

Home Rites Unite Whites

Seven o'clock rites Friday evening at the home of the bride united Miss Patricia Ann Weaver and Rufus Henry White in marriage.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Howard Weaver of route 3 and the late Mr. Weaver. She is a 1960 graduate of Belmont high school and a 1963 graduate of Shelby School of Practical Nursing.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. White of route 3, the bridegroom is a graduate of Bethware high school. A U. S. Army veteran, he is employed as a shipping clerk by Barwin Knitting Mills here.

The newlyweds will make their home on route 3, when they return from a wedding trip to Tennessee.

The couple entered the ceremony room together. The bride wore a waltz-length gown of taupe de soie which featured a lace jacket with long sleeves. She wore a tiara with an illusion veil attached and carried a lace-covered Bible topped with white carnations.

Carol Harmon, cousin of the bride, held the rings on a satin-covered pillow.

The bride's mother and Mrs. Fred Greene were hostesses for the reception which followed the ceremony. Wedding cake, nuts and punch were served from a table decorated with a lace cloth and carnation arrangement.

Miss Jacqueline Banton, Steve Wilson Pledge Vows In Shelby Church Rites

Shelby's Central Methodist church was the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Jacquelyn Faye Blanton and Steven Ray Wilson in marriage.

Rev. R. L. Carter officiated at the double-ring ceremony for which wedding music was provided by Mike Arrowood at the organ.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was a formal design of white silk organza and Chantilly lace and featured a scalloped Sabina neckline, long sleeves and a bouffant organza skirt trimmed with lace ruffles and ending in a Chapel train.

Honor attendants were the bride's sister and sister-in-law, Miss Patsy Blanton of Shelby. Miss Blanton, Jr. of Charlotte was matron of honor and Mrs. E. D. Blanton, Jr. of Charlotte was matron of honor. They wore yellow street-length dresses overlaid with white lace with matching headresses and slippers and carried two long-stemmed yellow roses.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were E. D. Blanton, Jr., of Charlotte, brother of the bride; and David Wilson and Archie Wilson, both of Charlotte, brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Blanton chose a blue lace dress which featured an A-line skirt. Her accessories were white and she wore a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a light green accented dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Blanton of Shelby, the bride is a graduate of Concord high school and King's College.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wilson of Charlotte. He is a graduate of East Mecklenburg high school of Charlotte.

Charlotte will be home for the newlyweds.

Following their wedding rehearsal on Saturday evening, a cake cutting was held in the Thad Ford room of Central Methodist church with the bride-elect's parents as hosts.

Assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. W. A. Herndon and Mrs. Frances Herndon.

The wedding theme was carried out in decorations and refreshments.

Miss Margaret Lu Bryant, John Harry Wed Sunday In Baptist Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson Harry will be at home in Grover following their wedding trip to Cherry Grove Beach.

Miss Margaret Lu Bryant became Mr. Harry's bride Sunday in a 4 p.m. wedding in First Baptist church. Rev. Richard Hobson, pastor of Grover's Shiloh Presbyterian church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. F. R. McCurdy was organist for the program of nuptial music and Allen Jolley was soloist. Mr. Jolley, minister of music at First Baptist church, sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

Mrs. McCurdy played "Jesus, Joy Of Man's Desiring"; "Behold, Star of Heaven"; "Serenade" by Schubert; "Toccata" by Liszt; "O Lord Most Holy" during the ceremony; Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary In D Major" for the processional and "Trumpet Tune In D Major" for the recessional.

The church altar was banked by arrangements of white glads, white chrysanthemums and yellow Garza mums interspersed by tree candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers, Kentia palms and Southern Smilax.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white taupe de soie featuring a fitted bodice of Alencon lace with square neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt was highlighted by panels of Alencon lace at the back which extended into a Chapel length train. Her finger tip veil, edged with Chantilly lace, was attached to a princess crown of Chantilly lace and pearl and sequin trim. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchid and showered with Stephanotis and satin streamers.

Assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. Helen Herndon and Mrs. Lucille Herndon, aunts of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Doris McGinnis and Mrs. Ella Mae Herndon, aunts of the bride-elect.

Miss Donna Hardee, Miss Teresa McDaniel, Miss Linda Roberts, all of Kings Mountain, and Miss Joy Yelton of Shelby, cousin of the bride.

All the attendants wore street-length dresses of yellow banded lace with matching headresses, dyed-to-match satin slippers and carried cascades of yellow cushion mums.

Miss Robin Harry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Harry, III, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Her dress featured a white lace bodice with yellow silk organza skirt. She wore a matching yellow headpiece and carried a flower basket of white and yellow petals.

The bridegroom's father was best man. The list of ushers included James Harry, Charles F. Harry, III, both of Grover, brothers of the bridegroom; P. A. Francis of Grover, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; William H. Rountree of Grover, cousin of the bridegroom; Alfred Queen of Grover; and Ned Dedmon of Shelby, brother-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. P. A. Francis of Grover, sister of the bridegroom, kept the bride's register in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. B. A. Harry of Grover directed the wedding.

The bride's mother wore a formal-length gown of pink banded crepe with short sleeves and round neckline. Her corsage was of white phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Harry, mother of the bridegroom, wore a formal-length gown of green linen which featured a lace cummerbund and back panel of matching green. Her corsage was a green cymbidium orchid with ivy.

For a wedding trip the new Mrs. Harry chose a blue two-piece embroidered linen dress with white accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bryant of Kings Mountain, the bride is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is now employed by Minette Mills, Inc. in Grover. She is a past Worthy Advisor of the Kings Mountain Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin Harry, Jr. of Grover are parents of the bridegroom. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, he is a sophomore at Gardner Webb Junior college. During the summer months he is employed at Minette Mills, Inc. in Grover.
