

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eugene Shaw

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb Owens of Kings Mountain announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Robert Clyde Thomas, son of Mrs. James Roy Thomas of Hendersonville and Jacksonville, Fla. and the late Mr. Thomas. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and N. C. Baptist Hospital School of Nursing at Winston Salem. She is a member of the nursing staff of Margaret R. Pardee hospital in Hendersonville. The prospective bridegroom attended Robert E. Lee high school of Jacksonville and graduated from Blue Ridge school at Hendersonville and the University of Jacksonville with B.S. in business administration. He is associated with J. R. Thomas Produce Company of Hendersonville. A Fall wedding is planned.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Hamrick of Bessemer City announce the marriage of their daughter, Lillie Frances, to Douglas Edward Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cobb of Kings Mountain. The wedding took place Saturday, January 25th, in York, South Carolina. The bride is a 1963 graduate of Bessemer City high school and prior to her marriage was employed by Osage Textile Company. The bridegroom attended the Kings Mountain schools and is employed by the Osage division of Reeves Brothers, Inc. The newlyweds are at home with the bride's parents.

Mrs. James Michael Shipman

Miss Elaine Ducker, Michael Shipman Pledge Vows In Temple Church Ceremony

Miss Ruth Elaine Ducker of Bessemer City and Jesse Michael Shipman of Kings Mountain pledged marriage vows Sunday, January 26th, in a noon wedding in Kings Mountain Temple Baptist church. Miss Ducker wore a lace-trimmed dress of white batiste and carried a basket of rose petals. Ricky Rhea carried the rings. Wayne Ellis of Spruce Pine was best man for the bridegroom and the list of ushers included W. C. Summett and Jesse Pendleton, brothers-in-law of the bride, Tommy Limbaugh, cousin of the bride, and David Shipman, brother of the groom.

Miss Sarah Cox, Richard Eugene Shaw Wed Sunday In Double-Ring Ceremony

Kings Mountain Baptist church provided the setting Sunday at 3:30 p.m. for an exchange of vows uniting Miss Sarah Ellen Cox of Kings Mountain and Richard Eugene Shaw of Brooklyn, New York. Rev. Marion DuBose heard the couple pledge the vows of the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. J. C. Bridges was organist for a program of traditional music and vocal numbers were rendered by Miss Maude Ryan of Monsey, New York, college classmate of the bride.

Miss Ryan sang "Ave Maria" before the ceremony and the benediction "Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. The church altar was banked by baskets of white gladioli and English ivy. Benjamin Franklin Cox escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride made and designed her formal wedding gown, a semi-sheath of peau de sole satin with overskirt of scalloped lace. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a handmade rose of peau de sole satin and lace and she carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. Eugene Foteat of Charleston, S. C. attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Joann Cely of Greenville, S. C., cousin of the bride, Miss Joyce Hawkins, the bride's roommate at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Miss Linda Walker of Kings Mountain and Miss Patsy Whilly of Concord. All the attendants wore gowns of aqua brocade with matching headresses of net attached to bows of matching brocade. They

Book Club Hears Mrs. Hoyt Pruitt

Mrs. Hoyt Pruitt, wife of the minister of Bessemer City's First Presbyterian and Long Creek Presbyterian churches, gave the program at Thursday's Book club meeting. Mrs. R. S. Plonk was hostess to the club at her home in Bessemer City. Mrs. Pruitt gave a program of humorous readings and poems. Mrs. E. W. Neal presided.

Miss Plonk Member OF ASTC Club

BOONE—Two Cleveland County students at Appalachian State Teachers College are members of the Home Economics Club. The Cleveland County students are Millie Weathers and Marion Plonk. The Home Economics Club is a professional organization for students in the Department of Home Economics and is affiliated with the North Carolina Home Economics Association and the National Association, AHEA.

Any woman who is interested in home economics is eligible for membership. The goals of the club are: To erect recreation and education activities for the home economists; To encourage scholarship and achievement among students of home economics; To secure higher ideals for homemaking; To develop and create a deeper love for home life; To promote a more cooperative spirit among home economics students and their associates.

