

Luncheon Fetes July Bride-Elect

Miss Sara Rose Lemon and Miss Mary Lillian Lewis entertained together Saturday at the former's home at a 12 o'clock luncheon honoring Miss Joyce Plonk, bride-elect of this month.

A color note of white and yellow was carried out in decorations. Overlaid with white linen cutwork, the buffet table held a central arrangement of yellow tapers and yellow and white chrysanthemums. Yellow flowers were also used decoratively in the living room.

The bride-to-be was given a corsage of daisy mums which she pinned to the shoulder of her floral printed party dress. The hostesses also gave Miss Plonk a bride's book and a cookbook.

Guests other than the hostesses and honoree were the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Hal Plonk; Mrs. R. J. Forrest, mother of Miss Plonk's fiancé James Forrest; Mrs. R. S. Lennon, Mrs. O. P. Lewis, Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Miss Marlene Weir, of Atlanta, Ga., Miss Carol Jean Goter, Miss Betty Pugh of Ashboro and Miss Martha Summers of Statesville.

Clubwomen Held Family Outing

Junior Woman's Clubbers, their husbands and families held a family outing Friday night at Rankin Lake in Gastonia.

A picnic supper was spread at 7 p.m. with Miss Peggy Ross and Mrs. Dick McGinnis heading the hostess committee on arrangements.

Miss Ross, chaplain, gave the invocation. A short business meeting was held following the meal, and plans for the 1965 community birthday calendar were made. Mrs. Furman Wilson and Miss Peggy Ross will serve as co-captains of Team No. 1 and Mrs. Dick McGinnis and Mrs. Bill Allen will serve as co-captains of Team No. 2.

Miss Jackie Blanton, president, announced she would represent the club at the Fourth District summer institute held at Cliffside high school.

Raleigh Church Was Setting Saturday For Gladden-Fisher Double-Ring Rites

Raleigh's Forest Hills Baptist church was the setting Saturday at 4 p.m. for the wedding of Mrs. Louise Gladden Eskridge and Gary Wickard Fisher, both of Raleigh.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gladden of Kings Mountain. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Fisher of Raleigh.

Rev. John S. Farrar of Culpeper, Va., heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony for which wedding music was provided by Miss Bonnie McIntosh of Gastonia at the organ.

Miss McIntosh played "Wedding Cantata" by Bach, "Meditation," Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" and "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell and the classic marches.

Timothy G. Gladden, of Charlotte, escorted his sister to the altar. The bride wore a street-length urquoise dress of peau de soie with a lace-trimmed bodice. The sheath dress featured an overskirt with lace panels. Her short veil was attached to a cluster of turquoise flowerets and she carried a bouquet of pink orchids and pink roses.

Mrs. William G. Nichols of Raleigh, the bride's matron of honor, wore pink chiffon with matching headpiece and slippers and carried a bouquet of flowers of deeper hues of pink roses.

Party Honors Joyce Plonk

Honoring Miss Joyce Plonk, bride-elect of this month, Mrs. E. R. Goter and Mrs. H. M. Broadwater entertained Saturday night at the Goter home on Hillside Drive.

The 17 guests showered Miss Plonk with miscellaneous household gifts.

Overlaid with yellow cloth, the refreshment table held a brass candelabrum of yellow tapers at the center and a mass arrangement of sunflowers. Assorted party food, including finger sandwiches, ham biscuits, fancy cakes, cheese straws and coffee were served.

The yellow and white motif was carried out throughout party rooms. Arrangements of garden flowers, zinnias and dahlias were featured throughout the home.

Miss Plonk was given a corsage of white pompons from the hostesses.

The wedding of Miss Plonk and James Forrest will be an event of July 31 in Resurrection Lutheran church.

Raleigh ushered.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the North Carolina State University Faculty Club. Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. William C. Nichols of Raleigh and Miss Bonnie McIntosh of Gastonia, assisted by Mrs. Leamon Beason and Mrs. William C. Bethune of Raleigh.

Overlaid with pink and white cutwork cloth, the bride's table held a three-tier pink and white cake as highlight of decoration. The central arrangement was flanked by two candelabra holding pink tapers entwined with pink roses and fern. The cake was served with fancy sandwiches, mints, nuts and punch.

Miss Ilycia Farrar of Culpeper, Va. presided at the register.

Out-of-Raleigh guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dixon and family and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Gladden, all of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. Falls, formerly of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dumas of Kendall Park, New Jersey; Mrs. Elizabeth Hart of Mooresville; Mrs. Janice Jernigan of Charlotte; Miss Ilycia Farrar of Culpeper, Va.; Rev. John Farrar of Culpeper, Va. and Miss Bonnie McIntosh of Gastonia.

