Mis

Cors

reme

lonk

ent c unche

lonk,

Aiss I

Kings

ha St

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN AT DINNER - Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Jr. left, vice-chairman of the Cleveland County Democratic Party and recording secretary of the Women's organization, Mrs. Ed M. Anderson, long active in the Party and p newspaper publisher, Mrs. Warren Gamble, Democratic Women's club president, and Mrs. Jack White, chairman of the decorating committee for Thursday's dinner meeting in Shelby, got together following dinner to admire the colorful table decorations. The eye-catching centerpiece was a bright red saucy styrofoam donkey arranged with red carnations and white glads and flanked by red tapers, Red, white and blue bunting added colorful touches to the dining room of Governor's Inn. Red streamers were used down the length of the white tablecloths and flags were used in the background to carry out the patriotic theme. Mrs. Jim Yarbro of Kings Mountain was assistant chairman of the committee on dec-(Photo for the Herald by Bill Jackson)

Be Informed. Mrs. Anderson Tells Democrats

"Be enthusiastic, be informed and be motivated by something", long-time Democrat, said Thursthe Cleveland County Democratic lotte. Women's Club.

Calling for women to take more active roles in supporting the party, Mrs. Anderson admitted she is a Democrat by choice because "I like the philosophy of the Democratic Party."

Speaking spiritedly of the conthe nation's history such as who last season teamed the Franklin D. Roosevelt, John F. comely blond singer with the Cleveland County, which she says holds a special place in North Carolina politics. The county has furnished two governors-Clyde R. Hoey and O. Max Gardner—to the state.

"Be proud to be a Democrat", Mrs. Anderson told the 70 men and women attending and "sell the Democratic Party to other she added, "is to be a good Dem-

Mrs. Anderson was presented by Miss Sadie Lutz of Shelby.

Mrs. Warren Gamble, club president, welcomed special guests including Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Sr., State Rep. Robert Shelby and Senator Jack White, of Kings Mountain, among others. She announced that the Cleveland County group will be host for a September 8 radio and on the county fairs, the smartest hotels, night clubs, on television, radio and on the county fairs, the smartest hotels, night clubs, on television, radio and on the county fairs, the smartest hotels, night clubs, on television, radio and on the county fairs, the smartest hotels have been producted of "Cameiot" starring Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt, which runs through the Sunday matines. meeting of all clubs in the 10th congressional district. The district meeting will be held Shelby Elks Lodge North Carolina's First Lady Mrs. Dan K. Moore will be featured speaker

Jones-Silansky Invitations Issued

Invitations reading as follows have been issued in Kings Moun

Dr. and Mrs. Craig Jones request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Lois Catherine

Mr. Edward Raymond Silansky II on Saturday, the twenty-eighth of August Nineteen hundred and sixty-five

A decorated white and green cake, including the top tier of the couple's wedding cake, was at seven o'clock in the evening cut and served for dessert. Other guests were Mrs. Hum-Central Methodist Church Shelby, North Carolina phries' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Westbrook and daughter, The enclosed card reads: Sharon, of Gastonia, and Freddie

Reception immediately following the ceremony North Lake Country Club

Ellison-Kilgore Invitations Issued

Invitations reading as follows have been issued in Kings Moun-

Mrs. Bertha Ellison requests the hosour of your presence marriage of her daughter Viola Magdalene

Mr. John David Kilgore on Sunday, the fifteenth

Claire Gilstad entertained men of the Forrest - Plonk wedding party at a steak supper Thurs-day night at his home on Phifer of August Nineteen hundred and sixty-five at three o'clock in the afternoon ried Saturday afternoon to Miss East Gold Street Joyce Plonk

Wesleyan Methodist Church
The bridegroom-to-be took the ble served a serving Mountain, North Carolina occasion to present gifts to his plate with tea.

