, November 9, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keeber, 77 May St., Gastonia, N. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Tuesday, November 12, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Houser, 217 Morris St., announce the birth of a daughter, Tuesday, November 12, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rickman, 319 E. Fourth St., Gastonia, N. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Wednesday, November 13, Kings Mountain hospital.

Brownie Scout Troop Met Friday Afternoon. Brownie Troop 1 met at Central Methodist church Friday afternoon.

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Harmon, the Brownies sang songs and continued a Christmas project, painting of sea shells on gift cans. Christmas refreshments also included Santa and reindeer cookies and punch. Lynn Blanton is troop scribe.

Miss Burrier To Wed Former Grover Resident

Ms. Sgt. and Mrs. Earl Wesley Burrier of San Antonio, Texas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Dean, to Sp-4 Roy Benjamin Cochran of Lackland Air Force Base, son of Mr. and Mrs. Admiral Dewey Cochran of Grover. The wedding is planned for Dec. 14.

The bride-elect was graduated in 1961 from Sam Houston high school in San Antonio and attended San Antonio Commercial college.

The bridegroom-to-be is a 1959 graduate of Centralized high at Blacksburg, S. C. and attended the Southeastern College of Technology in Atlanta, Ga.

Circle Plans Needy Projects

Members of Circle 3 of Central Methodist church made plans for Christmas activities at their Wednesday morning meeting at the church.

The group will bring gifts of toys, canned goods and other items for needy families to the December meeting of the circle. Mrs. Ben F. Beam presided.

Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Jr. conducted the scripture reading and devotions and Mrs. Howard Jordan, wife of the minister, had the program. Mrs. Jordan used the theme, "City Churches."

Mrs. Harry Jaynes and Mrs. I. B. Goforth, Jr. were hostesses for a social hour which followed the program. They served refreshments.

Penley's Women's Society Held Thanksgiving Banquet

Penley's Chapel Methodist church Women's Society held a Thanksgiving supper as feature of their regular monthly meeting Saturday evening in the church fellowship hall.

Special guests were husbands of the 18 members of the society. Turkey with all the trimmings was served from a table decorated with harvest arrangements. Mrs. Wilma Kirby presided and welcomed guests. Mrs. Kirby also offered the invocation.

Chaplain Douglas Garwood hard the exchange of vows. A reception followed the ceremony at the Officer's Club in Seneca.

The bride was given in marriage by Colonel James O. Green, Base Commander. Her formal wedding gown was designed of white brocade satin and featured a high neckline with long traditional sleeves. Her waist-length veil of illusion was draped from a tiara of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a cascade of bride's roses.

Lt. Ron Pressley was best man for the bridegroom and Miss Maureen Pitts was maid of honor.

The new Mrs. Wright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gethin Davies of Bedfordshire, England, Chief Warrant Officer Wright is the son of Mrs. Rosa Wright of Kings Mountain. He attended Kings Mountain high school and was employed by Mauney Hoseiery Mills until he enlisted in the Army in 1950.

After a trip to Niagara Falls, New York, the newlyweds will be at home in Romulus, where the bridegroom is stationed.

Teachers Tour Drexel Plant

Verner Hardin, personnel director of the Shelby division of Drexel Furniture Company, welcomed 26 teachers from the Kings Mountain Public Schools for a tour of the plant Thursday afternoon.

This is one of the three Drexel plants in North Carolina that upholster furniture. The workers assemble the parts of the chairs and sofas that have been cut in a different plant and upholster them. All products are made to fill special orders.

Mr. Hardin stated that a local superintendent trains all upholsterers, 15 to a class, as they are needed.

This second tour in a series of educational visits to area industries for Kings Mountain teachers was arranged by the Planning and Resource committee of the local unit of the North Carolina Education Association.

Miss Morrison Is Sigma Phi Sweetheart ; Pre - Holiday Benefit Tuesday

Miss Betty Morrison Kings Mountain sophomore at Salem college in Winston Salem, has been named Sweetheart of the Wake Forest college chapter of Delta Sigma Phi.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Morrison of 406 Edgemont Drive, Miss Morrison was named at a fraternity party to which she was escorted by Bee Be Edwards, president of the chapter. Later, she was serenaded by fraternity members at her dormitory on the Salem college campus.

Delta Sigma Phi annually selects a Sweetheart of the fraternity.

