

Society News

MRS. EDWARD RAYMOND SILANSKY II
(Lois Catherine Jones)

MISS JUDITH EMMA IVEY is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Ivey who announce her engagement to Eddie Melvin Robbs. Both families are of Kings Mountain. Both the bride-elect and prospective bridegroom are graduates of Kings Mountain high school. The bridegroom-to-be is employed by Harris-Teeter Super Markets in Gastonia. The wedding will be an event of November 27th in First Baptist church.

MRS. RICHARD GREGG SINGER
(Mary Ann Brown)

Bridal Parties Honor Betty Morrison: Young Folk Sing Happy Birthday

Bridal parties this week and next will honor Miss Betty Morrison, whose wedding to Hugh Edwards, Jr. of Charlotte takes place September 11.

Thursday night Miss Scarlett Morrison honored her sister at a bridge party attended by high school and college friends of the bride-to-be. Pink net rice bags tied with valley lilies marked the places at two tables. The honoree's place was marked by a corsage of purple asters and button chrysanthemums. The hostess gave the bride-to-be a gift of placemats and napkins. A dessert course was served. Playing prizes went to Pattie Howard, who received high, and Anne Cooper who held second-high.

Last night Miss Beth Houser and Miss Sue Hunnicutt entertained at the Houser home on Ridge street at a miscellaneous bridal shower for Miss Morrison.

Other parties planned this week include a Thursday bridge-luncheon in Greensboro at the home of Mrs. Blair Dailey. Miss Linda Lael will be co-hostess; a luncheon Saturday at Vance Motor Inn in Statesville to be given by Mrs. Dalbert Sheffte of Charlotte, Mrs. Eugene Carson of Statesville and Mrs. Dick Williams of Roanoke, Va.; and a Cola party Friday at 4:30 to be given by Sara Rose Lennon and Ann Broadwater at the Lennon home here.

Next week's parties will include a bridge party-kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Robert Southwell on Tuesday evening. Entertaining with Mrs. Southwell will be Mrs. William Herndon and Mrs. Jack White.

About This N' That

A back-to-school dance for high school and college students kicked off September activities for Country Club members and guests Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John O. Plonk and Mr. and Mrs. Scarr Morrison were hosts for the semi-formal dance.

A second back-to-school affair is planned for Saturday morning when young folk up to sixth grade will enjoy a swim party at the club pool from 10:30 until 12 noon. Mrs. F. J. Sincox and Mrs. Bob Cox head up the committee on arrangements.

Club Night, with dinner and dancing, will be featured on Saturday evening. Bill Jeffries and Orchestra will provide Leslie Hunter Sherrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Sherrer, celebrated her first birthday August 23rd. A family birthday party was held at the Sherrer home with Leslie's decorated cake cut and served with ice cream.

Young Miss Sherrer is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sherrer of Gastonia of Gastonia and Mrs. Ethel Richardson of Kings Mountain.

The Sherrers live on Maner road.

tain. His mother is the former Dorothy Frances Goforth.

music for dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright, Jr. and Mrs. Charlie Moss head the committee on arrangements.

Comings And Goings

Dr. R. T. Hutchinson of Beaufort, S. C. visited Thursday and Friday with his sister, Mrs. H. L. Campbell and Mr. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moss and children, Susan and Lila Anne, of Huntsville, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Glausier of Newark, N. J. have returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weir. Mrs. Glausier and Mrs. Moss are sisters of Mrs. Weir.

They also visited in Fayetteville with Rev. and Mrs. Fred Falls and daughter, Teresa. Mrs. Falls is daughter of the Sam Weirs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Styers and son, Frankie, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Bridges and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Humphries attended the annual Styers-Barnette family reunion in Statesville Sunday.

Members of the Senior Citizens club will gather for a picnic supper Friday at 5:30 p.m. on the back lawn of the home of Miss Ava Ware, West Gold street. All members are invited to attend.

Cadet Lawrence Mauney, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Mauney, entered Carolina Military Academy at Maxton this week.

Mark Edward Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dixon, celebrated his second birthday Tuesday, August 31st. A family party was held at the Dixon home on Sims street with Mark's older brother, Jeff, present along with other members of the family.

Mark's birthday cake was topped with a train and the cake was cut and served with ice cream.

Young Dixon is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bun E. Goforth and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Dixon, all of Kings Mountain.

The five sisters of Mrs. Margaret Ward and their father, R. P. Rowe of Glen Alpine, visited here last weekend.

They included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Berry of Oakland, Calif., Mrs. Burrell Warren of San Francisco, Calif., Mrs. Pride Ratterree and children of Charleston, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Queen of Winston Salem, and Mrs. Bruce Bush of Greensboro.

Dr. Martha Plonk will return to Corvallis, Oregon this weekend after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Plonk. Dr. Plonk is a member of the faculty of Oregon State University.

Mrs. Demetrios Politis and sons have returned to Ann Arbor, Michigan, are visiting the Plonks, parents of Mrs. Politis.

It's A Girl

Mr. and Mrs. David Marlowe announce the arrival of their first child—a girl—Leslie Karen Marlowe, August 19. Kings Mountain grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Marlowe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fulton and children are here from Mont Vale, New Jersey for a visit with Mr. Fulton's mother, Mrs. P. D. Fulton.

Dr. and Mrs. Karl Notz, Jr. and two sons have moved from Coral Gables, Fla to Oak Ridge, Tennessee and are now living at 124 Carnegie Drive. Mrs. Notz is the former Mary Brower Norman and was formerly employed here as secretary at Kings Mountain Baptist church.

A birthday party Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Odus D. Smith at 203 Goforth street will honor their son, Gregory Roy Smith, who celebrates his third birthday Sunday.

Greg's birthday cake will be decorated in green and orange race cars and topped with three candles. The cake will be served with ice cream and other refreshments to 25 children who have been invited to attend.

Young Smith is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Scarlett of Thomasville and the late Mr. and Mrs. Odus D. Smith, Sr. The Kings Mountain Smiths and Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Harold Hoover and daughter, Pam, of Thomasville, are just back from 10 days in Daytona Beach, Fla. They were at Cape Kennedy to watch the Gemini 5 take-off in space and also visited Silver Spring.

Scarlette Leigh Lovelace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lovelace, celebrated her first birthday last Wednesday.

A family party was held at the Lovelace home in Grover.

The birthday cake was topped with a single candle and the white-iced cake was cut and served with other party refreshments.

Young Miss Lovelace is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McDaniel of Grover and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lovelace of Kings Mountain.

Rev. and Mrs. Marion DuBose, Clyde and James, have moved to Gloucester, Va. where Mr. DuBose has accepted pastorate of the Gloucester Baptist church. He was formerly pastor of Kings Mountain Baptist church here.