Summer Theatre To Feature "King And I" Rodgers And Hammerstein Musical Hit

hit "The King and I", starring Mrs. Ed M. Anderson, West Jef-Betty Johnson, opens Tuesday ferson newspaper publisher and evening, August 19, and runs through Sunday evening August

Betty Johnson is returning to her hometown Charlotte for her third starring appearance with the Charlotte Summer Theater, having scored resounding successes previously in "South Pacific" and "The Sound of Music". Her booking into "The King and I" is actually at the request of tributions of Democrats through the Summer Theater audiences, comely blond singer with the Kennedy and Woodrow Wilson, she also paid special tribute to cal on questionnaires supplied by the Theater.

> Betty began singing hymns with her family, the famous Johnson Family Singers at the age of five. For sixteen years she and her family did a daily CBS radio program and for many of those years, a well-remembered Sunday morning show, "Carolina Calling". Her New York career began when she was a winner on the "Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts" program. Then followed regular appearances on Don McNeill's "Breakfast Club", hit recordings of "I Dreamed I Was the Queen of France" and "Little Blue Man", bookings on television with Jack Paar. Ed Sullivan, Perry Como, and Arthur Murray, among others. Betty has been successful efore circuit. Richard Rodgers and Oscal Hammerstein's "The King and I", based on the novel "Anna and ervations are also available by phone—376-4821—and by mail. ful during its three years on Broadway and has already become a classic in the American ed Guest" starring Joan Fon-musical theater. It contains some taine, August 17 to August 22.

Humphries Pair

Notes Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Humphries celebrated their first wedding anniversary July 24th and were guests-of-honor at a family dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Humphries.

Members of the Humphries family present included their daughter, Gerry; their sons, Eade and Roger Humphries; and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Humphries is the former Becky Westbrook.

Gilstad Hosts

Stag Supper

radio, and on the summer stock

The Charlotte Summer Theater of the most beautiful music ever production of Rodgers and Ham-merstein's enchanting musical loved song-writing team and tells hit "The King and I", starring a story always new and appeal-Betty Johnson, opens Tuesday ing. An English widow, Mrs. Anna Leonowens, played by Betty Johnson, is hired by the King of day night in an address before 15, at Ovens Auditorium in Char- Siam as a tutor in his royal palace in Bangkok. Her arrival there with her young son and the charming and touching situations that ensue during her stay make for a musical rich in hu mor, romance an doriental splendor. Figuring prominently in the action of "The King and I" are the spectacular ballets "The Small House of Uncle Thomas" and "The March of the Siamese Children". Among the hits in the musical are "I Whistle a Happy Tune", "Hello, Young Lovers", "Getting to Know You", "Something Wonderful", "I Have Dreamed" and "Shall We

Dance?' Featured as the King is Summer Theater favorite Ken Cantril, who has been Miss Johnson's leading man for "South Pa-cific" and "The Sound of Music". Also featured in "The King and I" are Jane Kennedy, Geoffry Webb, Virginia Wing, Ben Bobino, Randy Gaynes and Arthur Performances for "The King and I" are at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday evenings and at 2:30 p.m. for the Saturday and Sunday matinees, August 14 and 15. There will be a special evening performance on Sunday August 15 at 7:30 p.m.

There is still time to see the current production of "Camelot" The box-office of the Charlotte Summer Theater is open at Ov-

The next attraction at the Charlotte Summer Theater is Agatha Christie's "The Unexpect

Dixon 4-H'ers Hear Report Of 4-H Congress Dixon Community 4 - H'ers Fuesday night heard a report from Mike Greene of 4-H Congress held last week on the campus of North Carolina State University in Raleigh. Greene was among a group of Cleveland County 4-H'ers attending the week-long Congress.

Gloria Diane Greene, president, presided Sandra Johnson gave the devotions.

Refreshments were served after the program by Sheila and bride's table, highlight of deco-Shirley Greene who had made ration, was overlaid with floorsandwiches and prepared a fruit drink as part of their foods project for the month.

Home Arts Club Mrs. Calvin Humphries, of Gas- Hear Mrs. Thomasson

Mrs. George B. Thomasson showed slides of her recent trip to Europe at Tuesday's Home Arts club meeting at the home of Mrs. John E. Gamble on West Mountain street.

