

Trinity Day School On Betty Feezor Show
The students and faculty of Trinity Day School were on the "Betty Feezor Show" this past Monday. Mrs. Feezor interviewed

The Rev. Robert L. Haden, Headmaster, and Mrs. Thomas Burke, Pre-school teacher, and showed slides of the Day School Students at work.
The Rev. Mr. Haden said that people across the nation were realizing the importance of Pre-School education. Trinity is trying to do it's part as a service to the community of Kings Mountain. He said that Trinity encourages the child to think, analyze and observe. They are interested in the social, physical, and spiritual development of the child as well as the intellectual development. The objective is not to see how far the child can go, but rather to form a strong foundation from which the child may confidently spring.

Those seen in the slides on the show were: the Kindergarten teacher, Miss Ellen Burke; The students, Andrew Farrow, Brent Early, Mercedes Smith, David Neisler, Hayne Neisler, Tommy Burke, Jeff Falls, Lawrence Hamrick, Bonnie Hinnant, Debbie Armstrong, Mark Sanders, Jimmy Payseur and Steve Long.

Holiday Visitors Returning Home
Miss Marlene Weir, student at Fashion Institute of America in Atlanta, Ga., spent the Easter weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weir, Jr.
The Weirs went to Fayetteville on Easter Sunday for a visit with Rev. and Mrs. Fred Falls, Jr. and daughter, Mrs. Falls is daughter of the Weirs.

Ruth Hullender Has Third Birthday
Ruth Hullender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hullender, celebrated her third birthday at a party Tuesday afternoon at her home.
The six youngsters enjoyed hot dogs with accessories and cut a green and yellow birthday cake which was served with ice cream.
Miss Hullender is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hullender and Guy Henderson, all of Kings Mountain.
Present for the party were Elaine Hullender, Teresa Culp, Cindy Brown, Jeff Henson and Brad Austin.

West P-TA Sets Open House
West School P-TA will install new officers for the coming year Tuesday night in a special program at 7:30 in the school lunchroom.
Following the installation service, open house will be held and visitors will be invited to attend an art festival which will feature art displays in each classroom of the elementary school.
Refreshments will also be served.
The Executive Board will convene at 7 p.m. for a brief meeting.
