Area Folk Visit On July 4th. Holiday

Kings Mountain area citizens spent a quiet Independence Day holiday. Many of them enjoyed visits from friends and kin.

Others trekked with families to the beaches and mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Madison and daughters, Katherine and Mary Randolph, are here from Petersburg, Va. for a visit with Mrs. Madison's sister, Mrs. D. F. Hord, Dr. Hord and family.

Mrs. J. B. Keeter is just back from a visit with her daughter and family in Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bridges and family are vacationing in New York City and Washington, D. C. They expect to spend some time at the New York World's Fair.

L/Cpl. David P. Hughes returned Monday to New Cumberland, Pa. after a holiday visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hughes, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Humphries, their daughter, Gerry, and Rev. and Mrs. Claude Henson and son of Dallas are leaving today for a 10-day vacation with relatives in Texas. Enroute home they expect to visit Rev. and Mrs. J. Eade Anderson in Mississippi. Mr. Anderson is a former summer supply pastor of Dixon and First Presbyterian church.

While the Humphries family are away, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Humphries of Gastonia will stay with other members of the family, Roger and Eade Humphries.

Mrs. Jennings Cannon and daughter, Connie, are here from San Francisco, California, for a visit with Mrs. Cannon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Quay Hambricht. Mrs. Cannon is the former Lucille Hambricht.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Barnette of Statesville and Miss Pearl Barnette of Goldsboro were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Styers, coming especially for the Styers-Bridges wedding Sunday.

Mrs. Ben T. Jackson and four children, Leigh, Kim, Buddy and Jill, are here from Boston, Mass., for a visit with Mrs. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis.

Newest member of the Jackson family is two-month-old Jill Davis, born May 6th to Dr. and Mrs. Jackson. Mrs. Jackson is the former Jean Davis.

Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Carroll, Edwin and Timmy, spent the Fourth holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Farris and Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Carroll, returning to Sumter, S. C. late Monday. Paul Farris, brother of Mrs. Carroll, returned home after spending a week with them.

Miss Pattie Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Howard, enrolled last weekend in eight weeks' summer school at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Kiwanis President W. S. Fulton, Jr., Mrs. Fulton and sons, Corky and Carl, and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Franklin are in New York City this week attending the Kiwanis International convention.

The Fultons are combining a business and vacation trip and also expect to visit the World's Fair before returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bun E. Goforth and Mr. and Mrs. Jim White spent last week in Park Ridge, N. J. and New York. In Park Ridge they visited Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Goforth and daughter, Donna. They also visited the World's Fair.

The New Jersey Goforths will arrive here this weekend for a visit with the Bun Goforths, parents of Eddie.