Mrs. Carl Finger, program chairman, presented Mrs. Thom-

Mrs. Thomas Richie, wife of the new minister of Boyce Memorial ARP church, was present in the den and on the wrought-Mr. Gilstad served as best man as a visitor. Mrs. N. F. McGill, for James Forrest who was mar-

At refreshment time Mrs. Gamble served a salad and dessert

Miss Joyce Plank Weds James S. Forrest In Resurrection Church Rites Saturday

Unberger of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Wray A. Plonk, Sr., Mrs. Frances Fisher of Concord, Mr.

and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr., Rev. and Mrs. R. Douglas Fritz of

Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. John Butler Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Car-

Plonk of Boston, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bumgardner, Mr. and

Barbara Plonk, Becky Plonk

Sr. grandparents of the bride, were seated in the den to receive guests. Mrs. Plonk were a blue and a white shoulder corsage.

For their wedding trip the bride wore a suit of blue nubby linen with rustflowered tlouse, rust-gold slippers, hat and gloves and the orchid lifted from her

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mrs. Hal Sloan Plonk, the new

Mrs. Forrest is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school. She graduated this spring cum laude from Lenoir Rhyne college, re-

Umberger of Concord and the

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Forrest of Kings Mountain. Also a graduate of Kings Mountain school, he graduated with high est honors this spring from

North Carolina State University at Raleigh with B.S. in mechanical engineering where he was elected to the honor fraternity

The newlyweds will be at hon at 1345 Royalty Court, Apart-

Wedding guests included these from out-of-town: Miss Rebecca Coffey, Miss Joanne Hunter,

Mrs. John Cooper, all of Char-lotte; Zeb Plonk of Boston, Massachusetts; Dr. and Mrs. Grady

Cooper and Miss Roberta Cooper of Newberry, S. C.; Miss Mary Anita Cathey and Mr. and Mrs.

Joe Cathey of Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Godbey of Christian-burg, Va.; Mrs. Don Wallace,

Steven and Peter Wallace, Miss

Brenda Arcuri, Rev. Gary L.

Safrit, Mr. and Mrs. Norvel Cook and family, Dr. and Mrs.

Wade Hook and family, all of Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. James Castle and Miss Nancy Castle of York, S. C.; Myron Rhyne, Miss Janet Rhyne of Graham; David

Lohr of Spartanburg, S. C. Rev.

and Mrs. Douglas Fritz, Robby and David, of Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. William Thomson and Miss

Also Mrs. Ethel Pigott and Miss Marilyn Pigott of Charles-ton, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. King Umberger, Mrs. Herbert Fischer, family of Salisbury; Mrs. Mabel

Ga.; Mrs. Carlysle Isley of Burlington; Douglas Stowe of Mount

Holly; Mr. and Mrs. David C. Beam of Cherryville; Miss Martha Summers of Statesville; Miss Betty Pugh of Asheboro; and Mrs. Ruth Lackey of Shelby.

Mrs. Joe L. Moore was hostess at her Shelby home Tuesday night at a get-to-gether honoring Miss Joyce Allen, who will be marrield August 26 to Buddy ess and bride-elect attended.

Ten close friends of the host

Mrs. C. J. Hill assisted Mrs.

Moore in serving angel delight frozen salad with other party party favor was a satin ring

Among the guests were Mrs. George Allen, the bride-elect's mother, and Mrs. Neal Spangler, mother of the prospective bride

Invitations reading as follows

Mr. and Mrs. William Dewitt Bennett request the honor of your presence

Linda Lee

narriage of their daughte

Bennett-Adams

corated with net and sequins.

Party Honors

Joyce Allen

Spangler.

ner of Concord.

in the School of Engineering ment 2, in Lexington, Ky.

late Mr. Umberger.

Elder daughter of Mr. and

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plonk, lyle Beam of Cherryville,

Kathy and Sharon Plonk, and Beverly Plonk.

bridal bouquet.

Miss Joyce Eleanor Plonk and | included members of the wed James Sherwood Forrest pledged ding party. Other reception help-their marriage vows Saturday in 4:30 p.m. rites in Resurrection Plonk, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Godby of Christianburg, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cathey of Lutheran church.

