Planning Body Urges Second Route Hearing

The Kings Mountain Planning Commission has adopted a resolution for all citizens of Kings Mountain to acquaint themselves with the issues involved in the proposed U.S. 74 bypass through Kings Mountain and to urge a second public hearing.

The text of the resolution issued Thursday by Planning Commission Chairman Bob Maner stated:

"We feel that the proposed thoroughfare (with rights-of-way of 420 to 1500 feet in width) will be the most significant traffic decision affecting the community in the foreseeable future. We suggest that all interested parties make themselves fully aware of the road's size, the interchanges and their locations and then as informed laymen envision the highway's effects on in-town motor traffic, pedestrian traffic, individual property owners and municipal problems.

"We have been informed that the city board of commissioners have been given an opportunity to call for another public hearing. We urge those interested to request that the city commission call for the hearing and that you then attend it and voice your opinions."

Letter To Editor

Dear Mr. Editor and Honorable Mr. Mayor and Commissioners of Kings Mountain:

You have just received a vote of confidence from We, The Citizens of Kings Mountain, for a term of progress and growth for our city.

We, the average voting citizens, want our city to grow, prosper with new industry and move forward with the progress of time.

Immediately, the highway bypass problem will be thrown into your laps, for better or worse. Before you vote on this project, you are urged to think about it. For a thinking man can come up with only one answer.

By coming through the heart of Kings Mountain, how is this un-usable locally highway going to help us?

Persons not coming to Kings Mountain aren't going to stop anyway. Those who have need for our services or who are coming to Kings Mountain could easily turn off the by-pass and come to town, if it were on the outskirts, where it really belongs. This highway, routed outside of city limits North of town could bring new industry and new residences which could build to the highway and would leave intact most of the city.

A large percentage of the million dollars meant to acquire property could be saved the tax payers by moving the route out of town as is I-85.

It would be to the interest of Kings Mountain to have a by-pass outside the city. The saving of one life of one child would more than compensate for the movement of the proposed highway to North of the city.

As a tax payer and business man of Kings Mountain, I vote, with the other thinking citizens of Kings Mountain, against this type highway within our city limits.

Kings Mountain needs a by-pass. One which will truly by-pass. For this I am in favor.

But to have a 65-mile-per-hour facility through the heart of our town, well I am not in favor.

To have any facility split our town, I am not in favor.

To have a facility which will dead end our streets and yet will be almost unusable by our citizens, I am not in favor.

A Business Expressway which will be near our town and will by-pass our city, of this I am in favor.

Industrial and residential growth which will come about by having the by-pass North of town, of this I am in favor.

Of the economy which will come to Kings Mountain from an outskirts by-pass, I am in favor.

For progress and growth of our city, this we are all in favor.

Let's look years ahead. Our actions today will govern our future tomorrow. Let's not be sorry five years from now. Let's vote for and let the highway commission know that Kings Mountain is for a by-pass expressway which will by-pass our city and not destroy it.

Sincerely, AVERY MURRAY (Ed. Note: Mr. Murray's letter exceeded space limitations and has been edited. His contentions in the whole letter remain.)
