

Mrs. Canan Wins 50-Year Pin; Couple Sets Wedding Date

MISS JACQUELINE HOYLE is a daughter of Mrs. Arthur David Gosnell and the late Grover Lee Hoyle. Her mother announces her engagement to Nolan Tracy Scism, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Paul Scism. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The wedding will be an event of November 1.

Miss Katherine Green, Jerry R. Wilson Are Wed In Ceremony In Yalova, Turkey

The wedding of Miss Katherine Luella Green of New Castle, Pa. and Jerry Reid Wilson of Kings Mountain were married Saturday, August 15th, in Turkey. A civil ceremony preceded the church rites at the United States Air Force Base Chapel in Yalova. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Green of New Castle, Pennsylvania, was graduated from New Castle high school and the University of Pennsylvania. Prior to her marriage, she was employed by the State Department in Lahore, Pakistan. Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Wilson of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, he attended North Carolina State college and Clemson college. He is now stationed with the USAF in Yalova, Turkey, for a two-year assignment. Yalova, Turkey is home for the newlyweds until the bridegroom completes his service duty.

FHA Chapter Begins Work

New officers of the Kings Mountain chapter of the Future Homemakers of America held their initial meeting of the year August 19th. The ten officers and the two advisors, Mrs. Baird and Mrs. John Gamble, met in the Home Economics Department early Wednesday morning to begin their work for the coming year. Chairmen were appointed for the coming events of the year: the first of which is the installation of the new officers. Following the ceremony will be the Big-sister, Little-sister Banquet. The FHA expects to enroll many new members this coming school year. The only requirement is that a student has taken one year of home economics. All girls interested in joining may contact her home economics teacher or a member of the club.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Saturday:
7:30—Rehearsal for the Yarbrough-Littlejohn wedding in Kings Mountain Baptist church.
8:30—Mrs. James E. Littlejohn is entertaining at her home at a cake cutting honoring Miss Beverley Yarbrough and Jimmy Littlejohn.
Sunday:
12:00—The wedding of Miss Beverley Anne Yarbrough and James A. Littlejohn in Kings Mountain Baptist church.
Wednesday:
9:30 a.m.—Circle 2 of Central Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg.
10 a.m.—Circle 3 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Henry Neisler, 403 Neisler Drive.
10 a.m.—Circle 6 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Paul Neisler, Sr., 405 Neisler Drive.

Philip Ward Broom, son of Captain and Mrs. Philip Broom of Edwards, California, celebrated his first birthday August 17th. Young Broom is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Dean of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Broom of Monroe. His mother is the former Phyllis Dean of Kings Mountain. A cowboy-decorated birthday cake was cut at a family party at the Ward Broom home in Monroe the weekend of young Broom's birthday. The Kings Mountain Deans went to Monroe for the weekend reunion with their daughter and family and for the birthday party for young Philip Broom.

About This N' That

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Ferguson of Gastonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Anne, to David Jake Baity, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Baity, Sr., of Kings Mountain. The wedding will take place September 27th in Gastonia's West Avenue Presbyterian church. Miss Ferguson is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy and is employed as social recreation director for the City of Gastonia recreation department. Mr. Baity, a member of the news staff of The Gastonia Gazette, is a former Kings Mountain Herald staff member and before joining The Gazette was editor of the Mount Holly News and Stanley News. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school. Mrs. and Mrs. Buck Dilling of Atlanta, Ga. spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Booth W. Gillespie and other relatives. Mrs. Pauline F. Weaver, Park Grace teacher, returned home Sunday after attending the final summer session at Appalachian State Teacher's college in Boone. Mrs. Weaver also visited Mr. and Mrs. Jones Fortune in Kingsport, Tennessee. Mr. Fortune is brother of Mrs. Weaver.

