The Veterans Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q — I am a widow with an infant child. Soon I will marry a disabled veteran who receives maximum pension. How much will his pension increase with two dependents?
A — Assuming the veteran is single now, the maximum pension would be $85 per month if his income was below $600 per year. A veteran with two dependents with income below $1,000 per year would be entitled to $95 per month.

Q — Under the above circumstances, will the VA pay any medical or dental expenses for my daughter and me? If I should become pregnant, will the VA pay the maternity costs?
A — The VA will not pay any medical or dental expenses for your daughter nor you, nor will it pay any maternity costs.

Q — Does a veteran who served between September 16, 1940, and December 31, 1956, earn any gratuitous Social Security wage credits?
A — Yes. These gratuitous credits amount to $160 for each month of duty, but are not listed on the Social Security earnings record until benefits are applied for.

Q — I am going to move in a few weeks. Do I write to Chicago where my checks come from to change my address?
A — Definitely not. You must write to the VA Regional Office where your claims file is located and it will make prompt change in your address. Also, notify your post office of your address change.