On a wedding trip to Williamscurg, Va. and Virginia Beach, the newlyweds will make their home in Lexington, Kentucky where the bridegroom is associa ted with the Lexington IBM Company and his bride will continue work on her master's degree at the University.

Rev. R. Douglas Fritz of Salisbury, former pastor of the bride, heard the couple pledge vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney was orditional music and Eugene Gladsang Gounod's "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" before the ceremony and "Wedding Benediction" by Lovelace as the couple by Lovelace as the couple knelt at the altar. The congregation prayed in unison Lord's Prayer."

Mrs Mauney played the classic marches, in addition to a prelude of music including: Franck's "Prelude In 'B Minor"; "Panis Angelicus"; "Bach's "Arioso" and "Sarabande"; "Aria" by Peeters; "Prayary" from "Cothic Sutta" by "Prayer" from "Gothic Suite" by Boellmann; Schubert's "Sere-nade" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach.

The altar was lighted by num-erous spiral candelabra interspersed with groupings of palms and fern. Brass tree candelabra and white mums were used at either side of the setting.

Hal Sloan Plonk escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The wedding gown was a formal design of peau de soie and imported Flor-entine lace. The molded bodice featured a scoop neckline appliqued with pearl-trimmed motifs and caught at the back with miniature self-covered buttons, Long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The bell shaped skirt featured panels of lace down the front, extending around the Chapel train. Her formal length veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a split level crown of crystals and pearls and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of frenched carnations and stephan-

Miss Marian Plonk attended ner sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Jackson, Miss Peggy Plonk, cousin of the bride, Miss Betty Pugh of Asheboro and Miss Martha Summers of Statesville, college classmates of the bride.

Miss Gina Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Patterson, Jr. and cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

All the attendants wore formal length gowns of petal pink dotted swiss, the dresses featuring round necklines which dipped to V's in the back and elbow sleeves. Bands of deeper pink velvet trimmed the waistlines of the bell skirts. They wore deeper pink velvet headbands with flirtation veils attached, pink slippers and carried cascades of deeper pink Shasta daisy mums, haby's breath and English ivv.

Miss Kathryn Plonk and Miss Sharon Plonk, sisters of the Nancy Thomson, Mrs. Jane Gardbride, were honorary attendants. They wore waltz-length gowns styled like those of the adult attendants with headbands of deeper pink velvet ribbon.

Jimmy Fulton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr., was ringbearer. Acolytes were Mike and Steve Plonk, cousins of the bride.

Jimmy Fischer, all of Concord; Joseph Dunn of Efland, N. C.; Bill Angley, Jr. of Lenoir; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Blanton and Claire Gilstad was best man for the bridegroom. The list of P. Crews of Winston Salem; ushers included James Swansson. Miss Johnnie Schrum of Atlanta, James Plonk, cousin of the bride, both of Kings Mountain, William Angley of Tennessee and Joe Dunn of Maryland, college classmates of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother was gown ed in pale green silk crepe, the sheath dress featuring an allover Florentine lace bodice. She wore a matching flowered head-piece worn with veiling and a white royal bouquet orchid as a shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in copen blue lace. She wore a matching blue hat dropped with veil and a white royal ouquet orchid shoulder corsage. RECEPTION

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a reception at their home on Crescent Circle.

The pink and white theme of the wedding was beautifully carried out in decorative details. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with floor length cloth of cutwork embroidery and lace. A three-tier pink and white wedding cake, frosted in pink roses and topped by a bride and bridegroom figurine was at one end of the table. Green punch was served from a silver punch bowl at the other.

second refreshment table Invitations Issued was also covered with matching cloth. A candelabrum of pink and white snapdragons, carnahave been issued in Kings Moun ions and candles decorated the buffet. Pink glads were used on the coffee table and piano in the living room, along with pink roses and fern in the entrance hall. Yellow glads and roses were combined in arrangements iron register table on the sun

Mr. Jeffrey Lee Adams on Sunday, the twenty-second of August at four o'clock in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plonk wel comed arriving callers and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson intro-First Presbyterian Church Kings Mountain, North Carolina duced the receiving line which

