You and SOCIAL SECURITY Q - I have filed for social security benefits but I expect to earn over $4800 this year. Can I receive any benefits this year? A - Perhaps; social security benefits can be paid regardless of your total yearly earnings if there are any months during the year in which you neither earn over $100 as an employee, nor render substantial services as a self-employed person. For more details, ask your social security district office for booklet OASI-23, "If You Work While You Get Social Security Payments." Q - What should I do if I go to work and expect to earn over $1200 this year? I am receiving old-age benefits under social security. My wife and my children also receive benefits. What happens if they go to work? A - You should report this information to your social security office either in person or on the card (Form OAC-669), which was given to you when you applied for social security benefits. Be sure to give the name of the person about whom the report is made and his social security claim number. Q - My daughter is just a little past 16 years old and is planning to be married soon. I'm getting social security benefits for her

FIX-IT TIP Old Into New If you're like most persons, you have a favorite piece of furniture. Chances are it is getting old by now. Why not refinish it and make it look new again? A simple designed piece will be much easier to refinish than one with curves. You might want to consider your time in the total cost of refinishing a piece to see if it is worth-while. Begin by removing old finish. Use finish remover, then begin to sand down with sand paper. Start with 2/0 paper and rub with the grain of the wood. Next go to 4/0 paper and finish with 6/0 paper. Wipe away all sanding with a rag saturated in turpentine. Work in a ventilated area. Choose the finishing product that suits your aims best. (Your hardware store man may be of some help here.) And for a better finish, use several thin coats rather than a few thick ones. Remember to rub down between coats.

Practical Nursing Courses Offered The Shelby School of Practical Nursing of the Gastonia Industrial Education Center is now taking applications for practical nursing to begin March 4. Persons genuinely interested in Practical Nursing should contact the Shelby School of Practical Nursing at Cleveland Memorial Hospital, Inc., Shelby, N. C. CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their many kind expressions of sympathy at the loss of our beloved husband and father. CARD OF THANKS We want to thank our many friends who stood by so closely and for each kind deed rendered. MRS. M. C. AMOS James E. Amos Dr. William E. Amos

CARD OF THANKS A - Since you are the one who is receiving the benefits for your daughter, you should notify the Social Security Administration as soon as you know the exact date of her marriage. Her last social security benefit check will be for the month before the month in which she marries.
