

Mrs. Edwin Lindsay Marston, Jr.

Miss George Anne Moss, Edwin Marston Wed Saturday In Formal Church Rites

Miss George Anne Moss became the bride of Edwin Lindsay Marston, Jr. Saturday in a 4 p.m. wedding held in First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Paul K. Ausley heard the couple exchange vows of the single-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Fleete R. McCurdy was organist for a program of traditional wedding music. She played Bach's "Sheep May Safely Graze" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring"; "O Lord Most Holy" by Abt; Gounod's "O Lozing Savoy"; "Traumerei" by Schumann; Wagner's "Song To The Evening Star"; "Romance" by Rubinstein; and "Liebestraum" by Liszt. The processional was "Trumpet Voluntary in D Major" by Purcell and "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner and the recessional was Mendelssohn's "Wedding March from 'A Midsummer Night's Dream.'" During the ceremony the organist played "Love Divine."

The church altar was arranged with potted Kentia palms and floor baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Seven branched wrought-iron candelabra held numerous lighted tapers.

George Wingfield Moss escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The formal wedding gown was designed of ivory Italian silk peau de soie and imported Alencon lace and featured a contour bodice fashioned with bateau neckline filled in with yoke of Alencon lace and caught down the back with miniature self-covered buttons. Long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The controlled bell-shaped skirt draped to the back to a double bow bustle and spread to a full cathedral length train. Her three-tier bouffant-length veil of ivory silk illusion was attached to a pillow of matching Alencon lace and she carried a cascade of gardenias and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Gaiher Glenn Grigg, Jr. of Winston Salem attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Sara Nell Moss, sister of the bride; Miss Mary Jo Hord, cousin of the bride; Miss Kathryn Hoyle of Washington, D. C.; and Miss Martha Marston of Baton Rouge, La., sister of the groom.

All the attendants wore cocktail-length dresses of ruby velvet styled with bateau necklines dipping to low V in the back and elbow-length sleeves. The waistlines were accented by flat bows and the bell skirts featured clusters of unpressed pleats at the back. They wore wrist-length French kid gloves and matching satin slippers. Their headpieces were velvet roses dropped with tulle veils and they carried cascades of white gladioli.

Walter Barber of Syracuse New York, was best man for the bridegroom and the list of ushers included Philip Ogden of Winston Salem, Eddie Collins of College Park, Md., Frank Hoyle, III, of Hendersonville, and Glenn Grigg, of Winston Salem, brother-in-law of the bride.

David Hord, III, cousin of the bride, and Andy Neisler were acolytes.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moss wore a cocktail length dress of frost nile silk chiffon over silk faille. She wore a silk petal hat and a shoulder corsage of white roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a two-piece turquoise dress of Italian silk linen with matching accessories. She wore a cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

four-tiered wedding cake as its central decoration. At the center was a silver candelabrum arranged with a pyramid of white poinsettias and holding white tapers. Punch was served from a silver bowl at one end by Mrs. Henry Neisler and Mrs. Charles Neisler cut and served the wedding cake.

Other reception helpers were Mrs. Nicholas Smith of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Ralph Northcutt of Raleigh; Miss Mary Lillian Lewis, Miss Barbara Hord, Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Neisler, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Hord, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyle of Hendersonville, Mr. and Mrs. Neisler presented the receiving line, which included the bridal party, and Mrs. E. A. Smith and Mrs. O. P. Lewis presided at the bride's book.

For a wedding trip which will take them to their new home in Flushing, New York, the new Mrs. Marston wore a lieutenant blue double-breasted wool suit with long sleeves and stand-up collar. She wore brown skin accessories and matching mink hat. She lifted the gardenia from her bouquet.

Mauneys Held Yule Reunion

The W. K. Mauney family was in charge of this year's arrangements for the Jacob S. Mauney family reunion. Ninety-six members of the clan assembled at the Kings Mountain Woman's club on Friday, December 27th for their annual Christmas party. This marked the 90th consecutive observance of the custom started when there were only two members. Membership has grown to 175 and only 14 of these deceased.

W. K. Mauney, Jr. acted as master of ceremonies and called on Dr. W. P. Gerberding for the invocation remarking that it seemed very fitting that the pastor of the church where his grandparents had been charter members should perform this service.

Besides Dr. and Mrs. Gerberding there were two other guests that were introduced: Miss Judy Patterson of China Grove, fiancée of Luther Mauney, Jr., and Miss Vivian Lampe, house guest of Sarah Frances Mauney, from the Dutch Antilles.

W. K. Mauney, Jr. called on each family to stand and be introduced by a representative of the group. Spokesmen were Mrs. S. A. Mauney, Mrs. Garland Still, Dr. Luther Mauney, Carl Mauney, Mrs. E. C. Cooper, and W. K. Mauney. The W. K. Mauney family was present 100 per cent.

Mrs. W. K. Mauney, family historian, was called upon for her report. She related the important happenings during the past year, the honors bestowed, medals, graduations, appointments, etc. from the oldest member to the youngest, also noted the births, marriages and deaths. A special ovation was given to Laura Mauney Houser "in appreciation for her wonderful achievement in planning and supervising the complete renovation of the Jacob S. Mauney Memorial Library during the past year."

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arthur attended the funeral of Mr. Arthur's sister in law, Mrs. Mary Ann Arthur, who died December 28th.

Miss Mauney Tapped For Demolay Honor

Miss Sarah Frances Mauney was crowned Sweetheart of Demolay at the annual Christmas dance of the Kings Mountain Chapter, Order of Demolay.

The holiday affair was held at the Woman's club and Miss Mauney was presented a corsage.

Timmy was the first New Year Baby in Escambia County, Fla. in 1963. Other member of the Blanton family is three-year-old Lori Jean.

Mr. Blanton is stationed with the Navy in Pensacola. Mrs. Blanton is the former Lois Gamble.

Christmas Dance Held

A group of 60 young people attended a Christmas dance-held Thursday evening at the Woman's club by Carl and Reb Wiesener.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wiesener assisted their sons in entertaining and in serving punch and cookies.

The refreshment table was festive with a tree ornamented with colored balls and red candles. Red and green streamers and a large silver Christmas tree together with other decorations help carry out the holiday motif.

Mrs. John White, Mrs. Nelle Cranford and Mrs. Vernon P. Crosby also assisted in details of entertaining.

Robert Ellis Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles S. Davis of Halifax, Massachusetts celebrated his first birthday December 9th.

Young Davis, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Morris of Kings Mountain, had a double celebration since his young brother, Richard Morris Davis, arrived a day early on December 8th. The Davises' second child is named for his Kings Mountain grandparents.

Mrs. Davis is the former Linda Morris. Paternal grandparents are Mrs. Ellis M. Davis of Middleboro, Massachusetts.

Wedding Party Feted

Mr. and Mrs. George Moss entertained members of the Moss-Marston wedding party at an after-rehearsal party Friday night at their home on S. Gaston street.

A color note of pink and white was carried out in room decoration. Overlaid with white over pink, the refreshment table held a central arrangement of pink and white mums. Party pick-ups, including chicken salad pastries with sweets, fruit cake, dates and coffee were served buffet style.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Ausley and Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Hord were present in addition to the families and wedding party.
