Kings Mountain's Reliable Newspaper

Hearing Is Set For July 21st

On First-Citizens Application

$35,000 Fairview Lodge Masonic Temple Will Be Dedicated Saturday Evening

Max Brandon To Grace ME;

dist church, will come to Kings Mountain as pastor of Grace Methodist church and Rev. Norman H. Pusey, pastor here the past four years, will move to Candler under new appointments made Saturday at the annual Western North Carolina Methodist Conference.

The changes will become effective next Wednesday, moving day for ministers in the confer-

Rev. Mr. Pusey's new appointment is the Montmorenci Metholist church, a 300-member con-regation, in the Asheville disrict which recently occupied a new sanctuary.

Two other Kings Mountain area Methodist ministers were returned to their pulpits here. Rev. Roy H. Lockridge was returned to El Bethel and Hoey Memorial charges for his second year and Rev. Howard Jordan will begin his third year as pas-

The Puseys came to Kings the Grand Master will call the Milkesboro, junior grand deac-mountain from Yadkinville. In meeting to order. S. Houston on; William M. Mims, Jr. of Mountain from Yadkinville. In Meeting to order. S. Houston on; william M. Mims, Jr. of Wolfe will give the welcome and been a member of the Kings Mountain high school faculty. Rev. and Mrs. Pusey are parents of three children: Phyllis, a rising sophomore at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro; Marikup a security grand grand tyler; Single Marikup a security grand grand grand tyler; Single Marikup a security grand grand grand grand grand chaplain; E. B. Denny of Gowing and grand grand chaplain; E. B. Denny of Gowing and grand grand grand distortion. Flowd Marilyn, a seventh grader; and lowing the scripture reading and Raleigh, grand historian; Floyd David Pusey, a second grader. "The Lord's Prayer" following Dunn of Aberdeen, grand lectur-

Son of a Methodist minister, Rev. Mr. Brandon came to Fallston's Friendship church from Shiloh Methodist at Lexington. A graduate of Duke University A graduate of Duke University and Duke Divinity School, he is Man Of Week married to the former Flossies

The Brandons are parents of Kings Mountain citizen and now Brandon, Maxine and Marcelle Brandon. Maurine Brandon is to be married Sunday in Fallston, Myra Jane Brandon is a college student and the younger daughters are in junior high school and elementary school.

Two other former ministers were appointed to new posts. Dr. Philip L. Shore, Jr., a for-mer pastor of Central Methodist church, was appointed District Superintendent of the High Point district and he and his family will be moving from Charlotte to High Point. Mr. Shore was formerly pastor of Ch First Methodist church. pastor of Charlotte's

Rev. W. C. Sides, Jr., a former pastor of Grace Methodist church, will go to Greensboro as pastor of Carraway Memorial some weeks was unable to be Methodist church. Mr. Sides has present at the meeting and reserved as pastor of Ellenboro Methodist church the past four years. Mr. Sides was for seven vears pastor of Grace church

Open House Sunday To Honor Pruitts

Chestnut Ridge Baptist church will hold open house at its new parsonage Sunday from 2 until Friends of the church are invited to meet the new pastor, Rev. Mitchell Pruitt, and his family. Members of the congregation and former members are also invited to attend to formally welcome the new minister.

Masonic Temple Pusey To Candler Rev. Max Brandon, Jr., pastor To Be Dedicated

Dedicatory rites for the new Phifer road Masonic Temple of Fairview Fairview

Sam A. Hennis, Jr. of Mount Airy, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, will lead the Thomas D. Tindall, secretary; dedication service at 8 p.m., Herman D. Falls, senior deacon Fairview Lodge Master Houston William E. Sellers, junior deacon Wolfe has announced.

Volfe has announced.

Masons, their wives and Norman E. Bumgardner, stefriends will gather from 6 p.m. ward; B. Manley Hayes, chap-until 7:30 p.m. for a barbecue at lain; and Robert Smith, tyler. the lodge for which tickets are on sale at $1.50. Bobby Bridges is handling supper arrange ments.

Trustees are J. Ralph Harrison, Alex D. Owens and J. Lee Roberts.

Other Grand Lodge officers

At 7:30 p.m. the Grand Lodge rites to which the public is invited at 8 p.m. Refreshments will warden; Robert N. Bass, Jr. of and dignitaries will attend, Master Wolfe said.

grand treasurer; Charles A. Harris of Raleigh, grand secreyear and Rev. Howard Jordan will begin his third year as pastor of Central Methodist church.

The dedication service will tary; William A. Hooks of Smithfield, senior grand deacon; Mrs. F. R. McCurdy after which Maurice E. Walsh of North

Rev. Mr. Brandon will preach the dedicatory service at which his first sermon here on Sunday, June 27.

the dedicatory service at which the Grand Master will preside.
The new Masonic Temple is Giles Hudson of Salisbury, judge

Fairview Lodge officers, in ad-invited to attend include: Arnold

William A.

