

UNC-G Sorority Taps Miss McClure

The 10 new officers were installed last week.

Alpha Xi Chapter has a total membership of almost 50 young women students from North Carolina and other states. Its activities on campus have included a minimum of six musical programs. Miss McClure, Kings Mountain student at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, has been installed as treasurer of Mu Phi Epsilon, International Professional Music Sorority. Miss McClure is a sophomore.

grams a school year and the establishment of a scholarship fund to pay tuition and fees of a music major each year. Miss McClure is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McClure.

Heart Benefit Friday

Friday night's dance beginning at 8 o'clock at Kings Mountain National Guard Armory will benefit the 1966 Heart Fund Campaign in the Kings Mountain area. Music for dancing will be provided by "The Zodiacs." Jonas Bridges is chairman of the arrangements committee for the benefit.

Parties For Brides-Elect

Mrs. Mike Dixon and Mrs. John Hardin entertained Saturday evening at the former's home at a bridal shower paying compliment to Miss Janie Trammell, whose wedding to Joseph Bruce Summey of Hendersonville, takes place Friday at 3 p.m. in Central Methodist church.

Miss Trammell arrived home Wednesday to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Trammell, until the wedding. Mr. Summey and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Summey of Hendersonville, arrive today for the wedding rehearsal and cake cutting to be held afterwards at the bride-elect's home.

Mrs. Joe Meek Ormand will be her sister's matron of honor and best man for the bridegroom-to-be will be his father, Miss Nancy Land of Wilmington will be soloist and Miss Mary Alice McDaniel will be organist for the program of music. Rev. Howard Jordan will perform the ceremony.

For the Saturday evening party Miss Trammell wore a white and tan suit with white carnation corsage, gift of the hostesses. A yellow and white motif was carried out in decorations and refreshments of wedding bell sandwiches, cakes, and pineapple punch.

Sandra Lynn, whose wedding to Jackie Rhea takes place March 27th, was honored at two bridal parties recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wimp Moss of Blacksburg, S. C., aunt and uncle of the prospective bridegroom, entertained for members of the two families at a dinner party Wednesday evening at their home. Guests included the engaged pair; their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rhea; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Montgomery, aunt and uncle of Mr. Rhea; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Montgomery, grandparents of Mr. Rhea; Ginger Lynn, Steve and Vickie Moss and David Martin.

Supper was served buffet-style. Two tables were arranged with white flowers. The bride's table held a centerpiece featuring a bride and bridegroom figurine.

Miss Lynn received a carnation shoulder corsage from the hosts.

Mrs. Mike Ledford, Mrs. Ted Ledford and Mrs. Charles Herndon entertained together Saturday at the Ted Ledford home at a drop-in shower honoring Sandra Lynn. The hostesses gave the bride-elect a carnation corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her blue lace-trimmed party dress and the guests showered Miss Lynn with household gifts.

A round refreshment table was overlaid with lace cloth and was decorative in white Shasta daisies and green ribbon. Sandwiches, mints, and wedding bell cakes were served with punch. The gift table was arranged in the living room and held an arrangement of wedding bells as central decoration.

Local Students To Hear Cronkite

Fifty three students from Kings Mountain high school will hear noted news commentator, Walter Cronkite, at "The Thomas Jefferson High School Award Convocation" at Ovens Auditorium in Charlotte Saturday morning Mar. 5, at 11 o'clock.

Cronkite, anchorman for CBS Television News, is the first of three nationally-known speakers who will address outstanding high school students from North and South Carolina during 1966. Students are selected by their principals.

Last year, Senator William Fulbright, novelist-critic Dr. Mark Van Doren and anthropologist, Dr. Margaret Meade, were guest speakers. The Convocation, which is sponsored by WBT and WBT-TV, is set up to recognize scholarship and to inspire high school students to higher scholastic achievement.

