CALLING ALL HOME MAKERS By GENE TIMMS DECORATING IDEAS

There is a great change taking place in the thinking of both homemakers and decorators about what TIMMS were once considered "taboos".

Here are just a few of the many decorating fallacies which have "gone with the "Symmetry is required in arranging furniture". For many years most homes had the same end tables and lamps on each side of the sofa. Now it is considered smart to use no lamps or tables on the ends, or a different table and lamp on each end. Pictures used to be arranged symmetrically and are now being arranged irregularly. Chairs were used in pairs, but now the tendency is to use two different chairs.

"Never mix different periods". While many people stay with one period or style throughout their home, the trend is not only to have different periods in each room but to mix several periods in one room. As an example, modern, traditional and Oriental, used together in a living room can be both attractive and dramatic.

"Never mix wood finishes". Some homemakers still insist that all woods in a room be matched perfectly. Colors of fabrics, walls, drapes and floor coverings must all blend beautifully but you can use walnut, mahogany, ebony, white or maple in the same room and really give the room that "decorator touch"

The most common fallacy in decorating was that you had to follow a set of rules. We advise you to follow your ingenuity, and see us for free decorator advice and guid-
