

Mrs. Thomas Marshall Carlisle

Miss Kay McCarter, Thomas M. Carlisle Wed Sunday In Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Kay Yvonne McCarter became the bride of Thomas Marshall Carlisle Sunday in a 4:30 p.m. wedding in Central Methodist church.

Rev. W. Baxter Davis of Salisbury, great-uncle of the bridegroom, heard the exchange of vows, assisted by Rev. Howard Jordan, minister of the church, using the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Mary Alice McDaniel was organist for the program of traditional music and B. S. Peeler, Jr. was vocal soloist. Mr. Peeler sang "O Perfect Love" by Gurney before the ceremony and "A Wedding Benediction" by Lovelace as the couple knelt at the altar.

The church was decorated with Kentia palms as the background for the lighted cross at the altar, a center basket of glads and chrysanthemums and numerous spiral candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Miss McDaniel played a prelude of wedding music including: Ave Verum by Gounod; The Rosary by Nevin-Rogers; The Sweetest Story Ever Told by Stults; Ava Maria by Bach-Gounod; Whither Thou Goest by Singer; Reverie by Debussy; O Promise Me by Scott-DeKoven; and Berceuse by Sticks. Barnby's O Perfect Love was played during the ceremony and the classic marches were played for processional and recessional music.

Kelly McCarter gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of peau de soie and Alencon lace and featured a scoop neckline with long sleeves. A deep band of matching lace underlined the Empire bodice and the semi-bell skirt was accented by a Watteau train highlighted by a bow. Her triple-tiered veil of French illusion was draped from a tiered crown of seed pearls and tiny pearl droplets. She wore tiny pearl earrings, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade of pom poms and Stephanotis.

Miss Gloria Dean McCarter attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Hampton F. Ott, Jr. of Charlotte and Miss Freida McGinnis of Kings Mountain.

The three attendants wore waltz-length gowns of aqua silk organza featuring an embroidered fitted bodice with short cap sleeves and scoop neckline with bell skirt. Their matching headpieces were aqua roses dropped with circular tulle veils, gifts of the bride, and they carried white cascade bouquets.

Little Miss Lorie Jean Carlisle, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a white embroidered organza dress and carried a basket of flower petals. The gold clasp in her hair was a gift from the bride.

James F. Carlisle of Greensboro was best man for his brother. The list of ushers included James W. Black of Clover, S. C., cousin of the bride, Douglas Carlisle of Shelby, cousin of the bridegroom, George E. Long of Pineville and Hampton F. Ott, Jr. of Charlotte.

Eight friends of the bride participated in the wedding as honorary attendants. They were Miss Louzelle Smith of Kings Mountain and Atlanta, Ga., Miss Evelyn Moore, Miss Linda Pipkin, Miss Joanne Efrid, Miss Linda Brown, Miss Alice Phillips, Mrs. Tom Vance, all of Charlotte, and Mrs. Larry Foster of Greenville, S. C.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McCarter chose a pink lace sheath over satin with matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore beige lace over mint satin with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. J. S. McCarter of Gastonia, grandmother of the bride, chose navy blue with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Sandra Jean Lynn and Miss Doris Ann Black of Clover, S. C., cousins of the bride, kept a guest register in the vestibule of the church where the bridal party formed a receiving line to greet wedding guests after the ceremony.

RECEPTION
The bride's parents were hosts at their home at an informal reception for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests from Little Rock, Ark., Atlanta, Ga., Raleigh, Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte, Gastonia, Washington, Rowland, Lincolnton, Cherryville, Dallas, Lowell, Boston, Shelby, Lattimore, North Carolina, Clover and Greenville, South Carolina.

Overlaid with white floor-length cloth, the bride's table held a tall white candelabrum holding pink baroque tapers and decorative with frosted wedding bells and net. Green punch was served at one end of the table by Mrs. Grady McCarter from a punch bowl entwined at the base with fig leaves and fresh white grapes. Green and white party cakes were served with the punch.

