

People In The News

Timmy Scott Mullinax, age two, left above, and Jeffrey Todd Mullinax, age one celebrated birthdays recently. The Mullinax brothers are children of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mullinax, 611 Stone street. A small family party was held on Todd's birthday February 23. Timmy was two years old January 11th. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mullinax and Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Parker, all of Kings Mountain.

Gloria Diane Greene, Grover school seventh grader and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Greene of Kings Mountain, won the Cleveland County 4-H corn meal muffin bake-off contest Friday.

Miss Greene represented the Dixon Community 4-H club in the competition with young people from other clubs in area communities and schools of the county. The contest was held in Mooresboro and the top winner received a $25 savings bond. Miss Greene and other contestants used a recipe for muffins provided them by the county extension department.

ABOUT THIS-N-THAT

Bridal parties continue to honor Polly Page, whose wedding to Dave Moreau takes place Saturday. Mrs. Garland Still invited Miss Page to play with members of her bridge club last Tuesday afternoon and presented the bride-to-be with a gift. Mrs. George Houser entertained Friday at a luncheon at her home for 14 guests. Overlaid with embroidered linen the bride's table held two tall crystal compotes of pink camellias. Two small tables held similar centerpieces of pink and white. The bride-to-be's place was marked by a camellia corsage and Mrs. Houser's gift to her was china in her chosen pattern and a bride's cookbook. A two-course luncheon was served. Guests included from out-of-town: Mrs. P. W. Ferguson of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Sue Rhyno Little and Mrs. George Page of Lincolnton, aunts of Miss Page.

Sara Adele Hendricks, Kings Mountain freshman at Wake Forest College and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul E. Hendricks, qualified for the fall semester dean's list. A total of 399 students in the School of Liberal Arts and school of Business Administration made the dean's list. The group included 99 seniors, 115 juniors, 108 sophomores, 68 freshmen, four seniors in the School of Business Administration and five juniors in the business school.

Lt. Colonel O. T. Hayes, Jr. and his family are here from Lima, Peru for a visit with Mr. Hayes' mother, Mrs. O. T. Hayes, and other relatives. Mrs. Hayes and children, O. T. Hayes, III and Diane Hayes, visited in Shreveport, La. before coming to Kings Mountain Wednesday. Lt. Colonel Hayes arrived a week early and the family will be here until after the Easter holidays. Lt. Col. Hayes is being reassigned to Shaw AFB at Sumter, S. C.

Houston Black of Southern Pines spent Friday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Black, enroute to Charlotte to serve as a judge for the N.C. Science Fair Saturday.

Miss Louzelle Smith of Atlanta, Ga. visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur G. Smith, during the weekend. Miss Smith is a student at Georgia State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders and children, Mark and Leanne, are back from Douglas, Ga. where they attended the wedding of Miss Laura Sue Hinson and Jimmy Lamar Sims. Mrs. Sanders' mother, Mrs. Grady A. Rhea, remained in Douglas for a longer visit and will visit in Miami, Fla. with relatives before returning to Kings Mountain. The bride is granddaughter of Mrs. Rhea.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Thursday:

4:00—Mrs. M. H. Biser and Miss Linda Biser are entertaining at their home at a bridge party honoring Miss Polly Page bride-elect.

Friday:

12:15—Mrs. H. Carl Mayes and Mrs. Moffatt Ware, Jr. are entertaining at the home of the former at a bridesmaids' luncheon for Miss Polly Page and her attendants.

6:30—Rehearsal dinner at Governor's Inn in Shelby honoring Miss Polly Page and David Moreau. Hosts: Mrs. Orrin Swayze, Mrs. Charles Chamberlin and Orrick Metcalfe.

8:00—Rehearsal for the Page-Moreau wedding in First Presbyterian church.

9:00—Captain and Mrs. W. F. Brewer, Mrs. F. W. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunnicutt are entertaining at Kings Mountain Country Club at a cake cutting honoring Miss Polly Page, David Moreau and their wedding party.

12:00—Wedding breakfast at Kings Mountain Country Club honoring Miss Polly Page and David Moreau. Hosts: Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Neisler, Sr.

6:00—The wedding of Miss Pauline Neisler Page and David Humphreys Moreau in First Presbyterian church followed by a reception to be given by the bride-elect's parents at Kings Mountain Woman's club.

12:00—Easter Sunday buffet luncheon for members and guests at the Country Club.

Tuesday:

7 a.m.—Senior Citizens club leaving by chartered bus for one-day trip to Charleston, S. C. Gardens.

