

Six Kings Mountain Girls To Make Debuts At Sub-Deb Ball

Six Kings Mountain girls are among the 96 young ladies to be presented to Western North Carolina society at the Shelby Junior Charity League's 19th annual Sub-Debutante Ball June 5 and 6 in Shelby.

They are: Elizabeth Kelly Bunch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Bunch. Joan Marie McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McClure. Mary Anne McCurdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McCurdy. Priscilla Charlene Padgett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Padgett. Coral Susan Ramseur, daughter of Mrs. W. L. Ramseur and the late Dr. Ramseur. Mary Aileen Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright, Jr.

The local Sub-Debates are all high school seniors.

Members of the Shelby Junior Charity League are completing plans for the glamorous affair to be held at Shelby City Park auditorium.

Chairman for the 1964 ball is Mrs. Gordon Hamrick. Assisting her will be Mrs. Ray Webb Lutz. Mrs. Neil Johnson is debutante secretary and her assistant is Mrs. L. P. Holland, Jr. Mrs. Carl Ray Webb is League president. Mrs. Rush Hamrick, Jr. is publicity chairman.

The Sub-Debutante ball had its beginning 19 years ago when the late Mrs. Dan Paul, the former Miss Isabel Hoey, initiated the occasion. Since that time the gala event is anticipated by young ladies of high school graduating age from 27 towns and cities throughout Western North Carolina as the highlight of a glamorous social season.

Invitations are issued each year to a select group of young women who are members of senior classes in Cleveland and surrounding counties. Date of the Ball is scheduled each year on the weekend following one of the most significant weeks in their lives in which they have been awarded high school diplomas.

Shedding their caps and gown for party dresses and social whirls, the young deb and their escorts begin a round of events prior to the Ball which leads to the formal presentation on Saturday night, June 6. Each deb wears a long white formal gown, long white gloves and carries a bouquet of two dozen red roses tied with red satin bows and streamers.

Following the presentation, deb and their escorts in black tails will form a figure to music by Loris McGlohon and his orchestra. Ballroom dancing will be enjoyed by all until midnight.
