Additionally, she has served as choir soloist and nursery department teacher.

The Presslys have a son, James Allen Pressly, now returning to University of North Carolina medical school at Chapel Hill, after a summer's work at Charlotte Memorial hospital. He is a graduate of Davidson college.

County Extends

close a copy of the 1964 tax bill. The county extension decision, which Mr. Gidney describes as a "temporary emergency measure", was made after Shelby City Manager Philip Horton canvassed members of the Shelby council and Auditor Max Hamrick canvassed members of the county commission.

Distribution of tax information a little later than usual is cited as the major reason for the discount extension. Mr. Gidney said a few notices are yet to be mailed but that all tax bills have been mailed in No. 4 and No. 6 Townships. All mailing is to be completed this week, he said.

where they saw Chambers walking around in the building. They said they called for Chambers to come out of the store but that he refused. The store manager was summoned to unlock the door, they reported, and Chambers was located hiding in a storage room.

The officers said $30 in cash was found atop some nearby cabinets where it apparently had been tossed.

Chambers is charged on three counts of breaking and entering and larceny and one count of breaking and entering.

Police said Chambers entered the building each time through a door by inserting a pocket-knife in the doorfacing and opening the lock.

The store manager reported that about $570 in cash had been reported missing over the period of one month.

SPECIAL SINGING

Youth choir singers will lead a special song service at Penley's Chapel Methodist church Sunday night starting at 7 o'clock. Visiting singing groups are invited to participate, Rev. Leonard Huffstetler announced.

Lutherans Set Installation

New officers and teachers of the Sunday School of Resurrection Lutheran church will be installed at Sunday Services.

Rev. George Moore, pastor, said the congregation begins a new church year at Sunday services. Sunday School will be resumed at 9:45 a.m., customary in the fall, and morning worship service at 11.

Sunday School officers and teachers for 1964-65 are: Hal S. Plonk, general superintendent; Dathia Sanders, assistant superintendent; Howard Smith, a secretary-treasurer; and Jack Huffstetler, assistant secretary-treasurer.

The Pre-School School department is headed by Mrs. Stowe Devenney, superintendent. Teachers are Mrs. E. J. Dyke, Mrs. Eugene Gladden and Mrs. J. M. McGinnis.

Mrs. John B. Plonk is superintendent of the Children's department with Mrs. Louise Huffstetler, Mrs. Bud Bumgardner, Mrs. Doris Bennett, Miss Anita Huffstetler, Miss Mary Ann Foster and Mrs. George Moore as class teachers for grades one through nine.

The Young People's department for grades 10 through senior high school age is under direction of Mrs. Ed Goter, Mrs. George Plonk, Rev. Mr. Moore and Stowe Devenney. Ed Goter and John B. Plonk are teachers of the young married couple's class, Miss Essie Marie Foster teaches the adult class for ladies and Devere Smith teaches the adult class for men.