The pink, white and green theme was beautifully carried out in decorative details throughout the house. Bowls of white glads and light pink dahlias were used on mantels in reception rooms.

For a trip to the North Carolina mountains, the new Mrs. Carlisle chose a baby blue dotted Swiss sleeveless dress with white and pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. Kelly McCarter of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school and King's College of Charlotte, she is a medical secretary at Charlotte Memorial hospital. She is a member of the Charlotte Medical Assistants Association. She is granddaughter of John C. Owens of Kings Mountain and Mrs. J. S. McCarter of Gastonia.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Carlisle of Paw Creek. A graduate of West Mecklenburg high school of Charlotte, he attended the University and received diplomas in B. A. management and Junior accounting from King's college at Charlotte. At King's he was president of Phi Theta Pi, international honorary business fraternity. He is employed by Humble Oil & Refining Company in Charlotte.

Charlotte will be home for the newlyweds who will reside at 501 West Boulevard, Apartment 4.

Two Church Groups Spend Weekend Retreat

Several families representing Dixon and Northside Presbyterian churches held a weekend retreat at Kings Mountain Presbytery Camp near Saluda Saturday and Sunday.

The camp activities were directed by Rev. J. S. Mann, pastor of the two churches.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Stewart and family, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Stewart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Berry and sons, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sellers and George, Jr., Miss Geraldine Humphries, all of Kings Mountain; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rednour and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goforth and family, all of Gastonia.

Miss Snow White of Raleigh has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Ethel White, and other Kings Mountain relatives.

Club Calendar Is Announced

Kings Mountain Country Club has announced a calendar of activities for members during the month of August.

August activities will begin on Saturday with club night festivities featuring an Hawaiian luau. Co-hosts are Mr. and Mrs. Jack White and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Franklin.

Sunday lunch buffet will be served after church for the family Sunday, August 16th.

A ladies' bridge luncheon is scheduled Wednesday, August 19th, beginning at 10 a.m. Reservations are asked by 3 p.m. the preceding Tuesday.

Saturday, August 22nd, is designated as "lobster night" with the dinner menu also including steak with accessories.

Club managers, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Berlin, will be on vacation the week of August 2-10. The pool and prop shop will remain open.

Book Club Met Thursday

Mrs. Grier Plonk was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon Book club held at her home on Mountain street.

Mrs. C. A. Butterworth presided at the business meeting in the absence of Mrs. E. W. Neal who is vacationing in Flat Rock, N. C. this summer. Mrs. Butterworth's daughter-in-law, whose husband teaches at Brevard College, gave the program. Mrs. J. C. Nickels and Mrs. Grady King were present as visitors.

She discussed the Patterson Cup and the Mayflower Cup, two awards presented to her club. She also talked on "Twelve Noted Women of North Carolina." A sweet course was served at refreshment time.

Sheppard Family Notes Anniversaries

Sunday was a special day for birthday celebrations in the C. A. Sheppard family.

Mrs. Sheppard was guest-of-honor at a surprise family party given by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Limbaugh, her daughters, Mrs. Woodrow Rigdon and Mrs. Maude Proctor at the Rigdon home in Greenville, South Carolina. Mrs. Limbaugh and Mrs. Sheppard spent the day in Greenville.

Another daughter of Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Earl Hicks, of Bessemer City, celebrated a birthday July 26th. Mrs. Hick's daughter, Mrs. W. C. Summitt of Kings Mountain, also celebrated a birthday Sunday.

Mauney Family Has Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney had their children and grandchildren at home during the weekend for a family reunion.

They included: Major and Mrs. R. Maynard Snow and children, Ann, Linda, Dick and Jerre, who had been visiting from Omaha, Nebraska. Mrs. Snow is the former Alice Betty Mauney.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack R. Mauney and children, Thad, Jon and Nina, of Raleigh.
Dr. and Mrs. Donald S. Kellam, Jr. and children, Mark, Carl, Bret and Gwyn, of Charlotte. Mrs. Kellam is the former Miss Pauline Mauney.