Stadium Fund Gifts

Now Reach $82,658

A & P Tea Company's gift of $50 was the major donation dur ing the week to the John Gamble

Stadium Fund which now totals

Fund Treasurer Charlie F

Harry said he would make a next week.

president of the United Fund, and must be locked up or se curely tied until June 30.

this organization and his other dation of the county rabies coniness and civic groups and to spend some time almost daily at his office as Executive Vice. President of the First Federal dogs in No. 4 Township. The officers said they wanted to make ing received recognition for his destroy anyone's pet and urged membership and services to citizens to comply with the quarantine.

"Mr. Hoyle although ill for tine on June 7.

complete report of donations

The new stadium is to be erect ed south of the new high school

Dog Quarantine

Effective Tuesday, all dogs in

No. 4 Township are quarantined

The Cleveland County Board of Commissioners, on recommen-trol officers, passed the quaran

The quarantine stipulates that all dog owners will keep their dogs in check. And all dogs permitted to run at large may be destroyed by any peace officer of Cleveland County.

The purpose of the quarantine according to the rabies control ficers said they wanted to make it clear that they do not want to

AT ST. MATTHEW'S

ed the office staff of St.

Matthew's Lutheran church.

She began her new duties this

Mrs. Wade Hartsoe has join plant on Phifer road.

Is In Effect

Lodge 339 AF&AM will be held dition to Master Wolfe, include: Howard Bridges, senior warden; will convene for a 30-minute J. Koonce of High Point, deputy meeting prior to the dedicatory grand master; Alfred A. Kafer, be served after the program.

Other Grand Lodge officers James W. Brewer of Greenville.

located on Landing street off advocate.

Frank L. Hoyle, Jr., onetime

Mr. Hoyle, native of Cleveland

County, is married to the former Mildred Ross of Kings Mountain.

They are parents of two children: Miss Kathryn Hoyle of Washington, D. C., and Frank Hoyle, III of Hendersonville.

The feature story was com-

"Frank L. Hoyle, Jr., past

Tuesday by officials and com-mitteemen for his services to ceive his bronze plaque given him as president of the United Fund during the past year. They were glad to learn that he was able to attend this and other bus-

Savings and Loan association.

"Mr. Hoyle at Tuesday's meet-various groups of this community, including the Kiwanis club, the Elks club, the First Presbyterian church, and president of the United Fund the past year.

"Participating in the ceremon-business and civic activities.

plete with photograph. The arti-

Hoyle Named

sonville, on June 3.

cle reads:

men have completed a 45-hour course in advanced welding sponcourse in advanced welding sponget underway, as customary, at sored by the vocational agricul9:45 a.m. ture department at Kings Mountain high school.

The "graduates" and their wives will go to Gastonia for dinner Thursday night.

to completion of usable farm projects such as cultivators, fee for welding rods and gaso-line and the instructional fees were provided by Catawba Valley Technical Institute of New-

Members of the welding class

Of Blame In Wreck

the driver.

Marion Washington Williams, 73-year-old house-painting contractor, was injured, police said, path of a tractor-trailer rig owned by Star Paper Tube Co. of Minerva Stowe of Rock Hill, S. Rock Hill, S. C. and operated by Billy Houston Craig of Rock Hill. The Williams car was

Mr. Williams died at 4:22 a.m. Monday-six days after he suffered head injuries in the acci-

Adult Class Is Graduated In Welding

Sixteen Kings Mountain area

The course, with Kenneth Bunkowski as instructor, offered training in vertical, flat and overhead welding plus cast iron welding and brazing, in addition scapers, and carry-all lifts for tractors. Each student paid a $5

The adult welding class was offered this year for the fifth year ly the agriculture department headed by Myers Hambright and Paul Hambright. Myers Hambright headed up the adult program this year.

of "graduates" included: Paul Bell, James Blanton, Lawrence Brown, Bill Horn, Olland Horn, Glenn Jenkins, Hubert Ledford, Bob Morris, Johnny Sarvis, William Sarvis, Mearl Scism, Charles Wright, Stokes Wright, Hal Morris, H. K. Dixon and Alec

Trucker Exonerated

Ollie Harris ruled yesterday that Baptist church. Her husband died a June 8 traffic fatality here in 1944. was "unavoidable" on the part of 50th Anniversary To Convene In Raleigh For Second Baptist Hearing on the application of First-Citizens Bank & Trust Company for authority to open a branch here has been schedulated by the Commissioner of

G-W President Poston To Speak At Sunday Rites

Dr. E. Eugene Poston, president of Gardner-Webb college, will make the principal address at special services Sunday on the 50th anniversary of Second Baptist church.

