Mrs. James Wesley England

Miss Shirley McDaniel, James England Pledge Vows In Mount Airy Ceremony

Mount Airy's Oak Grove Methodist church provided the setting Sunday for a 3 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Shirley Jean McDaniel and James Wesley England.

Rev. Charles W. Randolph, minister of the church, was assisted by Rev. William C. Sides, of Ellenboro, formerly of Kings Mountain, in performing the double-ring ceremony.
Miss Irene Armfield of Mount Airy was organist for the program of traditional music and Miss Jean Sutton of High Point was vocal soloist.

Miss Sutton sang "Lord, Who At Cana's Wedding Feast" and "O Perfect Love." The congregational hymns, "Come, Thou Almighty King" and "Now Thank We All Our God" were included in the service.

The church chancel was flanked by two baskets of white glads with a lighted cross on the wall and a communion table covered with a white cloth and centered by an open Bible and a single candle.
The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her formal gown was designed of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin and featured a molded basque of lace with tapering sleeves and a face-framing collar. The waltz-length bouffant skirt of tulle was appliqued with lace. Her double-tiered fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of white satin, edged with pearls, and she carried a white orchid atop a satin-covered Bible.

Miss Virginia Miller church and community worker in Macon County, attended the bride as maid of honor. Miss Betty McDaniel, the bride's sister, and Miss Sandra Tate of High Point college were bridesmaids.

The three attendants wore street-length dresses in whipped cream, the maid's dress in pale green and the bridesmaids' in jonquil yellow. The dresses were designed with scooped necklines, short sleeves and bouffant skirts. They wore matching circlets with flirtation veils attached and carried long-stemmed yellow rosebuds.
Frank Phillips, Jr. of Spruce Pine was best man for the bridegroom. The list of ushers included Larry Clark, brother of the bridegroom, Larry McDaniel, brother of the bride, Jud Avery and Fred Stout, both of Newland.
Participating in the wedding as honorary attendants were Misses Eliza Rodriguez, Annie McCormick, Sarah McCain, Carolyn Thorne and Betty Rogers, all church and community workers in the Mount Airy area.
The bridegroom's mother was gowned in light blue crepe with white accessories and a white cyrbidium orchid corsage.
The bridegroom's mother chose navy blue with black accessories and a white cymidium orchid corsage.

RECEPTION
The reception after the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church was given by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Oak Grove Methodist church.
Overlaid with white cloth, the bride's table was highlight of decoration. The white, yellow and green wedding cake was cut and served from one end of the table and green punch was served from a crystal bowl at the other. Centering the table was an arrangement of white and yellow flowers.
The yellow and green theme of the wedding was predominant in the decorations used throughout the fellowship hall.