Mr. Cronkite, who has been with CBS since 1950, was a wartime correspondent for United Press International. He covered the battle of the North Atlantic in 1942, participated in the first B-17 bombing mission over Germany, landed with allied troops in North Africa and was with the U. S. Third Army during its breakthrough at Bastogne in the Battle of the Bulge.

Cronkite has been narrator-reporter for "The Twentieth Century" since 1957, in addition to covering the Jerusalem preparations for the trial of Adolf Eichmann and the orbital flights of astronauts Glenn, Shepard, Cooper and Schirra. Currently, he is managing editor and anchorman for "CBS EVENING NEWS WITH WALTER CRONKITE."

Selected on the basis of high scholastic achievement and interest to attend with 2000 other students at the Convocation are:

Faye Smith, Teresa Jolly, Fred Wright, Charles Padgett, Charles Wright, Debbie Smith, Abigail Spangler, Mary Dixon, Myers Hambricht, Darlene Oliver, Marlene Oliver, Bobby Clack, Patty Wray, JoAnne Hamrick, Elaine Dowda, Scarlett Morrison, Steve Lovelace, Gary Deveney, Rita Blanton, Harold Meacham, Debbie Harbut, Dianne Keeter, Linda Hannon, Kathleen Caveny, Larry Patrick, Chuck Gladden, Dennis Bridges, Donna Zaker, Ann Sanders, Jane Culp, Nadine Bell, Barbara Plonk, Reggie Alexander, Edith Hambricht, Vickie White, Gerald Wright, Joe Hüllender, Joyce Dixon, Carol Dilling, Theresa Wright, Allan Dover, Janet Bolin, Norma King, Carolyn Black, Gaither Bumgardner, Tommy Finger, Sandy

McLean, Va. and Bethesda, Md., between mid-afternoon Sunday and noon Tuesday. The 54-voice choir's tour repertoire ranged from Bach to folk music and included a medley of tunes from the Bart musical, "Oliver."

Miss Birmingham sings soprano.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Trott spent Friday evening in Kannapolis where they attended the silver anniversary banquet and Distinguished Service Award program of the Kannapolis Jaycees at Holiday Inn. Mr. Trott is a past president of the Kannapolis Jaycees and a co-organizer of the organization there. He and Mrs. Trott were invited as special guests at the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis returned Monday from Comer, Ga. where they were called due to the sudden death of Mrs. Davis' nephew, C. L. Adair, Mr. Adair died of a heart attack, and funeral rites were held on Sunday.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Strickland announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Abigail, to Jacob Tracy McGinnis, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McGinnis, Jr. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The wedding will be an event of June 3 in First Presbyterian church.

Friday: Theme: "You Are My Witnesses" Churchwomen Sponsored Day Of Prayer

Local church members joined Christians in 125 countries on six continents in World Prayer Day services based on the international theme, "You Are My Witnesses."

Prepared by the women of the World Day of Prayer Committee of Scotland, the service stressed that ordinary church members can change the world by their daily actions. Reflected in the worship were the ancient traditions of the Scottish church.

Services were held here at Central Methodist church with the Kings Mountain Council of Churchwomen in charge. Rev. Howard Jordan led the service, assisted by Mrs. Robert Haden, Council president; Mrs. Bob Manner read the scripture selections.

Now 80 years old, World Day of Prayer is observed annually on the first Friday in Lent, with each year's order of service planned by an individual or committee in a different country. In the United States the observance is sponsored by United Church Women—the national co-operative fellowship of Protestant and Eastern Orthodox women's agencies—a department of the National Council of Churches' Division of Christian Unity. Last year, services were held in over 500 North Carolina communities.

Offerings of the day will benefit 12 Christian colleges in Asia and Africa; Christian literature and Christian home and family life education in Asia, Africa and Latin America; an aid America, the migrant ministry for agricultural workers, Indian-Americans and international students. Two special projects for 1966 include the training of lay persons and professional workers within the U. S. in meeting community needs, and lay training and study centers abroad.