Comings And Goings

Postmaster Charles L. Alexander, Mrs. Alexander and their son and daughter, Reggie and Cindy, flew to New York this week for the Postmaster's Convention. They will visit the World's Fair before returning home. Mrs. Ellen Petrosino has received word she is a winner in the Charge-It-To-Domino Sugar Sweepstakes which was conducted in local food stores by American Sugar Company. The Kings Mountain woman obtained an entry blank from Winn-Dixie Stores. Her letter from the president of American Sugar Company confirmed she had won a paid-up $25 charge account from Macy's Department Store and a three-months subscription to the New York Times. She was informed she can make her purchases via mail or visits to any Macy's store. Mrs. Petrosino is receptionist at Massachusetts Mohair Plush Company's Neisler plant. Miss Beverley Yarbrough, bride-elect of Sunday, was honor guest Thursday evening when Miss Libby Medlin and Miss Kay Davis entertained at a drop-in party in the fellowship hall of Kings Mountain Baptist church. The 50 guests showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous household gifts. Miss Yarbrough received a corsage of white carnations which the hostesses pinned to her party dress. Overlaid with net over white, the table was decorated in pink and green. Green punch was served from one end by Miss Davis, assisted by Miss Susan Littlejohn. Mrs. C. D. Ware assisted in serving party cakes which carried out the color theme. Mrs. Vernon P. Crosby and son, Steve, are home after spending the summer in Long Island, New York with Mrs. Crosby's sister, Mrs. Ernest Mauney, Glenn and Jeanne. The Mauneys accompanied the Crosbys home for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Glenn White, and her parents-in-law, the W. K. Mauneys. The Mauneys and Crosbys visited the World's Fair and the Catskills during their summer vacation. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Black of Kings Mountain announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda Carolyn, to Kenneth Dwight Towery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Towery of Cherrville. A September wedding is planned.

Fifty years an Eastern Star.

That's the record established by Mrs. Clara Canan, honored Friday evening when the Worthy Grand Matron and the Worthy Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina OES paid their official visit to Kings Mountain Chapter 123. Mrs. Canan was presented a 50-year membership pin by Mrs. Elizabeth Moody West, Worthy Grand Matron at right in accompanying photograph. In addition to Mrs. West, others present were Charles Clifton Andrews, Worthy Grand Patron; Mrs. Helen Rimmer, Past Grand Matron; Arnold W. Kincaid, Past Grand Patron; Mrs. Laura Smith, Grand Marshal; Mrs. Helen Leonard, Grand Organist; Mrs. Jewel Measamer, Grand Martha; Mrs. Virginia Best, Grand Warder; Mrs. Bertie Dover, Mrs. Lillie McClure and Mrs. Janie Kincaid, Grand Representatives; Mrs. Betty L. Kelly, District Deputy Grand Matron; Colus W. Williams, District Deputy Grand Patron; officers, members and numerous visitors of the Kings Mountain chapter as well as Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Goter, daughter and son-in-law of the recipient, and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney. Mrs. Canan joined Crookston Chapter 137 in Minnesota in 1913 and transferred her membership to the Kings Mountain Chapter in 1960. She is a Past Matron of the Crookston chapter and is currently serving as organist of the Kings Mountain chapter.

Miss Judith Hornbeck, Wayne Mayhue Wed Saturday In Double-Ring Ceremony

Richmond, Virginia's River Road Presbyterian church provided the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Judith Elaine Hornbeck and Hugh Wayne Mayhue of Kings Mountain. Dr. Sam Newell officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The church altar was arranged with Cibotum green ferns and white glads lighted by cathedral tapers in silver candelabrum. Miss Ann Cosby was organist for the program of nuptial music and Miss Barbara Lane Perry of High Point was vocalist. Miss Perry sang "Eternal Love" by Tesco. Fred R. Edney, stepfather of the bride, gave her in marriage. Her formal wedding gown was designed of ivory silk peau de soie with a chapel length train that was matched to the shoulder of the mantilla and carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids and stephanotis. Miss Connie Burroughs of Port Washington, New York attended the bride as maid of honor and Miss Frances Perry of Richmond was bridesmaid. The two attendants wore floor-length gold brocade gowns featuring high bodices and carried cascades of bronze spider mums. Best man for the bridegroom was his father. The list of ushers included the bride's brother, Elliott Keith Hornbeck of Richmond, Va., George William Bates and David Hefelfinger, both of Chapel Hill, and Ernest Gail Barker of Raleigh. The bride's mother chose a green print silk dress with matching slippers and a shoulder corsage of bronze spider mums. Mrs. Mayhue, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gold silk dress with matching slippers and a corsage of bronze spider mums. The reception, at which the bride's parents were hosts, carried out the theme of the wedding. The bridal pair cut their wedding cake. Miss Barbara Lane Perry of High Point and Mrs. G. William Bates of Chapel Hill assisted in details of entertaining. For a trip to Sea Island, Ga., the new Mrs. Mayhue wore a suit of green herring bone tweed with bone accessories and the orchids lifted from her bouquet. BRIDE AND BRIDEGRROOM The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Fred R. Edney of Richmond, Va. She is a June graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Nursing and a member of Kappa Delta Sorority. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Mayhue of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom. A graduate of the University of North Carolina, he is a senior in UNC Medical School at Chapel Hill. He is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity. Chapel Hill will be home for the newlyweds. They will be at home in Colony Apartments.

