Mrs. Charles Earl Oxford, Jr.

Miss Rebecca Gibson, Charles Oxford Wed In Church Rites At Clover, S. C.

Clover Associate Reformed Presbyterian church provided the setting June 27th for a double-ring exchange of vows uniting Miss Rebecca Arlene Gibson of Clover, S. C. and Charles Earl Oxford, Jr. of Kings Mountain. Dr. J. Calvin Smith was the officiating minister.

Miss Betty Lou Wells was organist for the program of nuptial music and Larry T. McElween was vocal soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Haskel Young Quinn. Her formal gown of crystal organza was designed by her aunt, Mrs. James O. Williams, and featured a fitted bodice with a taupe neckline applied with lace and seed pearls. The skirt, highlighted by unpressed pleats at the sides, swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a Bible presented to the bridegroom's father at his ordination as a Baptist minister. The Bible was topped with an orchid and valley lilies.

Mrs. William Franklin Dulin, aunt of the bride, of Springfield, Ohio, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Gaultney, Mrs. Larry T. McElween, both of Gastonia, and Mrs. James Rhyne of Kings Mountain, sister of the bridegroom.

The four attendants wore full-length gowns of peau de soie with matching headdresses and slippers. The matron's gown was of green peau de soie and she carried a nosegay of yellow roses. The bridesmaids were gowned in yellow and carried single long-stemmed yellow roses.

Kerri Mraz of Morganton, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Donald Bangardner was best man for the bridegroom. The list of ushers included Jimmy Quinn of Gastonia, Captain William Dulin, Wayne Timms and Fred Waldt.

The bridal pair formed a receiving line in the church vestibule to greet wedding guests after the ceremony.