Bridge Benefit Tuesday

Grover Woman's club will sponsor a pre-holiday bridge benefit Tuesday from 2:30 p.m. until 8 p.m. at the Grover Rescue Squad Building.

Bridge players are asked to bring their own cards and there will be both game prizes and door prizes. Admission is $1 and proceeds will benefit the Rescue Squad.

Women desiring to make reservations should call Mrs. Jim Harry, 937-7162 or Mrs. Glenn Rountree, 937-7162.

About This N' That

Mrs. H. A. Hahn, owner-manager of The Vogue in Gastonia, will speak on "Values of Self Expression" at Tuesday night's West school P-TA meeting at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The program has been arranged by Mrs. Charles Blanton.

Mrs. Hahn is active in the business, religious and civic life of Gastonia.

Charles Todd Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Randall, formerly of Kings Mountain, celebrated his first birthday Tuesday at his home in Jacksonville, Fla.

A small family party was held.

The decorated birthday cake was cut and served with other party refreshments.

Young Randall is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Randall, all of Kings Mountain.

Parents and teachers are invited to attend.

Senior Citizens will hold a square dance as highlight of their regular November meeting. It will be at the Woman's club at 7:30 p.m. Friday, November 22nd and the get-together will take the place of the regular meeting for the month.

Mrs. W. M. Gantt will be chairman for an exhibit of Oriental containers in the garden club division of the 1964 Southeastern Flower and Garden Show to be staged March 7-15 in the Charlotte Merchandise Mart.

The Kings Mountain woman was appointed by Mrs. Ray Owens, chairman of the garden club division.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hughes and Mrs. Roy G. Cadieu, the latter of Gaffney, S. C., attended the N. C. State-VIP homecoming game in Raleigh Saturday and went especially for Parents Day as guests of Mrs. Cadieu's son, Charles Roy Cadieu. They also visited in Durham with Miss Joan Gayle Cadieu, daughter of Mrs. Cadieu, Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Cadieu are sisters.

Rhonda Renee Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Ross, celebrated her first birthday Monday, November 11th, at her home at 401 E. King street.

A small birthday party was held for Rhonda and members of her family and featured the cutting of a birthday cake.

Rhonda Renee is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conner, all of Kings Mountain.

Stork Notes

Donna Lynn Houser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Houser, who weighed six pounds on her arrival Tuesday night at Kings Mountain hospital represents a fifth generation in her family.

Kings Mountain grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Camp and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Metcalf and great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ramsey. She has a great-grandfather in Florida. Her great-great grandparents are Mrs. John Pruitt and Mr. and Mrs. Logue Ramsey, all of Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. (Bill) Ware of Hollywood Beach, Fla. announce the arrival of their first child, a boy, William Howard, Monday, November 11th. The youngster is named for both his father and his Kings Mountain grandfather. Kings Mountain grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ware.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Goforth of Park Ridge, N. J. announce the arrival of their first child, a girl, Donna Marie Goforth, born November 4th in New Jersey. Kings Mountain grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bun E. Goforth.

Lynda Denise Walker, daughter of A/IC and Mrs. Winfred R. Walker, will celebrate her first birthday Friday at her home at Fort Walton Beach, Florida.

A small party will be held for Lynda and a birthday cake will be cut and served with ice cream and other party refreshments.

Lynda Denise is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Eaker and Mr. and Mrs. Jonas C. Walker, all of Kings Mountain.

Airman and Mrs. Walker formerly lived here.

Comings And Goings

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bowen and Mr. and Mrs. James Webber of Shelby returned home Thursday after vacationing at Sorrento Hotel in Miami Beach, Fla. They won the trip through the Investment Land Sales, Inc. of Charlotte for purchasing a lot on Lake Norman.

A/IC and Mrs. Ray Carroll and sons, Edwin and Timmy, of Sumter, S. C. were visitors during the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Farris and Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Carroll. The Carrolls were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brent Carroll, Jr. in Grover.

Four Dixon Community 4-H'ers attended the Cleveland County 4-H Council meeting in Shelby Monday night. They were Patsy Welch, club president, Joy Welch, Donnie Spears and Jill Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moomaw and son, Ben, IV, have returned from a three week's vacation. They visited Mrs. Moomaw's sister in Santa Monica, California and also Disneyland, Las Vegas, the Grand Canyon, Mexico and other places of interest.