Elizabeth Stewart, Editor Pledge Vows In Sunday Wedding At Earl

The wedding of Miss Brenda Dianne Woods of Grover and Thomas Graham Wright of Shelby took place at New Hope Baptist church at Earl Sunday at 3 p.m. Rev. J. E. McGinnis, uncle of the bride, heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony. Miss Brenda Wyatt of Ahsokie was pianist for the program of nuptial music; Mrs. Lloyd Williams was vocalist and Mrs. J. L. Hardin was at the organ. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of peau de soie and Alencon lace. The contour bodice had a lace plastron traced with seed pearls and the bell skirt was trimmed with jeweled Alencon lace sprays. A detachable Watteau train, caught at the back of the bodice, flowed to chapel length. Her headress was a plateau of lace to match her gown with a silk illusion veil attached. She carried a cascade of white roses and tuberoses with royal orchids at the center. Miss Patsy Woods was her sister's maid of honor and Misses Brenda Beam, Gaye Mayhew, Rachel Blanton and Barbara Billings of Jonesville were bridesmaids. Trudy and Vickie Woods, also sisters of the bride, and Gaye and Brenda Lail of Greenville, S. C. were junior bridesmaids and Vickie Lail was flower girl. Gaye, Brenda and Vickie Lail are cousins of the bridegroom. The adult attendants wore dresses of pink bridal satin with matching bow headresses and circular tulle veils and carried bouquets of sweetheart roses, pink carnations and pink Garza mums. The junior attendants' dresses were of pink embroidered organdy. They wore matching bow headpieces and their bouquets were miniatures of those carried by the adult attendants. The wedding reception, with the bride's parents as hosts, was held in the social hall of the church. Petite fours, mints, nuts and pink punch were served. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woods of Grover, the bride is a graduate of No. 3 high school, attended UNC-G for a year and holds a secretarial position at Shelby's First National Bank. She made her debut at the Sub-Debutante Ball in Shelby in 1963. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wright of Shelby are the bridegroom's parents. A graduate of Shelby high school, he was graduated in June this year from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He will begin work as a coach and teacher at East Rut-

Miss Yarbrough Gives Plans

Miss Beverley Anne Yarbrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Yarbrough, has completed plans for her marriage to James A. Littlejohn, son of Mrs. James E. Littlejohn and the late Mrs. Littlejohn, and announces them this week. The wedding will take place Sunday at 12 noon in Kings Mountain Baptist church. Rev. Lawrence Roberts of Shelby will hear the exchange of pledges, using the double-ring service. Mrs. J. C. Bridges will be at the organ for the program of traditional music and B. S. Peeler will be vocal soloist. The bride-elect and bridegroom-to-be will come to the altar together. Serving as ushers will be DeWayne Yarbrough, brother of the bride-elect, Tommy Clay, of Greensboro, cousin of the prospective bridegroom, David Roberts, Paul Fulton, Gary Blanton and Gene Gibson, all of Kings Mountain. Miss Elizabeth Medlin will keep a guest register in the vestibule of the church where the bridal couple will greet wedding guests after the ceremony. Following their wedding rehearsal on Saturday evening, Miss Yarbrough and Mr. Littlejohn will be entertained by Mr. Littlejohn's mother at a cake cutting at her home. Members of the two families, the wedding party and close friends will attend.

Debs Choose Chief Marshals

Debutantes who will be presented to society at North Carolina's 38th Debutante Ball in Raleigh September 10-12 have selected their chief marshals for the event. Two Kings Mountain girls are among the 194 to make their debuts. Miss Beth Roberts will have her father, George Henry Houser, as chief marshal. Miss Sue Hunnicutt will have her father, Harold Richard Hunnicutt, Sr., as chief marshal. Many of the girls have chosen their fathers as chief escorts.