Former pastors of the church will also participate in the morning worship service beginning at 10:30 a.m. Sunday School will Picnic lunch will be served on the church grounds beginning at 1 p.m.

Rev. George W. Julian, pastor, said that members of the church, former members and friends are invited to join with the local congregation in the day's special events.

A letter going out this week to members and friends of the church notes that "a very interesting and inspiring program is planned", adding, "you are cor-dially invited to attend and to participate in the activities of this special anniversary cele-

Mrs. Kiser's Rites Conducted

Funeral rites for Mrs. Henrietta White Kiser, 80, widow of William Wesley Kiser, were held Wednesday at 4 p.m. from Second Baptist church, interment following in Mountain Rest cemetery.

Mrs. Kiser died Monday morning at 10:30 in Kings Mountain hospital after several weeks ill-

She was the daughter of the late David and Mandie Hunt J. White and a member of Second Surviving are five sons, Fred Kiser, Wesley Kiser, Melton Kiser, Rufus Kiser, all of Kings Mountain, and James Kiser of Rock Hill, S. C.; two daughters, when he apparently attempted a Mrs. Floyd Sipe of Greenwood, left turn and moved into the S. C. and Mrs. Joe Meighen of C.; and two half-brothers, R. D. Cook of Kings Mountain and Fulton Cook of Rock Hill, S. C.; struck broadside by the truck on West King street.

17 grandchildren; 27 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild

Rev. George Julian, assisted by Rev. Don Webster, officiated at the final rites.

ed by the Commissioner of Banks, F. Shelby Cullom, for July 21.

According to the notice, the branch would be known as "Kings Mountain office" and was formerly occupied by Page

The legal notice notes, "Any opposition to this application ing referrd to....

field, filed application to open a branch here on May 17.

creasurer, was filed an applicadon for permission to open a oranch here to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Two days after filing the ap-banking services.

been visiting Kings Mountain ousinessmen to outline plans for the Kings Mountain office. They include George H. Broadrick, vice-president, of Charlotte, Harold T. Sumner, vice-president, of Gastonia, and Ernest L. Hicks,

First-Citizens had assets of $416,865,000 at the close of busi- hem Baptist ness April 26. Its largest offices are at Charlotte and Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, and Rita Bell, daughter of Mr. leave Sunday for a week at Tar Heel Girls' State on the campus of the University of North Caro-safety, the city has ordered 234 erating was struck broadside by traffic signs for erection on real alarge truck on West King ceipt, Mayor John Henry Moss street. said Wednesday.

He also noted some instances of vandalism in bending and oth- urn and moved into the path of four dollars each. Besides, the 1965 in the county, and the first signs are erected to protect both of the year inside the Kings motorists and pedestrians." He also said a traffic signal the corner of E. Gold and S. Williams; eight daughters Mrs. Gaston streets, and he called attention to the signs erected in Ruth Morris of Sylvania, Ga., the vicinity of West school. Ap- Mrs. Pearl Whitmore of Kings proaching the school from both east and west are "Slow-School" signs, followed by "Speed Limit

15" signs. cluded 48 "STOP" signs, 36 "Speed 25 MPH", 36 "Speed 35 MPH", 36 "Speed 35 MPH", 24 "SLOW — Children Playing", 48 "No Parking This Side", 36 "No Parking - Loading ville: four grandskilds

Building permits recently issu

Two to J. Wilson Crawford, $11,000, for building a five-room brick house at 602 Timple Drive, room brick residence at 604 for building a one-story brick residence on Fulton street,

Commission

According to a legal notice appearing in today's Herald, the State Banking commission will conduct the hearing in Room 316, Motor Vehicles building, Raleigh, beginning at 10 a.m. Wednesday, July 21.

would occupy the building of Dr. D. M. Morrison at 131 West Mountain street. The building may be filed with the undersigned or will be heard at the meet First-Citizns, based in Smith-

46 North Carolina towns and Concurrent with the application to the State Banking com-mission, of which State Treas-arer Edwin Gill is ex officio plication, Lewis R. Holding, presdent, said First-Citizens would operate here as "a completely separate unit, with its own officers and as a full-service bank." He said his firm provides 78

During the past several days, First - Citizens officials have 234 Traffic Signs pital about 4:22 a.m. Monday—six days after he suffered head Ordered By City rising seniors at Kings Mountain high school, are sponsored They will return to Kings

> "After all." he remarked, Houston Craig of Rock Hill. these baked enamel signs cost Side", 36 "No Parking - Loading Zone", an dsix "SLOW - School".

