SUMMER SAFETY

Several farm ponds have been made safer in Columbus County as a result of the efforts of Mrs. Homer Adams, county safety chairman.

Mrs. Elaine Blake, home economics agent, reports that the North Tatum Home Demonstration Club and 4-H Club are still working on farm pond safety and recently replaced worn ropes, inner tubes and bleach bottle buoys in a local pond. Other clubs are being encouraged to make farm ponds safer.

4-H'ERS STUDY ELECTRICITY

One of the requirements in the 4-H electric projects is to visit a modern electrified home. Mrs. Elsie Whaley, home economics agent in Pasquotank County, says the boys and girls have been trying to meet their requirements as year. Recently, they visited the all-electric home of Mrs. David Meggs in Elizabeth City. On a tour of the home, Mrs. Meggs and Helen Sue Shuey, VEPCO home economist, explained the uses made of electricity.

HOUSING SEMINAR ENDS WITH TOUR

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

An Australian family is visiting an Alamance County home-maker, Mrs. D. V. Andrew. Mrs. Andrew met the family while attending the meeting of the Associated Country Women of the World in Australia in 1962.

The Home Demonstration County Council planned a special program for local club members so the Australian family could show slides of their country.

HOME DECORATING

Through information received at Home Demonstration Club meetings in past years, Mrs. Hewitt Fields, Rt. 1, has had no trouble in planning for the redecoration of her den.

Miss Marie Peniel, home economics agent, advises more homemakers to keep a file of information on decorating so the actual work will be easier.

GROCERY MONEY SAVED

"How much money can a family save using instant non-fat dry milk?" Members of the Old Shootine Creek Home Demonstration Club in Clay County have been considering that question.

Mrs. Justine Rozier, home economics agent, says the women were surprised to learn that the cost of dried milk ranges from eight to twelve cents per quart, depending on the quantity purchased. They decided that they might save more money by using dried milk to make their butter-milk.

Summer Theatre Will Stage "My Fair Lady"

CHARLOTTE — The Charlotte Summer Theater will present the queen of Musicals, "My Fair Lady", at Owens Auditorium Tuesday, August 11 through Sunday, August 16. Star of the musical smash hit is stage and screen favorite Jeffrey Lynn.

"My Fair Lady" is by all odds the most successful show in all theatrical history. Its run on Broadway reached 2,717 performances in six and a half years — more than any other musical in stage history. The touring company criss-crossed the American continent five times and played continuously for six years and nine months. The show has been an international success in all the capitals of the world and has been translated into over 20 languages.

Based on George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion", "My Fair Lady" stars Jeffrey Lynn as Henry Higgins, the irascible bachelor who turns the cockney Eliza Doolittle into a grand lady and loses his heart to her in the process. Mr. Lynn has played the role with outstanding success in most of the leading stock companies in the U. S. He is well-known to movie and television fans for his performances in such films as "A Letter to Three Wives", "Butterfield 8" and "Yes, My Darling Daughter", and on the television screen in all the leading video shows. Mr. Lynn has starred on Broadway and in the national companies of "Two for the See-saw" and "Mary, Mary".

The music of "My Fair Lady" has already taken its place among the best-loved songs of the American nation. The "original cast" album had an unprecedented sale of over 4,000,000 copies. Hit songs by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe include "Wouldn't It Be Lovely", "With a Little Bit of Luck", "The Rain in Spain", "I Could Have Danced All Night", "On the Street Where You Live", "Get Me to the Church on Time", and "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face".

Favorite players from past Charlotte Summer Theater productions featured in "My Fair Lady" are Alfred Dennis, Rowena Rollins, and Geoffrey Webb.

"My Fair Lady" will run Tuesday evening, August 11 through Sunday evening, August 16, with matinees on Saturday and Sun-

Heart Funders Say "Thanks"

Tar Heel Heart Funders are grateful to their fellow citizens for their rally to the "Heart Cause" in North Carolina.

Ten years ago, Heart Fund receipts in the state stood at less than $150,000 but by 1958 the annual Heart Association fund raising effort had climbed to $300,000; by 1960, to $400,000.

This year, some 85,000 Tar Heels participated in the state-wide rural and urban "Tar-Heel-to-Tar-Heel" campaign and the result: $600,000-plus — this year's record among voluntary health agencies in this state.

Mrs. J. Spencer Love, of Greensboro, who headed the Heart Association's volunteer army, expressed high admiration for her co-workers who spent countless hours knocking on doors, addressing civic organizations, and explaining — over and over again — the many activities and programs of the state and national heart groups supported by the Heart Fund. "From the bottom of my heart, I thank the broadcasters and editors, businessmen and housewives, men, women and children, who gave their dollars, elbow-energy, and personal dedication to all of the programs of the North Carolina Heart Association during the past year," Mrs. Love said.

"Heart disease is such a tremendous health problem in this state and country and the problem strikes home to so many of us," Mrs. Love suggested. "I am confident every Heart Fund Dollar invested takes us that much closer to a solution of the heart