Mr. and Mrs. Flem Mauney and children, Karen and Jimmy, of Cary.
Miss Sue Ruddock of Charlotte and Major William O. Ruddock of Wichita, Kansas.

Drop-In Honors Brides-Elect

Miss Martha Lou Ware and Miss Beth Roberts, brides-elect, were paid compliment Thursday evening at a drop-in party held in the parlor of First Baptist church.

Miss Virginia Cole, Mrs. Charles Blalock, Mrs. Lee Dixon, Mrs. Bob White and Mrs. Roy Hammett shared hostess duties. Guests who called from 7:30 until 9 o'clock showered the two brides-to-be with miscellaneous household gifts and the hostesses took the occasion to give them their wedding gifts and shoulder corsages of white carnations.

Miss Ware, who will marry Toney Wells Saturday at 8 p.m. in First Baptist church, wore a printed dacton dress with orchid slippers. Miss Roberts, who will wed Douglas Eubanks August 8th in First Baptist church, wore a pink dress with matching accessories.

The refreshment table was highlight of decoration. Overlaid with floor-length handmade lace cloth, the table held a mass arrangement of all-white summer flowers. Punch was served from one end of the table from a cut-glass bowl surrounded with greenery and white blossoms. Green and white party cakes were served with punch and nuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes of Pageland, S. C. attended the Rawles-Kidd family reunion at Bethesda Presbyterian church near York, S. C. on Sunday.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Bumgardner of Kings Mountain announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy, to Garland R. Ridings, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Ridings of Shelby. No date has been set for the wedding.

People In The News

Donna Leanne Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders, celebrated her first birthday Wednesday, July 29th.

Leanne was guest-of-honor at a family party attended by her parents, her older brother, Mark, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sanders and Mrs. Grady A. Rhea, young Crystal Huffstetler and numerous aunts and other relatives.

The three-tier birthday cake was decorated by Leanne's paternal grandmother. The cake was topped with a doll and was served with ice cream from a table in the backyard of the Sanders home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ledford and children, Ricky and Terry, spent several days last week in Fayetteville with Mrs. Ledford's brother, Warrant Officer James W. McDaniel and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney had their children and grandchildren at home during the weekend for a family reunion.

They included: Major and Mrs. R. Maynard Snow and children, Ann, Linda, Dick and Jerre, who had been visiting from Omaha, Nebraska. Mrs. Snow is the former Alice Betty Mauney.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack R. Mauney and children, Thad, Jon and Nina, of Raleigh.
Dr. and Mrs. Donald S. Kellam, Jr. and children, Mark, Carl, Bret and Gwyn, of Charlotte. Mrs. Kellam is the former Miss Pauline Mauney.

Drop-In Honors Brides-Elect

Miss Martha Lou Ware and Miss Beth Roberts, brides-elect, were paid compliment Thursday evening at a drop-in party held in the parlor of First Baptist church.

Miss Virginia Cole, Mrs. Charles Blalock, Mrs. Lee Dixon, Mrs. Bob White and Mrs. Roy Hammett shared hostess duties. Guests who called from 7:30 until 9 o'clock showered the two brides-to-be with miscellaneous household gifts and the hostesses took the occasion to give them their wedding gifts and shoulder corsages of white carnations.

Miss Ware, who will marry Toney Wells Saturday at 8 p.m. in First Baptist church, wore a printed dacton dress with orchid slippers. Miss Roberts, who will wed Douglas Eubanks August 8th in First Baptist church, wore a pink dress with matching accessories.

The refreshment table was highlight of decoration. Overlaid with floor-length handmade lace cloth, the table held a mass arrangement of all-white summer flowers. Punch was served from one end of the table from a cut-glass bowl surrounded with greenery and white blossoms. Green and white party cakes were served with punch and nuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes of Pageland, S. C. attended the Rawles-Kidd family reunion at Bethesda Presbyterian church near York, S. C. on Sunday.

Family Party Honors Cornwell

A. H. Cornwell was honored Sunday on his birthday at a family party attended by seven of his nine children and their families in Bishopville, S. C.