SOCIAL CALENDAR Thursday: 6:30—American Legion Auxiliary covered dish supper at the hone of Mrs. Clarence Jolly, Ful-Salisbury, Dr. and Mrs. George W. Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. King Friday: 6:00 Senior Citiezns club picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Griffin on West Mountain Mrs Jay Patterson, Jr., Mr. and street. 8:00 Luau at the Country

Club for members and guests. Club Night. Hosts: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arnette, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Timms. Sunday

Mrs. S. C. Isley of Burlington, Miss Susan Plonk and Misses 12:00—The wedding of Miss Assisting in serving were Misses Linda Plonk, Debbie Plonk, Monday: 7:30—Circle 4 of Central Meth-

Carl Logan.

7:30—Circle 7 of Central Methtwo-piece suit with matching hat odist church at the home of Mrs. Clarence Jolly Wednesday:

10 a.m.—Circle 3 of Central Methodist church at the church.

Luncheon Honors Miss Masters

Mrs. Bennett J. Masters honor-Mrs. Bennett J. Masters honor-ed her sister-in-law, Miss Martha Leavy Masters honor-law, Miss Martha Beason sang "Wedding Benedic-Jean Masters, bride-elect, at a Jean Masters, bride-elect, at a tion" by Lovelace as the couple bridesmaids luncheon Friday at knelt after the exchange of Governor's Inn in Shelby. Miss Masters and Dr. Bruce ceiving an AB in sociology. She was named to "Who's Who" and Stroup were married Sunday in pledged Kappa Delta sorority. She is granddaughter of Mr. and Shelby The bride-to-be took the occasion to present gifts to her attendants, headpieces and gloves to be Mrs. Clarence S. Plonk, Sr. of Kings Mountain and Mrs. B. L. worn in the wedding. The hostess gave the bride-elect a bride's book as a gift. Other than hostess and hono ree, guests were the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Sam E. Masters; Mrs. A. B. Stroup, mother of the prospective bridegroom; Miss Diane Brooks, Miss Gail Miss Barbara Hudson, Mrs Lewis Wilson, Mrs. Bobby Hamilton and Mrs. Richard O. Walk-

Mrs. Harrill Hostess

To Thursday Book Club Mrs. Ector Harrill was hostess to the Thursday Afternoon book club July 29. After Mrs. Lewis Hovis, president, conducted the business ses-sion, Mrs. Hunter Patterson presented Mrs. W. D. Werner, reviewed the Archibald McLeish

Visitors present included Mrs. Herman Campbell, Mrs. Fleming Ramseur and her daughter. The hostess served delicious salad and dessert courses

Miss Smith's Plans Given

Miss Patricia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yates Smith of son of Mr and Mrs. Griffin Gold of Shelby, have completed plans for their marriage and announce them today.

The wedding will take place Sunday, August 8th, at 12 o'clock noon in Grover's Bethany Baptist church, Rev. James Sanders will officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. James Sanders will be at the piano for the program of raditional music. Miss Vickie Jackson will attend her cousin as maid of honor. Mitch Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Love, will be ring-Douglas Gold, brother of the prospective bridegroom, will usher with Jimmy Lovelace.

No formal wedding invitations are being issued but all friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hale, 211 Lackey street, announce the birth of a son, Wednesday, July 28, Kings Mountain hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Feemster, 512 Mickley avenue, announce the birth of a son, Friday, July 30, Kings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert White, Box 304, Grover, announce the birth of a daughter, Friday, July 30, Kings Mountain hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Hudson, birth of a son, Saturday, July 31, Kings Mountain hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gene Goforth, Route 2, announce the birth of a daughter, Saturday, July 31, Kings Mountain hospi-

218 Fulton street, announce the

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Sipes, Sipes street, announce birth of a daughter, Sunday, Auguest 1, Kings Mountain hospi-

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, route 6, Shelby, announce the birth of a daughter, Monday, August 2, Kings Mountain hospital. Frank Duke of Washington, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. James Gladden, and Mrs. J. G. Best of Fairmont

J1., PO Box 552, Pineville, an club nounce the birth of a son, Wednesday, August 4, Kings Mountain hospital.