6:30—Men's Night at the Woman's club. Covered dish supper.

Wednesday:

9:30 a.m.—Circle 2 of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Edith Go'orth.

Vincent Sims Honored On Fourth Birthday

Vincent Sims, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Sims, celebrated his fourth birthday Saturday at a party given by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sims, in Chicago, Ill.

The Sims family, formerly of Kings Mountain, expects to visit here in June. Young Vincent has been visiting his grandparents since Christmas.

Eleven children were present for the party. A birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream.

Young Sims is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Rathbone, 28 Bennett drive.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis Slater, 805 Monroe Ave. announce the birth of a son, Saturday, March 21, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steen, Rt. 1, Box 225, announce the birth of a son, Monday, March 23, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harold Sumlar, Rt. 1, Box 291, announce the birth of a son, Monday, March 23, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles C. Bell, 606 Meadowbrook, announce the birth of a son, Wednesday, March 25, Kings Mountain hospital.

Easter Sunday Buffet Scheduled By Club

Kings Mountain Country Club members and guests who plan to have lunch at the club after church service Sunday are asked to make reservations by 5 p.m. Saturday.

Easter Sunday buffet will be served beginning at 12 noon. Plates are $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for children.

Miss Linda Biser will arrive Thursday from Washington, D. C. to spend Easter weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Biser.

Mrs. Lallage Falls spent last week at Daytona Beach, Fla. Mrs. Falls flew down Sunday to meet friends who had driven to Daytona Beach Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Sill and children, Angela and Michael Todd of Spartanburg, S. C. spent Sunday with Mrs. Lallage Falls. Mrs. Sill is the former Miss Diane Falls.

Club Plans Husband's Night

The Kings Mountain Woman's club will hold "Husband's Night" Tuesday night at the Woman's club and a special program is planned, Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, president, has announced.

A one-act play to be presented by various men of the community will be staged under the direction of Mrs. Fred Withers. The comedy is entitled, "If Men Played Cards As Women Do."

Supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. at the Woman's club and club officials invite clubwomen to "bring a bountiful covered dish."

Committee on table arrangements for the affair is headed by Mrs. W. D. Werner.

Husbands of club members will be special guests and new members and visitors are also invited. Mrs. Eugene McCarter will give a toast to the husbands and M. S. J. C. Bridges will give a toast to the new members.

A large crowd is expected to attend.

Miss Page Party Honoree

Mrs. E. Wilson Griffin and Mrs. E. W. Griffin entertained Tuesday night at the former's home at bridge paying compliment to Miss Polly Page, bride-elect of Saturday.

Tables were laid for refreshments on arrival of guests and the hostesses served a dessert course in pink and white.

Five card tables were decorated in pink and white with spring flowers used as centerpieces and in other rooms of the home. High score prize went to Mrs. Joe Neisler, Jr. and low was held by Mrs. J. N. McClure.

Miss Page was given a camellia shoulder corsage by the hostesses and a gift of silver in her bridal pattern.

Couple Set Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fletcher Odell of Yanceyville announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Elizabeth, of Raleigh, to Thomas James Shirkey of Fayetteville, son of Mrs. James Leroy Shirkey of Grover and the late Mr. Shirkey.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Bartlett Yancey high school, will complete a course at Mitchell's Hairstyling Academy in Raleigh on April 15. The bridegroom-to-be was graduated from Kings Mountain high school, attended N. C. State college three years and is employed by the Rich Plan in Fayetteville as an accountant.

The wedding is planned for April 26.

Wake Forest Students Home For Holidays

Wake Forest college students will arrive Saturday for the Easter holidays and a week of spring vacations.

They include: Gary Collins of Grover who will visit his mother Mrs. Alfred Collins; and Sara Hendricks and Paul Hendricks Jr. who will visit their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks.

Nancy Bell, Vernon Cherry Wed In Mount Holly Rites

Miss Nancy Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bell, former Kings Mountain residents, who have made their home in Mount Holly for a number of years, and Vernon Cherry also of Mount Holly, were married last Saturday, March 14th.

A bridal party-shower at the Bell home March 21 honored Mrs. Cherry. Sharing hostess duties were Mrs. Jim Bell, Mrs. Carl Bell and Mrs. Ted Bell, sisters-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Cherry is half-sister of Mrs. G. T. Stewart and Mrs. George Sellers, both of Kings Mountain.

Book Review Features Program

Mrs. Fred E. Finger entertained members of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club at her home last week.