Engaged Couple Is Being Entertained At Round Of Parties, Bridal Showers

Bridal parties last week honored Miss Edith Jane Kincaid, whose wedding to Jerry Lawrence Adams will be an event of August 1.

Mrs. F. R. McCurdy and her daughter, Miss Mary Ann McCurdy, entertained Thursday evening at their home at a drop-in party.

The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cutwork cloth and centered with silver candelabrum holding pink tapers and arranged with pink carnations and gypsophila.

Pink punch was poured from a crystal bowl and other party pick-ups were served.

The pink and white color motif was carried out in refreshments and decorations.

Miss Kincaid was given a pink carnation corsage and a platter in her pattern of china.

The 60 guests showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous household gifts.

Miss Margaret Ann Ledford, Mrs. W. T. Ledford and Miss Norma Blackwood entertained together Friday night at a linen shower held in the ladies parlor of First Baptist church.

The bride's table was overlaid with a white cloth and centered with crystal candle holders holding white candles around which were clusters of white mums.

The traditional green and white bridal motif was carried out in decorative details. Punch and party pick-ups were served.

Miss Kincaid was given a white carnation shoulder bouquet and a shower of linen gifts from the hostesses and guests.

Mrs. Charles A. Harmon and Miss Nancy Harmon were hostesses Monday evening at a drop-in party held at their home in Bessemer City.

Mixed summer flowers were used decoratively throughout the home. Overlaid with white cutwork and net, the refreshment table was centered by an arrangement of pink roses and Queen Anne's lace. The cloth was caught up at the corners with tiny pink and green nosegays.

Party pick-ups in the pink and green color scheme were served to the 40 guests who called.

Miss Kincaid was given a shoulder bouquet and a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

Other parties will honor Miss Kincaid and Mr. Adams prior to their wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robbs are entertaining Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Robbs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Allen in Shelby, at a steak supper for the engaged pair.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beason, Mr. and Mrs. David Kincaid and Mr.

"Here's Love" Opens Tuesday At Charlotte Summer Theatre

The Charlotte Summer Theatre production of Meredith Wilson's newest musical-comedy hit, "Here's Love" starring Eddie Bracken and Jack Haskell, opens Tuesday evening, July 27 and runs through Sunday afternoon, August 1, at Owens Auditorium in Charlotte.

Eddie Bracken, who plays Kris Kringle in this delightful musical based on "Miracle on 34th Street", started his theatrical career as one of the "Our Gang" moppets in films and went on to become a top film star in such classics as "The Miracle of Morgan's Creek", "Hail, The Conquering Hero" and over forty other motion pictures. On the stage he has starred in "The Seven Year Itch", "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter", "Shinebone Alley", "Damn Yankees" and "Teahouse of the August Moon", among others.

Jack Haskell is one of radio and television's most popular young performers, having appeared on almost every network show, while still finding time to headline top supper clubs, theaters and the Broadway stage. His television credits include the "Jack Paar Show", "Garry Moore Show", "Arthur Godfrey Show", "Garroway at Large" and countless others. His most recent Broadway assignment was in Irving Berlin's "Mr. President".

"Here's Love" enjoyed a successful two year run on Broadway and has music lyrics composed by Meredith Wilson, composer of "The Music Man" and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown".

Its story, long a favorite from the movie "Miracle on 34th Street", concerns the efforts of a kindly old gentleman, who bears a striking resemblance to Santa Claus, to brighten the life of a lonely little girl and bring romance to her divorced mother and a handsome young man.

Surrounding this poignant situation is the gaily and cheer of Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and the glittering Christmas season in New York City. The production will feature some of the most elaborate musical numbers ever staged at Owens Auditorium. Among the lilt and rousing songs in the musical are "Here's Love", "Arm in Arm", "Bugles", "Pinecones and Hollyberries" and "Big Clown Balloons". Producer Stanley Warren said he was especially pleased to have obtained the performance rights to "Here's Love", since it set attendance records on its National tour and has not been seen in the Charlotte area before.

Featured in the cast of "Here's Love" are Marilyn Ross, Denise Stevens, Geoffrey Webb, Fred Vinroot, Julien Friede, David O'Neil, Grant Eastham and Ben Truluck.

Performances for "Here's Love" are at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday evenings and at 2:30 p.m. for the Saturday and Sunday matinees, July 31 and August 1.

There is still time to see the current production of "High Spirits" starring Dorothy Loudon, which runs through the Sunday matinee, July 25. The box office of the Charlotte Summer Theatre is open at Owens Auditorium daily and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Reservations are also available by phone—376-4821—and by mail.

The next attraction at the Charlotte Summer Theatre is "Camelot" starring Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt, August 3—August 8.