KM Country Club Relieved Of $500

Robbers broke into the Kings Mountain Country Club early Thursday morning and took approximately $500 from the club safe. Country Club manager Bill Mauldin said that the robbers broke in via the pool doors. City Police officer Bob Hayes mation at presstime Wednesday.

VICAR - Robert E. Land, midassumed new duties as Vicar at St. Matthew's Lutheran church.

Land Assumes New Duties

Robert E. Land, rising middler (second year student), at Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia, S. C., has as sumed duties as Vicar at St. Matthew's Lutheran church.

and his wife, the former Barbara Deal of Charlotte, have occupied an apartment at 100 N. Piedmont Avenue.

Son of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Walter C. Land of New Philadelphia, Ohio, Mr Land holds an AB degree in applied music (voice) from Lenoir Rhyne college at Hickory. He is a veteran of three years Naval service.

The Lands moved here last

Injuries Fatal To Williams, 73

Funeral rites for Marion Wash Tuesday at 3 p.m. from Bethlefollowing in the church cemetery

Mr. Williams, house-painting contractor, died in the local hos-pital about 4:22 a.m. Monday injuries in a traffic accident. Kings Mountain police had re-ported that Williams of Route 2 was injured about 2:50 p.m. In an effort to improve traffic June 8, when a car he was op-Police had noted that the car apparently atte mpted a left erwise marring city traffic signs, and he urged citizens to aid police in preventing vandalism.

a tractor-trailer rig owned by Star Paper Tube Co. of Rock Hill, S. C. and operated by Billy It 's the 10th traffic fatality of Mountain corporate Surviving Mr. Williams are has been ordered for erection at his wife, Minnie Emma Bentley Mountain and Miss Martha El-len Williams, Miss Mary Ann Williams, Miss Carolyn Joyce Williams, Miss Patricia Lynn > Williams was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Crockett Williams of Newport, Tenn. Rev. Norman Brown, pastor, officiated. IMPROVING

Dr. Zeno Wall, father of Mrs. J. Ollie Harris of Kings Mountain and longtime Baptist minister, was very much improved Wednesday, his sonin-law reported. Dr. Wall, recuperating from a slight stroke, is a patient in Cleveland Memorial hospital.

Hearing On Zoning Law Amendment To Be Held Thursday At 6:30. p.m.

The city board of commission- | from each side lot line. It further ers will hold a public hearing at city hall courtroom Thursday added for each multi-unit dwellcity hall courtroom Thursday afternoon at 6:30 on a proposed amendment to the zoning ordi-

The amendment, if adopted, would make possible issuance to Anchor Development and Con-struction Company, based in Anchor Dev Forest City, of a building permit to construct two 12-unit apartment buildings on the West Gold street lot between the residences of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dixon and Mrs. Pauline Weaver. The Anchor company made application for a permit in the a-mount of $200,000 several weeks flict with the zoning ordinance operative since 1948. Specifically, the amendment, multi-unit dwelling over two would require ten feet from Anchor Development has con structed similar apartment buildings in other cities.

clude both three-room and fourroom apartments. Construction would be brick and a utility room between the two units, one on the west side and one on the north side of the lot, would in ago. It was not issued when the cluding washing machines, dry city found the application in con- ers, and other service facilities. apartments would employ central heating and cooling, company officials say. The interior if adopted, would change the area would be a landscaped park-distance required from side lot ing area.

duplex must be eight-feet distant | Dr. John C. McGill.

ing over two.
Under the proposed amendment, the zoning ordinance for Each 12-unit wing would in-line. Now the ordinance specifies Anchor Development has contact a single unit dwelling or tracted to purchase the lot from for a one-room addition to his could not be reached for infor-

Building Permits Issued By City

der of the Rainbow.

ed by the city include:

TO GIRLS STATE - Libby

Alexander, top, and Rita Bell leave Sunday for a week at annual Tar Heel Girls' State to be held at UNC-G. They are sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Delegates Off

To Girls' State

lina at Greensboro.

gion Post 155.

Mountain June 26.

Libby Alexander, daughter of

The Kings Mountain girls, both by the Auxiliary of American Le-

At KMHS, both Miss Alexander and Miss Bell are members of the National Honor Society and the yearbook staff. Miss Alexander is active in the Future

Homemakers of America and Miss Bell is active in Future

Teacher's. Both young people sing in their church choirs and are active in youth organiza-tions, Miss Bell at Boyce Memor-ial ARP church and Miss Alexander at Central Methodist church.

They are also members of Or

Miss Alexander plays the pi ano at Sunday morning worship services at Dixon Presbyterian and $12,000 for building a five-Temple Drive. One to Lloyd Styers, $12,000.

One to David Mauney, $2,000, residence at 203 E. Gold street.