

Give Thanks Unto The Lord

BY REV. B. L. RAINES
Pastor First Baptist Church

"O give thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name; make known his deeds among the people. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him; talk ye of all his wondrous works. Glory ye in his holy name; let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord. Seek the Lord, and his strength; seek his face evermore." (Psalm 105:1-4)

"What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord." (Psalm 116:12, 17.)

Love and gratitude are not mere emotions and sentiment, but attitudes which we may express in very definite ways. The late President, John F. Kennedy had this to say on Thanksgiving: "Today we give our thanks, most of all, for the ideals of honor and faith we inherit from our forefathers—for the decency of purpose, steadfastness of resolve and strength of will, for the courage and humility, which they possessed and which we must seek every day to emulate. As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words but to live by them."

Remember the poem that goes like this:

"I love you mother; said Little Nell

I love you more than tongue can tell
Then she fretted and pouted the whole long day,
Till her mother was glad when she ran to play.

I love you mother said little John;

his gods. One year the poor rice farmer had a very sick child who desperately needed some expensive herbs that he might be cured. He suggested to the rich merchant that he could possibly show his thanks for saving his life by helping secure this medicine for the son of his benefactor. The merchant became very angry as he said, "See here, I have come back to thank you for saving my life and to offer sacrifice to the gods in your behalf."

Another year, the poor rice farmer's wife was without a coat to keep her warm in the severe cold winter. As the merchant returned to the farmer's home for his annual Thanksgiving, he was asked to help in this emergency. Said he, "Do you think I would interrupt my ritual of Thanking a coat?" And with this he giving for a lowly matter like sent on burning his incense. How genuine and deep is our Thanksgiving spirit? For the sake of ourselves, our families our country; for God's sake and for Christ's sake, may we translate our Thanksgiving into THANKS-LIVING.

KISSIN' KIN

Two friends met on the street one afternoon and the first commented: "So your girl friend jilted you when you told her about your rich uncle?"

"Yes, now she's my aunt."