At refreshment time Mrs. Plonk was assisted in serving a salad and sweet course.

Mrs. Joe Farrell, Greenville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Cox, Anderson, S. C.; Miss Christine Hawkins, Reidsville; Henry Norris, Columbia, S. C.; Miss Barney McMahon and Mrs. Nan Bailey of Anderson, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Carvin Landreth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cely, Miss Joann Cely, Miss Ellen Cobb, all of Greenville, S. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Belcher, Greer, S. C., Mrs. Ernest Halbert, Taylors, S. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Whitley of Concord.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

- Friday: 12:00—Senior Citizens club covered dish luncheon at the Woman's club. 7:30—Circle 6 of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. W. D. Werner. 7:30—Circle 7 of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Jim Everhart. 7:30—Rehearsal for the Mullinax-Brazzell wedding in Grace Methodist church. Saturday: 4:00—The wedding of Miss Carol Ann Mullinax and Gilbert W. Brazzell in Grace Methodist church followed by a reception in the church fellowship hall. 7:30—Margraee Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Otis Barber. 8:00—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitesides, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burgardner and Mrs. Robert Davis are entertaining at the Whitesides home at a cake cutting honoring Miss Kay Baily and Thomas Boyce Hawkins. Sunday: 12:00—Sunday Smorgasbord at the Country Club for members and families. 12:00—The wedding of Miss Kay Frances Baily and Thomas Boyce Hawkins in First Wesleyan Methodist church. Monday: 7:30—Circle 4 of Central Methodist church at the home of Miss Margaret Harmon. 7:30—Circle 5 at Central Methodist church. Mrs. Kelly McCarter, hostess. Tuesday: 9:30 a.m.—Tee-off luncheon for lady golfers at the Kings Mountain Country Club. Wednesday: 7:30 a.m.—Credit Women's Breakfast club at Gastonia Elks club. 10 a.m.—Circle 3 of Central Methodist church in the church office. 3:30—Open Gate Garden club at the home of Mrs. A. W. Kincaid, Church street, Mrs. W. M. Gantt, co-hostess. Brownies Name New Officers: Brownie Troop 52 elected new officers Friday at a regular meeting at Boyce Memorial ARP church. They include: Johanna Phifer, scribe. Debbie Bolin, president. Nancy Hord, secretary. Debbie Brackett, treasurer.

Following a reception at the church, Mr. and Mrs. Shipman left for a wedding trip to the mountains. For traveling, the bride wore a winter white wool suit with fur trim, red accessories and the flowers lifted from her bridal bouquet. The newlyweds are at home temporarily with the bridegroom's parents on Waco road.

Bridge Benefit Tickets On Sale

Tickets went on sale this week for the February 15th benefit bridge to be held at 3 p.m. at the Woman's club. All proceeds will benefit the Kings Mountain Heart Fund for 1964. Reservations may be made by telephoning 739-3335. Bridge players are asked to make up their own tables and furnish own cards. The $2 ticket will include refreshments and prizes. "Enjoy a bridge game as you make a gift to the heart fund," Mrs. Henry Neisler, special events chairman for the local drive, said in announcing the benefit.

Bridal Parties In Raleigh Honor Polly Page : People In The News

Charlotte Rene Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Jr. of Rockingham, former residents of Kings Mountain, will celebrate her second birthday Monday, February 10th. A small family party is planned at the Johnson home at No. 8 Jefferson Apartments in Rockingham. Charlotte Rene is granddaughter of Mrs. Bill Mitchem of Spindale and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Sr. of Rockingham, formerly of King Mountain. Her great-grand mother is Mrs. R. H. Craig of Greenville, South Carolina.