Miss Edith Jane Kincaid, Jerry L. Adams Pledge Vows In Double-Ring Church Rites

Adams are on a wedding trip to nosegays of yellow daisies and blue baby's breath. they will be at home in Cullowhee where the bridegroom is a senior student at Western Carolina college.

Miss Edith Jane Kincaid be-came Mr. Adams' bride Sunday a 4 p.m. wedding in First Baptist church.

the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony for which organ music was provided by Mrs. F. R. McCurdy, Mrs. Joe White, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hord and Robert Beason, brother-in-law of the bride, were soloists. 12:00—The wedding of Miss Pat Smith and Dan Gold in Gro-ver's Bethany Baptist church.

Mrs. McCurdy played Schu-bert's "Serenade", "Traumerei" and "Ava Maria"; Bach's "Jesu. Joy of Man's Desiring", "Air", "Be Thou With Me" and "from odist church at the home of Miss Charity Goforth.

Be Thou With Me and the Depths of My Heart": Greig's "Hail, Star of Heaven" 7:30 Circle 5 of Central Methand "I Love Thee"; and "Arioso" odist church at the home of Mrs. by Handel; "Panis Angelicus" by Franck; and "Liebestrum" Liszt. She played Wagner's "Song to the Evening Star" during the ceremony; "Trumpet Vol-untary" as the bridal party en-tered; "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin" as the bride entered on the arm of her father and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional.

Mrs. Hord sang "O Perfect Love" and "A Wedding Prayer" pledges.
The choir loft was banked by Kentia palms and the altar was lighted by seven-branch candelabra holding white cathedral tap ers. Large floor baskets of white glads and white chrysanthe-mums centered the setting with two smaller baskets of used at either side of the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her formal wedding gown was designed of full cathedral train. Her bouffant assisted in serving. length veil of imported silk il- Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jolley and and aurora crystals and she car-ried a lace-covered Bible, gift of the YWA of her church, topped with white orchid and showered with stephanotis and satin tron of honor and Miss Margaret Ann Ledford, the bride's college roommate, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bob Beason of Boiling Springs, sister of the bride; Mrs. Wanda Austell. sister of the bridegroom; Miss length sheaths of copen blue peau de soie styled with scoop necklines and elborn beau BRIDE AND BRIDE COCK. necklines and elbow length The new Mrs. Adams is daugh sleeves. Folds of satin circled the ter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold W. waistlines and caught to the back to miniature bows with Kings Mountain streamers falling to the hemlines. Their matching headpieces and prior to her marriage was were caught with bows with flire employed by Ethel's Beauty Shop tation veils attached and they in Bessemer City wore wrist-length white gloves and tiny pearl earrings, gifts of

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lawrence the bride. They carried colonial

Linda Bush of Cliffside, daugh ter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby R. Bush and niece of the bride, was miniature bride. Ringbearer was Mike Hinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hinson.

The bridegroom's father was Rev. B. L. Raines, minister of cluded David Adams, brother of the bridegroom; David Kineaid of Gastonia, brother of the bride; Bobby R. Bush of Cliffside, brother-in-law of the bride; James Robbs of Shelby; Larry McDonald of Plant City, Fla., and John Powell of Morganton.

Participating in the wedding as honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerry Rikard, Mrs. Doug Burton, Miss Mary Ann McCur-dy, all of Kings Mountain, and Miss Loretta Foster of Kerners-

Miss Sherry Beason of Boiling Springs and Miss Karen Bush of Cliffside, nieces of the bride, were at the register.

