

Hornbeck-Mayhue Vows Said Saturday In Church Wedding In Richmond, Virginia

Richmond, Virginia's River Road Presbyterian church provided the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Judith Elaine Hornbeck and Hugh Wayne Mayhue of Kings Mountain.

Dr. Sam Newell officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church altar was arranged with Cibotum green ferns and white glads lighted by cathedral tapens in silver candelabrum.

Miss Ann Cosby was organist for the program of nuptial music and Miss Barbara Lane Perry of High Point was vocalist. Miss Perry sang "Eternal Love" by Tesco.

Fred R. Edney, stepfather of the bride, gave her in marriage. Her formal wedding gown was designed of Ivory silk peau de soie with a chapel length train that was matched to the shoulder of the gown. She wore a Brussels lace mantilla and carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Connie Burroughs of Port Washington, New York attended the bride as maid of honor and Miss Frances Perry of Richmond was bridesmaid.

The two attendants wore floor-length gold brocade gowns featuring high bodices and carried cascades of bronze spider mums.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father. The list of ushers included the bride's brother, Elliott Keith Hornbeck of Richmond, Va., George William Bates and David Hefelinger, both of Chapel Hill, and Ernest Gail Barker of Raleigh.

The bride's mother chose a green print silk dress with matching slippers and a shoulder corsage of bronze spider mums.

Mrs. Mayhue, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gold silk dress with matching slippers and a corsage of bronze spider mums.

The reception, at which the bride's parents were hosts, carried out the theme of the wedding. The bridal pair cut their wedding cake.

Miss Barbara Lane Perry of High Point and Mrs. G. William Bates of Chapel Hill assisted in details of entertaining.

For a trip to Sea Island, Ga., the new Mrs. Mayhue wore a suit of green herring bone tweed with bone accessories and the orchids lifted from her bouquet.

OES Chapters Held Reception

Kings Mountain Chapter 123 Order of the Eastern Star and Fallston Chapter OES entertained together Sunday afternoon at a tea honoring Mrs. Jo Kelly of Kings Mountain, District Deputy Grand Matron of the 17th District, and Colus Williams of Fallston, District Deputy Grand Patron of the 17th District.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Tate were hosts at their home to friends of the two guests-of-honor and chapter members who called from 3 until 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Kelly was given a pink shoulder corsage, and she and her husband, Clayton Kelly, the district deputy grand patron, past grand matrons Hilda Haliburton of Asheville, Lila Duke of Washington, N. C., past grand patrons A. W. Kincaid of Kings Mountain, H. Swift of Raleigh, Dr. Frank Duke of Washington, N. C., grand warder Virginia Best of Fairmont and grand representatives Sally Swift of Raleigh and Katherine McCracken of Red Springs and Jewel Measmer stood in a receiving line.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate greeted guests and Mrs. R. B. Leonard introduced the receiving line. Mrs. Virginia Coon, Worthy Matron of the Fallston chapter and I. C. Davis, Worthy Patron of the Kings Mountain chapter, also helped entertain.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. O. O. Walker, Mrs. G. A. Bridges, Miss Helen Logan, Mrs. I. C. Davis, Miss Edith Jane Kincaid and Mrs. Paul Walker.

Overlaid with green net over satin, the refreshment table was decorated in pink, green and yellow, also echoed in refreshments of punch, sandwiches, cakes and date nut balls.

A silver candelabrum was at the center of the table, and roses, dahlias, and other summer flowers decorated the dining room and throughout the house. The chapters combined the Worthy Matron's colors of pink, green and yellow in decorative details.

The Veterans Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA Office.

Q—Is there any help forthcoming for the son of a totally disabled veteran to get a college education?

A—Yes. On July 7, 1964, President Johnson, signed a bill which provides benefits similar to those now being given under the War Orphans Educational Assistance Program, to children of living veterans with service-connected total and permanent disabilities, and to those children of veterans who died while a disability so evaluated was in existence.

Sight-Saving Proclamation Signed By Mayor

Kings Mountain Mayor Glee A. Bridges has designated the month of September as "Sight Saving Month" in Kings Mountain.

He calls attention to the observance with the following proclamation:

WHEREAS, Good vision is a precious gift bestowed by God and nature upon all mankind, and

WHEREAS, our eyes are windows of light through which we see and understand each other and enjoy the beauty of the world in which we live, and

WHEREAS, The ruthless threat of blindness is increasing although at least half of all blindness is due to neglect and for that reason is needless,

THEREFORE, We owe it to ourselves and our loved ones to recognize the wisdom of protecting vision, to join fully in the battle against blindness, and to learn how to take care of our eyes and the eyes of our children, and

In cooperation with The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, The North Carolina Association for the Blind, The North Carolina State Commission for the Blind, The North Carolina State Commission for the Blind, and the Kings Mountain Lions Club, I hereby designate September, 1964 as

"SIGHT SAVING MONTH" and I call upon my fellow citizens of this community to conserve the vital resource of good vision by learning the habits of good eye care, and by supporting research efforts which will help all men enjoy the blessing of healthy eyesight.

Some timely reminders. Get the sweet potato storage house ready for curing and storage. Used baskets and crates should be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected as should the storage house.

Contact your County Extension office and request (Revised) Extension Circular No. 353, "Grow Quality Sweet Potatoes."

Do not remove the tops from your asparagus bed until they have been killed by frost. The longer the tops remain green, the more food will be stored in the crowns for next year's crop.

If you are growing gourds for house decoration this winter, remove them from the vines as they mature and before the plants are killed by frost.

In the vegetable garden remove the old plants of such crops as beans, peppers, and tomatoes as they finish bearing. It is a good idea to burn them as one means of reducing the disease problem.

If you have late tomato plants which are likely to be caught by frost, try this. Pull the plants up by the roots. Enclose the roots in a cellophane bag and fill the bag with moist peat moss or old sawdust.

Tie the top of the bag with a heavy string, long enough to suspend the plant, roots up. Hang the plant in a shed for protection against wind and cold and, preferably, near a window.

Some of the tomatoes should ripen but this will depend upon the stage of maturity when removed from the garden. In any event, you will have green tomatoes for relish and other uses. Watch them so that they will not become too dehydrated for processing.

Something to think about. Six or seven years ago I wrote in the column about the importance of county and regional planning. Now this word comes from R. J. Ackley, soil classification agent in California.

Be "heart-smart" — watch your weight, the North Carolina Heart Association advises.