A large number of members attended and heard a program by Mrs. E. A. Harrill who delighted the group with a book review, "The Story of Eneas Africanus."

Mrs. E. W. Neal presided over the business meeting. At refreshment time Mrs. Finger was assisted by Mrs. Ruth Thomasson in serving a salad and dessert course.

Dessert-Bride Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. L. E. Hinnant entertained last Wednesday afternoon at her home at five tables of bride-napping compliment to Miss Polly Page bride-elect of Saturday.

Tables were laid for refreshments at the beginning of the party and Mrs. Hinnant was assisted in serving a dessert course. Miss Page was remembered with a camellia corsage from the hostess and her wedding gift.

Bride prizes went to Mrs. Thomas Durham, Mrs. John Plonk Jr., Mrs. George Thomasson and Mrs. J. E. Herndon. Spring flowers were used decoratively throughout the party rooms.

MEN'S NIGHT SHOW — B. S. Peeler, left above, and George Houser, right, while away the time waiting for Charles Mauney to appear, while host Charles Blanton is about to serve refreshments in "If Men Played Cards As Women Do", a one-act comedy to be staged on "Men's Night" at the Woman's club Tuesday. A covered dish supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. to members and guests. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Fred Withers. Mrs. Eugene McCarter will toast the husbands and Mrs. J. C. Bridges will toast the new members. Committee on table arrangements includes Mrs. W. D. Werner, chairman; Mrs. F. S. Morrison and Mrs. S. S. Weir. (Photo by Aubrey Mauney)

Full Calendar Of Events Scheduled For Family Life Education Week Here

Calendar of activities for Family Life Education Week April 12-18 was announced this week by the Kings Mountain Family Life Council.

The program has been endorsed by virtually all Kings Mountain area civic clubs, churches and schools and will offer programs and panel discussions involving every area of family life.

Purpose of the program is to sharpen community awareness of need to strengthen family living and to help parents and other interested individuals become more effective family members.

Leaders for two groups of young married couples and parents of pre-school age children for April 13th, opening day of the week of activities, had not yet notified officials of their plans to attend on Wednesday. However, other phases of the week-long program are complete and a full seminar is planned.

April 12 at 9:45 a.m. Christian Families Worship Together in Church of your choice. 7:30 p.m. Film "A Family's Heritage" at Central Methodist church.

April 13-16 Meetings will be held in Kings Mountain high school auditorium at 8 p.m.

April 13 Kick-off meeting: Small group discussions on Families Role in Sex Education will be held by the following professionals:

Rev. Charles Milford, Parkford Baptist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina to "Parents Without Partners"

Rev. Robert Howard, Director Religious Education, Myers Park Baptist church, Charlotte, North Carolina, to "Parents of pre-adolescents and adolescents"

Dr. Paul Sarazen, Shelby, North Carolina, to "Parents of Grammar grade age children."

April 14 Family Balance David L. Howe, Headmaster, Charlotte Country Day School, Charlotte, North Carolina to Adults

April 15 Mrs. Cecil Gilliatt, N. C. Board of Juvenile Correction Shelby, North Carolina will discuss "Focus on Family Needs" with adults

April 16 Mrs. James Banberry President, Mecklenburg Family Life Council, Charlotte, North Carolina will bring a qualified panel to discuss: "Are we passing the buck in Family Life Education?"

The adolescents will have own discussion leaders on "Preparation for Marriage"

Dr. Warren Collins will be speaker April 12 and 16. Mrs. E. H. Ould, Family Life Consultant from Roanoke, Va., will work with the youth: April 14 and 15.

The Kings Mountain Family Life Council is composed of representatives from educational, professional, religious and social agencies, civic groups and interested individuals with the common purpose of providing the means for the pooling of community efforts toward better family living.

Young Married Couples will hear Mrs. C. M. McDurray on opening day of the week of activities.

Robert David Falls was discharged Sunday from the Kings Mountain hospital and is recuperating at his home following surgery Monday, March 16.

Complete stock of Bernat & Spinnerin Knitting Yarns and Supplies.

PLONK'S

Polly Page, David Moreau Give Plans For Saturday Wedding; Parties Planned

Miss Pauline Neisler Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ephriam Page of Kings Mountain, has completed plans for her marriage to David Humphreys Moreau of Natchez, Miss., and announces them today.

The wedding will take place Saturday, March 28th, at 6 p.m. in First Presbyterian church. A wedding reception, to be given by the bride-elect's parents, will be held at the Kings Mountain Woman's club.