The bride's mother was gown ed in blue crepe and satin trim, the dress featuring a scoop neck line with all-over embroidered organdy bodice. Her hat was of matching blue net and she wore white gloves and an orchid shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in pink lace, the dress featuring a sheath skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a matching pink hat and an orchid shoulder corsage

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church lounge following the ceremony Overlaid with floor · length cloth of maize silk peau de soie overlaid with silk net edged with lace, the bride's table was highlight of decoration Folds of net points at the corner and center front where cascades of stephanotis and pouffed bows of maline were tied with bridal imported Chantilly lace and silk organza over taffeta. The lace On the table was a five-branched bodice was styled with scalloped silver candelabrum holding light portrait neckline trimmed with ed tapers and arranged with pearl and crystal clusters and white carnations, snapdragons the short sleeves were worn with wrist - length gloves. The lace sheath skirt featured an organ-case overskirt that started at the color theme. Mrs. David Kincaid punch assisted by Mrs. deep folds which spread to a Joe Hord. Honorary attendants lusion was attached to a tiered Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tate directed lace crown trimmed with pearls guests to the lounge where members of the bridal party formed a receiving line. Mr and Mrs. J. F. Dodd invited them to the re freshment table and Mr. and Mrs. Shuford Peeler were at the lounge exit where Rev. and Mrs. Mrs. Bobby R. Bush of Cliff-side attended her sister as ma-and Mrs. J. F. Duke received guests at the home of the bride's parents where the gifts were or display Wedding guests included those from Shelby, Lincolnton, Gastonia, Bessemer City, Morganton, Cliffside, Raleigh, Asheville, Diane Roberts, both of Kings Mountain; Mrs Jimmy Gardner of Clover, S. C.; Mrs. Pat Carpenter of Lincolnton and Mrs.

Mike Pearson of Waynesville.

The new Mrs. Adams is daugh-Kincaid. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school, Gardner Webb Junior college

The bridegroom is the son of #### 12:30 Luncheon, Post-Rehearsal Party Honor Edith Jane Kincaid, Jerry Adams Miss Edith Jane Kincaid and friends and relatives.

Jerry Adams, whose wedding took place Sunday, were honored at additional parties prior to their wedding day.

Miss Annie Roberts and Mrs. Jerry Rikard entertained toge-Saturday at 12:30 at the Roberts home on Piedmont Ave-

A color theme of yellow, green and white was carried out in decorations. The bride's table was spread with madeira cut-work cloth and the four smaller tables were spread with matching covers. White mums, snapdragons and baty's breath fea tured a large arrangement on the dining room table Placecards were white bells tied with green ribbon. The bride-elect's place was marked by a corsage of white split carnations.

Miss Kincaid, who wore a blue party dress, took the occasion to present headpieces to her six attendants and tiny pearl ear-rings which they also wore in the wedding.

The hostesses gave the bride to-be a gift in her silver pattern.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Tate of Kings Mountain, Dr. and Mrs. J. Mr. and Mrs. James Giauden, Box 503, announce the birth of a daughter, Sunday, August 1, daughter, Sunday, August 1, and Mrs. Hilda S. Halliburton of Asheville were hosts Saturday night at the post-rehearsal party

Three round refreshment tables in the club ballroom were overlaid with eyelet embroidery Mrs. Eugene R. Roberts, her daughter, Miss Diane Roberts, decoration, held a five-tiered pink and white cake as centerpiece. The cake was frosted with pink roses, its top tier holding a bride and groom outlined in tiny pearls. A seven-branched silver candelabrum on the second table was arranged with white candles and pink and white flowers. Petit-fours, mints and fancy sandwiches in the pink and white theme were served from silver appointments on the table. The punch table was also decorated in pink and white and pink punch was served from a silver service.

In the club lounge and foyer arrangements of summer flowers in the pink and white theme were combined to carry out the color theme.

Miss Kincaid wore a white ocktail dress with glamellia corsage, gift of the host couples.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Tate welomed arriving callers and Mrs. Frank Duke cut and served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Lewis Dellinger. Mrs. Hilda Hallibur-ton and Mrs. Jewel Best alternated at the punch bowl and assisting in serving were Misses Anne Dodge and Mary Elliott of Shelby, Sherry Beason of Boil-ing Springs and Karen Bush of Cliffside.

The 100 guests included members of the wedding party and a large number of out-of-town The bridegroom-to-be took the occasion to present his gifts to men of the wedding party.