Going to Bishopville for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell, Miss Margaret Cornwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. A. Dewitte Cornwell, all of Kings Mtn. They were joined in Bishopville by Mr. and Mrs. Giles Cornwell of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Len Furse of Summerton, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sanford and sons, Kenny, Manning and Charles, of Hartwell, Ga. and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Reynolds.

The Reynolds family entertained at their home.

Among the grandchildren present were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Calhoun of South Carolina and Mrs. Bill Murray and son of Hartwell, Ga.

Mr. Cornwell cut a decorated cake at the noon hour.

Club To Hold Calendar Canvass

Junior Woman's club members will conduct the annual community birthday canvass Monday night from 7 until 9 p.m. and members are asked to gather at the clubhouse for street assignments at 6:45 p.m.

The calendar is the club's chief money-making project. It lists birthday and wedding anniversary dates as well as advertising of business firms and meeting dates. Each listing is 25 cents and the calendar itself sells for 50 cents.

Proceeds from the calendar project support the various community projects of the women's organization.

Following the house-to-house canvass, the club members will return to the clubhouse for refreshments. Mrs. Robert Champion, Jr. and Mrs. Bob Morris will be hostesses.

Team captains are Mrs. Champion and Miss Peggy Ross, Team No. 1; and Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Dick McGinnis, Team No. 2. The membership is divided into two teams.

Foster Returns Home After New York Trip

Freddie Foster returned home Thursday after spending several days in New York at the World's Fair.

Foster was guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Avery of Crouse.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Foster, Freddie and the Averys left Kings Mountain last Saturday, spending four days in New York, returning home on Thursday.

Party Honors Miss Roberts

Miss Beth Roberts, bride-elect of August 8th, was honor guest at a linen shower given by Miss Carolyn Andrews at her home on route 1, Grover.

Bridal games were played by the 19 guests attending. Decorated cakes, a congealed salad and punch were served at refreshment time.

Miss Sandra Andrews and Mrs. Horace Andrews assisted the hostess in serving.

Miss Roberts wore a pink party dress and was given a pink corsage by the hostess.

Clubwomen's Institute Set

Kings Mountain clubwomen will attend a District IV Institute for club officers, department and division chairmen Monday a 10 a.m. at Gastonia Woman's club.

Local women planning to attend should contact Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, president of the Senior club, and Mrs. Bill Jones, president of the Junior club.

Registration will be held from 9 to 10 a.m. Brunch will be served at 11 a.m. and the meeting will be adjourned at 1 p.m. Mrs. James Callendo of Stanley, district president, will preside.

Workshops will be given on scrapbook, pressbook and year-book rules and requirements and on reports, do's and don'ts. Juniors will hold a workshop from 9:30 until 10 a.m.

Registration and the morning brunch is $1.25.

Mrs. Ware Hostess To Baptist Circle 1

Mrs. James Ware was hostess at her home Monday night to 10 members of Circle 1 of Second Baptist church.

Mrs. Emmie Benfield led the call to worship and Mrs. George Julian read the scripture reading. The program was led by Mrs. James Ware who used the theme, "Before the Centuries." Others participating were Mrs. Ethel White, Mrs. Benfield, and Mrs. Julian. Mrs. Ware led the discussion in the absence of Mrs. J. H. Robbs, program chairman.

Mrs. S. O. Kirby presided over a brief business session. She announced that Mrs. Ethel White will be hostess to the August meeting.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday:
5:30—Mrs. James B. Simpson, Mrs. Ronnie Kincaid and Mrs. James Kimmell are entertaining at Lake Montonia at a cook-out for members of the Ware-Wells wedding party and their families.
8:00—Rehearsal for the Ware-Wells wedding in First Baptist church.

9:00—Members of the W. M. Wells family are entertaining in the parlor of First Baptist church at an after-rehearsal party honoring Miss Martha Lou Ware and Bryant Toney Wells.