Dr. Paul K. Ausley, assisted by Rev. William E. Moreau, Jr. of New Haven, Conn., brother of the prospective bridegroom, will hear the double-ring exchange of vows. A program of organ music will be rendered by Mrs. L. E. Hinnant.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father and will have her sister, Miss Laura Jean Page, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will include Miss Sue Hunnicutt and Mrs. Kenneth Davis of Kings Mountain. Miss Andrea Brewer of Norfolk, Va. and Miss Jane Page of Lincolnton. Meg Page of Raleigh will be flower girl. Miss Hunnicutt, Miss Brewer and the Misses Pages are cousins of the bride-elect.

The bridegroom-to-be, son of the late Rev. and Mrs. Mrs. William E. Moreau, will have Orrick Metcalfe of Natchez as best man. William R. Hendley, Kenneth O. Summerville, and Ronald A. Schrimper of Raleigh, H. Paul Reid of Atlanta, Ga., Charles Willis of Charlotte and Richard Baldwin III of Richmond, Va. will serve as ushers.

Since the announcement of their engagement, Miss Page and Mr. Moreau have been extended a number of pre-nuptial courtesies and numerous parties are planned for the couple this weekend.

Mrs. M. H. Biser and her daughter, Miss Linda Biser, of Washington, D. C. will entertain Thursday at a 4 p.m. bridge party at the Biser home on W. Gold street honoring Miss Page.

Mrs. H. Carl Mayes and her daughter, Mrs. Moffatt Ware, Jr., of Charlotte, will entertain at a bridesmaids luncheon Friday at 12:15 at the Mayes home on Ridge street for Miss Page and her wedding attendants.

A rehearsal dinner at 6:30 p.m. Friday at Quality Court in Shelby will honor Miss Page and Mr. Moreau. Host and hostesses will be Mrs. Orrin Swayze of Jackson, Miss. and Mrs. Charles Chamberlin of Ottawa, Canada, aunts of the bridegroom-to-be, and Orrick Metcalfe of Natchez, cousin of the bridegroom-to-be.

After the rehearsal a cake cutting will be held at Kings Mountain Country Club with Captain and Mrs. W. F. Brewer of Norfolk, Mrs. P. W. Ferguson of Atlanta, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt of Kings Mountain serving as hosts. All are aunts and uncles of the bride-to-be.

On the wedding day at 12 o'clock noon, the pair will be entertained at a breakfast at Kings Mountain Country Club with the bride-elect's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Neisler, as hosts.

Mrs. Robbs Hostess To Baptist Circle 1

Mrs. Lyman Robbs entertained members of Circle 1 of Second Baptist church at her home Monday night. Eight members were present.

The program, "I Must Act", was led by Mrs. J. H. Robbs, assisted by Mr. George Julian, Mrs. Ethel White, Mrs. John Gladden, Mrs. Emmie Benfield and Mrs. Dot Robbs. The evening prayer was led by Mrs. Julian. Mrs. S. O. Kirby presided over the business portion of the meeting and at refreshment time the hostess was assisted in serving a party plate which carried out the Easter motif.

Luncheon Honors Polly Page

Mrs. Kenneth Davis and Mrs. Frank Cranford entertained Saturday at a luncheon at Governor's Inn in Shelby honoring Miss Polly Page, bride-elect of Saturday.

Mrs. Davis will be an attendant in the wedding of Miss Page and Dave Moreau Saturday at 6 p.m. in First Presbyterian church.

The luncheon was held in the private dining room and a color note of pink and white was carried out in party decorations.

The table was centered with an elongated arrangement of pink carnations, fern and valley lilies, showered with tiny pink streamers, the focal point being two pink satin wedding rings. Wide pink satin streamers ran the length of the table and held clusters of white lace wedding bells tied with pink bows. Places for the guests were designated by placecards in white and green, to which were attached tiny bags of rice tied in pink net showered with pink ribbons. The honoree's place was marked by a big bow of pink satin and a white orchid corsage.

The hostesses' gift to Miss Page was the butter knife in her silver pattern.

The guest list included the hostesses, Miss Page, her mother, Mrs. Harry Page, Mrs. Vernon Crosby, Mrs. W. L. Ramsey, Miss Helen Hay, Mrs. M. H. Biser, Mrs. O. P. Lewis, Mrs. James H. Page, Mrs. Robert Miller, all of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. James Rollins of Grover.

Costume Jewelry $1 up

PIROUETTE - PRICES FROM $1.95 TO $19.00

DELLINGER'S JEWEL SHOP

Kings Mountain's Leading Jewellers