Joan McClure, high school senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McClure, Kings Mountain high school Betty Crocker Homemaker Tomorrow. Miss McClure achieved the highest score in a written knowledge and attitude examination given in December by General Mills, Inc., sponsor of the contest, will award her a "Homemaker of Tomorrow" pin to signify her achievement and her test paper will be entered in competition for state honors. The state Homemaker of Tomorrow will be awarded a $1,500 college scholarship and will be named a national finalist. Her school will be presented with a set of Encyclopedia Britannica and in the spring, state Homemakers of Tomorrow, each accompanied by a school advisor, will enjoy an expense-paid educational tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va., Washington, D. C. and New York City. The trip will be climaxed with the naming of the 1964 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Miss McClure is a former Worthy Advisor of Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Jimmy Collins, 13, praised the March of Dimes this week for "the wonderful things they have done for me." A seventh grader at North school and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, Jimmy has been hospitalized three times during 10 months, has undergone two operations and is now walking without a leg brace for the first time in his life. Young Collins was stricken with polio at the age of 11 months and celebrated his first birthday in the hospital. Young Collins wrote to the newspaper: "You don't miss school in the hospital. They just roll your bed into the school room where you study for two hours. I feel God selected very special people for the staff at Gastonia Orthopedic hospital and I am lucky the March of Dimes made such a nice place possible for anyone like me who needs to go there."

Virginia Rollins, King Mountain sophomore at Lee McRae college at Banner Elk was listed on the Dean's list for the past semester. The Dean's list tabulated at end of each grade period was announced by Academic Dean Lewis Hall. Miss Rollins is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rollins. She is active in a number of extra-curricular activities at the Banner Elk school.

Comings And Goings

Mrs. H. D. McDaniel and Mrs. Harlan Stoterau represented local golfers at the first meeting of the year of the Foothills League of Women Golfers at Cabarrus Country Club in Concord Wednesday. New officers were elected. After a morning of golf, the women had luncheon and a business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spearman and children, Joey and Cindy, Miss Pat Owens and Robert Thomas, all of Hendersonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson and daughter, Debbie, visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Owens and Pete Sunday. Mrs. Spearman, Miss Owens and Mrs. Johnson are daughters of the Paul Owens.

About This N' That

Of interest to Kings Mountain citizens is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Frances Speidel, former manager of Kings Mountain Country Club, and Charles P. Phillips who were wed Saturday, January 18th, in Park Forest, Illinois. The marriage is announced by Mrs. Speidel's two sons, Benjamin Burtlin Speidel, III and Ronald Fabian Speidel, both of whom formerly lived here. Ben Speidel, III is also a former

The March of Dimes Drive is currently underway in Cleveland County. manager of the local club as well as was his late father. Mrs. Speidel moved from Kings Mountain last summer to Port Orange, Florida.

Kings Mountain lady golfers will hold a tee-off luncheon Tuesday morning at the Country Club and will elect new officers and make plans for 1964 activities. The program will begin with golf at 9:30 followed by luncheon at 12:30. Women are asked to make reservations for luncheon.

Parties in the Raleigh area continue to honor Polly Page, bride-elect. Miss Page and Dave Moreau plan a March 28 wedding here in First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Paul Kelly entertained Saturday at a "Raggedy Ann" luncheon for Miss Page and gave the bride-to-be a place setting in her china pattern. Miss Dena Fasul and Miss Judy Ray entertained at the Ray home in Raleigh Wednesday at a dinner-bridge party. The hostesses gave Miss Page a cup and saucer in her china and a green and white corsage. A kitchen shower January 28th in Chapel Hill was held at the home of Mrs. David Atchison with Miss Doris Sanders as co-hostess. Agnes Scott friends of the bride-elect made up the guest list. The hostesses gave Miss Page a laundry basket filled with kitchen gadgets and a novelty corsage made of a cabbage and red radishes. Miss Carol Cowan entertained at Ballentine's in Raleigh January 25th at a luncheon. Her gifts to the bride-to-be were trousseau items, "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue." She also gave the bride a corsage of mums. Besides Agnes Scott college classmates, other guests were Polly's aunt, Mrs. William H. Page, of Raleigh, and her sister, Laura Page, Kings Mountain freshman at Meredith.

Society Elizabeth Stewart, Editor Phone 739-544