Police Report Two Accidents
 City police reports Wednesday showed two highway accidents during the past week.

The first accident occurred Tuesday, November 24 at 5:04 p.m. at the intersection of Oriental Avenue and East King street. Leroy Bridges, 43, of Rutherfordton was traveling east on King street when the '61 Rambler which he was driving struck the rear end of a '64 Chevrolet, driven by Jess Willard Mayberry of 623 East King street. Damage to the front of the Rambler was estimated at $150 and damage to the rear of the Chevrolet was estimated at $250. Bridges was charged with following too closely and Mayberry was charged with failure to see a movement which could have been made in safety. Officers E. P. Cook and Bob Hayes investigated.

The second accident occurred the same day at 7:15 p.m. at the intersection of South Battleground Road and Hawthorne Road. Arlen Leonard Wright, 27, of Route 2, driving a '63 Chevrolet was charged with driving too fast for the road conditions. Wright struck a power pole. The rear end of the car was estimated as a total loss. The power pole was not damaged.

Pilgrims Knew Industry Thrift

Yes, the Pilgrim Fathers knew industry and thrift, else they would not have survived the rigors and hardships of the New World.

To these hardy pioneers, to whom we owe our Thanksgiving Day heritage, we can also learn the many benefits of regular savings, and many have.

Right here in Kings Mountain many citizens make a consistent habit of investing a part of their earnings in Home Savings & Loan Association savings accounts — which earn for them while they're busy at other work, while they're playing, and, literally, while they sleep.

If you have not opened a savings account with Home Savings & Loan Association, there's no better time to begin than right now, in order that you can begin sharing in regular dividends.