Saturday:
1:00—Miss Cynthia Wright and Miss Andrea Elliott of Charlotte are entertaining at the former's home in Grover at a bridesmaid's luncheon honoring Miss Martha Lou Ware, bride-elect.

1:00—Miss Carole Plonk and Miss Joyce Plonk are entertaining at the former's home in Crescent Hill at a luncheon honoring Miss Dianna Neal, bride-elect.
1:00—Luncheon honoring Miss Beth Roberts, bride-elect. Mrs. Kenneth Davis, hostess, at the home of her father, Coman Falls, West Mountain street.

7:00—Club Night, Hawaiian luau, at the Country Club. Hosts: Mr. and Mrs. Jack White and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Franklin.
8:00—The wedding of Miss Martha Lou Ware and Bryant Toney Wells in First Baptist church.

4:00—The wedding of Miss Carol Ann Bridges and James Spurgeon McMillan in Oakview Baptist church.
Monday:
3:00—Circle 1 of Central Methodist church at the church. Mrs.

Thomas Pollock and Mrs. Myrtle H. Settlemyre, hostesses.
3:30—Circle 5 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Lila Erwin, Grover road.
5:00-7 p.m.—Mrs. Michael McKee is entertaining at her home at a lawn party honoring Miss Dianna Neal, bride-elect.

6:45—Junior Woman's club at the clubhouse. Birthday calendar canvass from 7 until 9 p.m. Hostesses: Mrs. Robert Champion, Jr. and Mrs. Bob Morris.
7:00—Circle 2 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. F. A. McDaniel, Jr., 804 Williams street. Family covered dish supper.

7:00—Circle 4 of First Presbyterian church. Mrs. C. F. Thomason and Mrs. Harry Page, hostesses, at Lake Montonia. Family covered dish supper.
7:00—Mrs. Horace Brown and Miss Elaine Hartsoe are entertaining at the former's home at 603 Groves street at a bridal party honoring Miss Gloria Brown, bride-elect.

7:30—Circle 8 of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. J. H. Patterson.
7:30—Circle 1 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. H. D. Houser, 298 North Piedmont avenue.

Wednesday:
9:30 a.m.—Circle 2 of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Paul H. Briggs.
10 a.m.—Joint meeting of Circles 3 and 6 of First Presbyterian church in the Ladies' Bible Classroom of the church.
1:00—Mrs. Charles P. Seism is entertaining at her home at a bridesmaid's luncheon honoring Miss Dianna Neal, bride-elect.

Miss Becky Westbrock, Phil Humphries Wed Friday In Double-Ring Ceremony

Gastonia's Northside Presbyterian church provided the setting Friday for a 7 p.m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Rebecca Jane Westbrock of Gastonia and Thomas Philip Humphries of Kings Mountain.

Rev. James S. Mann, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church altar was arranged with palms and white flowers. The couple knelt for the benediction on a wrought-iron kneeling bench.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of white lace and bridal satin with short veil. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and showered with satin streamers.

Miss Sharon Westbrock attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a full-skirted blue organza dress with matching headpiece dropped with flirtation veil and carried a bouquet of pastel flowers in shades of blue and pink.

Steve Powell, former college roommate of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphries have returned from a trip to the coast and are at home temporarily with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Humphries. The bride is a June graduate of Gastonia's Ashley high school. Her husband, a graduate of Grover high school, is a June graduate of North Carolina State of the University of North Carolina. He has accepted a position with The Hines Company.

The 26 guests showered Miss Bridges with miscellaneous household gifts.

Overlaid with white cloth, the refreshment table was decorated in white and silver wedding bells. White candles and ivy were used on the mantel in the living room. Assorted sandwiches were served with wedding cookies and punch.

Miss Bridges wore a white eye-let embroidered party dress with corsage of red carnations, gift from the hostesses.

Miss Bridges and James Spurgeon McMillan will be married Sunday in a 4 p.m. wedding in Oakview Baptist church.

ALL OUR

Costume Jewelry

1/2 Price

Delinger's

JEWEL SHOP

Kings Mountain's Leading Jewelers

Continued On Page 5