Society

Elizabeth Stewart, Editor Phone 739-5441

Miss Dianne Woods, Thomas G. Wright Pledge Vows In Sunday Wedding At Earl

The wedding of Miss Brenda Dianne Woods of Grover and Thomas Graham Wright of Shelby took place at New Hope Baptist church at Earl Sunday at 3 p.m.

Rev. J. E. McGinnis, uncle of the bride, heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony. Miss Brenda Wyatt of Ahsokie was pianist for the program of nuptial music; Mrs. Lloyd Williams was vocalist and Mrs. J. L. Hardin was at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of peau de soie and Alencon lace. The contour bodice had a lace plastron traced with seed pearls and the bell skirt was trimmed with jeweled Alencon lace sprays. A detachable Watteau train, caught at the back of the bodice, flowed to chapel length. Her headress was a plateau of lace to match her gown with a silk illusion veil attached. She carried a cascade of white roses and tuberoses with royal orchids at the center.

Miss Patsy Woods was her sister's maid of honor and Misses Brenda Beam, Gaye Mayhew, Rachel Blanton and Barbara Billings of Jonesville were bridesmaids. Trudy and Vickie Woods, also sisters of the bride, and Gaye and Brenda Lail of Greenville, S. C. were junior bridesmaids and Vickie Lail was flower girl. Gaye, Brenda and Vickie Lail are cousins of the bridegroom.

The adult attendants wore dresses of pink bridal satin with matching bow headresses and circular tulle veils and carried bouquets of sweetheart roses, pink carnations and pink Garza mums. The junior attendants' dresses were of pink embroidered organdy. They wore matching bow headpieces and their bouquets were miniatures of those carried by the adult attendants.

The wedding reception, with the bride's parents as hosts, was held in the social hall of the church. Petite fours, mints, nuts and pink punch were served.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woods of Grover, the bride is a graduate of No. 3 high school, attended UNC-G for a year and holds a secretarial position at Shelby's First National Bank. She made her debut at the Sub-Debutante Ball in Shelby in 1963.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wright of Shelby are the bridegroom's parents. A graduate of Shelby high school, he was graduated in June this year from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He will begin work as a coach and teacher at East Rut-

Miss Brenda Hord, Tommy Joe Haynes Wed Sunday In Cherryville Church Rites

Cherryville's Shady Grove Baptist church provided the setting Sunday for a 3 p.m. exchange of vows uniting Miss Brenda Lynette Hord and Tommy Joe Haynes. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hord of Kings Mountain. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Haynes of Cherryville. Rev. Marvin H. Willis officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Harold Murphy was organist for the program of nuptial music and Miss Merlyn Sellers was vocal soloist. The altar was banked by palms, seven-branched candelabra set with cathedral tapers and white gladioli. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace with fitted bodice and neckline outlined with cut-lace scallops. The bouffant skirt was of tiers of lace and extended to a chapel train. Her pearl crown was held by a shoulder-length veil of French illusion and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid. The pearl necklace she wore was a gift from the bridegroom. Miss Martha Hord attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Scism, Miss Karen Bess and Miss Myra Hord. The four attendants wore gowns of pink crystaletta with bandeaux dropped with circular veils. They carried nosegays of pink crysanthemums and tuberoses. Nina Sisk was flower girl and Chester Haynes was ringbearer. The bridegroom's father was best man and the list of ushers included Charles Haynes, Jack Scism, Allan Black and Richard Horn. The new Mrs. Haynes was graduated from Tryon high school and King's Business college. She is employed by Threads, Inc. of Gastonia. Mr. Haynes is a graduate of Cherryville high school and is employed by Burriss Manufacturing Company of Lincolnton. Following a trip to the coast of South Carolina, the newlyweds will be at home on route 1, Cherryville. Blacks Celebrate 45th Anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Black celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary Sunday. The Blacks held a family dinner with relatives calling during the afternoon.

SEMI-ANNUAL EVENT

SALE

Knitting Yarns

KNITTING WORSTEDS REGULARLY TO $1.55	$1.15
ALL OTHER KNITTING MATERIALS	10% OFF

ONE WEEK ONLY—Monday, Aug. 31 thru Sept. 5

PLONK'S