

The expression "Pyrric victory" dates back to the third century B. C. when a Greek ruler named Pyrrus led an Army into what is now southern Italy in an attempt to protect a group of city-states there against the onslaughts of the Romans. He succeeded in inflicting two severe defeats on the Roman armies, but his own losses were so severe that he was unable to follow up his successes. According to the Book of Knowledge, we still give the name of "Pyrric victory" to one in which the victor suffers almost as much as the vanquished and have almost equal losses.

South America's Lake Titicaca, at about 12,500 feet above sea level, is the highest navigable body of water in the world. According to the Book of Knowledge, it also ranks as the largest lake on the continent.

The Veterans Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q-I have a service-connected disability which requires continuous treatment. I plan to travel abroad this summer. What arrangements shall I make regarding medication and treatment?

A-You should contact the VA Clinic now treating you to obtain appropriate supplies of prescribed medication to carry with you, and for suggestions about obtaining medical supplies and services abroad. In case of a medical emergency, you should contact the American Embassy or Consular Office.

Q-My husband died recently and the VA paid his insurance to his former wife even though they had been divorced 15 years ago. Why was this done?

A-The VA is required by law to pay the insurance to the person last designated as beneficiary by the insured veteran. Your husband either neglected to change his beneficiary after the divorce, or it was his wish that the insurance be paid to the former wife.

Q-Is it necessary to report compensation or pension from the VA as income if I am receiving VA pension?

A-The person receiving the compensation or pension directly from VA need not report it as income on his pension claim. However, if the money was paid by the VA to someone else and received by the pensioner by inheritance or gift from that person, then it should be reported as income for pension purposes in the same manner as other property received by gift or inheritance.
