New Construction On Increase, 1964 Figures Over $88 Billion

CHARLOTTE — The volume of new construction in North and South Carolina during 1964 showed a staggering increase over the preceding year, according to figures released Saturday.

Henry J. Pierce, managing director of Carolinas Branch, the Associated General Contractors of America, said that statistics for the first 10 months of 1964 showed a new construction volume in the two states of $1.3 billion, a gain of almost 30 per cent over the $1.03 billion for the same period in 1963.

Additional increases can be expected in 1965, Pierce said, although the percentage of gain is not expected to be as large.

"Nationally," Mr. Pierce said, "the construction industry saw the best year in its history in 1964 with a total volume of work put in place of $88 billion. The predicted volume for 1965 is more than $91 billion."

"New plant and equipment expenditures are continuing to rise. The national rate of investment in new plants and equipment during the first half of 1965 is expected to be more than 8 per cent above the average for 1964. The percentage increase is expected to be much greater in North and South Carolina as both states expand their programs to attract new industry.

"The effect of the federal tax reduction early in 1964 will be felt more strongly in 1965 than it was last year. This will be helpful particularly in maintaining the volume of residential construction."

"And in general, the continuing advance of all segments of the Carolinas economy give no indication that construction volumes will fall below current levels."

Building construction by categories in the two states showed the following increases during the first 10 months of 1964, according to figures furnished by the F. W. Dodge Corp.:

—Residential construction in North Carolina gained $35 million, from $365 million to $410 million. Residential construction in South Carolina gained $23 million, from $130 million to $162 million.

—Non-residential building construction in North Carolina gained $66 million, from $229 million to $295 million. Non-residential building construction in South Carolina gained $42 million, from $127 million to $169 million.

Increases also were recorded in "non-building" construction, according to statistics compiled by S. C. Austin of Raleigh, manager of the Carolinas Branch, AGC Highway - Heavy Division. Figures follow:

—Highway construction contracts awarded by the N. C. State Highway Commission during Calendar 1964 set a record of $83.9 million, an increase of 41.4 per cent over the $59.4 million awarded the previous year.

—The S. C. Highway Department awarded contracts totaling $63.1 million, an increase of 7.1 per cent over the $58.9 million awarded in 1963.

—Public works construction in the two states for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30 totaled $66.2 million, an increase of 9.4 per cent over the $60.5 million awarded the previous year. This category includes public utilities, municipal streets, city and county airports, telephone and power lines, state ports construction, dams and drainage canals.

Contracts awarded for federal construction in the two states increased more than 24 per cent, from $18.1 million to $24.3 million. These awards included construction on military bases, the Blue Ridge Parkway and similar federal government facilities in the area.

Police Report Three Accidents

Kings Mountain city police reported three highway accidents during the past week.

The first accident occurred Thursday, December 24 at 7:07 p.m. at the intersection of Highway 161 north and Ridge Street.

Police reports show that a 1955 Ford, which was stolen and the driver unknown, was going east on Ridge Street when it struck the rear of a 1964 Chevrolet, driven by Robert E. Fleming, 44, of Kings Mountain.

Damage to the stolen car, owned by Edward Leon Webb of Bessemer City, was estimated at $300, and damage to the Chevrolet was estimated at $350. Officers Ellis King and Robert Green investigated.

Officer Bob Hayes was called to the scene of an accident Friday, December 25, at the intersection of West King Street and Battleground Avenue.

Burben Lee Burris of 408 West Kings Street was charged with following too closely after the 1958 Oldsmobile which he was driving struck the rear of a 1965 Ford driven by U. C. Hicks, Jr., of Gastonia. Damage to the front of the Buick was estimated at $100 and damage to the Ford was estimated at $200.

A train-car collision occurred Sunday, December 27 at 3:35 a. m. at the railroad crossing at Battleground Avenue.

Marvin Lee Setzer, Jr., told police that he fell asleep and left the car on the tracks. The train knocked the car down the track approximately 150 feet. The 1963 Ford was estimated to be a total loss.

Officers Wayne Emsell and Charlie Wallace investigated.
