

11.99 double knit acetate takes on tailored airs

Make a dash for our double knits... for shape that won't sit out, for that wonderful feeling you're right in style. Find rippled and flat weaves, slim skirted, circled at neckline or throat with eye-catching interest. One- and two-part basics and brilliants; 10 to 18. A. Ripple shift: black, blue, navy, emerald B. 2-pc. flashed with white: black, blue, plum C. 2-pc., crocheted hip: blue, plum, emerald

Society

Hamrick-Henderson Vows Are Pledged In Sunday Ceremony At Grover Church

Miss Teenia Claudette Hamrick and Robert Glenn Henderson pledged their wedding vows in Grover's Allen Memorial Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. William P. Shytle conducted the double-ring rites. Mrs. Ronald Queen of Grover provided the wedding music. Soloist was Mrs. Robert Ware of Kings Mountain. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hamrick of Grover. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is now a student at King's college in Charlotte. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Henderson of Chesterfield, South Carolina. He is a graduate of Chesterfield high school and is now a student at King's college in Charlotte. He is employed by Armature Winding of Charlotte. The newlyweds will make their home at 2324 East Fifth street in Charlotte. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Marvin Hamrick. She wore a formal gown of white peau de soie with lace flower appliques around the neckline and bouffant skirt. The dress was designed by her maternal grandmother Mrs. Annie Barnes of Grover. She carried an orchid on a white Bible. Mrs. Johnny Lee, the bride's cousin, was her matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Linda Fitch of Kings Mountain, Miss Elaine Sutton of Old Fort, Miss Beverly Hamrick and Miss Vickie Hamrick of Grover. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Pattie Ellis of Shelby and Miss Peggy Sutton of Old Fort. The attendants wore blue formal dresses made of crystalette and carried bouquets of white mums. Flower girl was Miss Kathy Ellis of Shelby. She wore a white dress of peau de soie similar to the bride's. Mrs. Fred Kiser of Kings Mountain was at the register. The bridegroom's father was Randy Meredith, Wright, Bateson, Larry Lloyd, Sidney A. Clark, Ronnie Hamrick, and Jim Frank Henderson. Ringbearer was Master Scott Ellis. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hamrick chose a pink linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage. The bridegroom's mother, gowned in green, wore white accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage. Mrs. Annie Barnes, of Grover, grandmother of the bride, wore a blue dress with white accessories and a lavender orchid at her shoulder. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Rivers, of Chesterfield, S. C., chose beige with matching accessories and a lavender orchid shoulder corsage. Mrs. T. A. Champion of Kings Mountain, the bride's great-grandmother, wore a navy dress with a corsage of white carnations. A cake cutting was held following the Saturday night wedding rehearsal in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Barnes of Grover. Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Buford Ellis, Mrs. Fred Kiser, and Mrs. Donald Ellis were hostesses. Nuts, mints, punch, and wedding cake were served from a table decorated with two candelabra holding pink tapers. The centerpiece was an arrangement of pink mums.

Miss Donna Wilson, Edwin Rhea Hamrick Wed Saturday In Double-Ring Ceremony

East Gold Street Wesleyan Methodist church provided the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. exchange of vows uniting Miss Donna Wilson and Edwin Rhea Hamrick in marriage. Vows of the double-ring ceremony were pledged before the Rev. Clyde R. Goodson, minister of the church. Miss Margaret Huffstetler was organist for the program of nuptial music and Mrs. Robert Ware was soloist. Mrs. Ware sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar for the benediction. Included in the organ program were "O Promise Me"; "Whither Thou Goest"; "Always" and the classic marches. Two baskets of white and pink glads were used at either side of the altar and in the background were palms and lighted tapers. A kneeling bench centered the setting. Kenneth R. Wilson gave his sister in marriage. Designed by the bride's mother, the bride's gown was a street-length design of white lace with fitted sleeveless bodice and full skirt. Her fingertip veil was attached to a satin ring headpiece sparkled with satin bows and she carried a nosegay of white daisy mums and white frenched carnations. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Miss Diane Wilson, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a street-length dress of white lace over pink with pink satin slippers and a bow head-dress dropped with circular tulle veil. She wore pearls and earrings, gifts of the bride, and carried a nosegay of pink daisies. Miss Jane Griffin and Miss Patsy Payne were bridesmaids. They wore street-length dresses of petal pink brocade with matching bandeaux and slippers. They carried bouquets of tinted pink daisies. The bridegroom's father was best man. Eddie Spencer ushered with Sam Leigh. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Clackum wore an aqua lace dress with white hat and accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother chose pink lace with pink hat and gloves and a corsage of white carnations. Miss Sue Miller kept a guest register in the vestibule of the church. After a trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C., the newlyweds will occupy their new trailer on Shelby road. BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Clackum of Kings Mountain. She was graduated Friday night from Kings Mountain high school. Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hamrick of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom. He attended Kings Mountain high school and is employed by Mullins Textiles, Inc. Mr. and Mrs. Brodus Wilson of Gaffney, S. C., were among out-of-town wedding guests.

Miss Patricia Strickland, Mr. McGinnis Pledge Vows In Church Rites Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Tracy McGinnis, III, wed Saturday, will be at home at 703 West Mountain street following their wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains. Miss Patricia Abigail Strickland became the bride of Mr. McGinnis in a 5 p.m. double-ring ceremony in First Presbyterian church. Dr. Paul K. Ausley officiated. Mrs. Darrell Anstin was organist for the program of traditional wedding music. Tree brass candelabra at each side of the altar held lighted tapers arranged with greenery and fern. White glads and mums were used on the altar and centering the setting was a prayer bench garlanded with English ivy and daisy mums. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her formal gown was designed of white silk organza and featured a fitted bodice with Sabrina neckline applique with lace and seed pearls, long sleeves, and a full skirt caught at the back with a bustle bow and a cascade of ruffles which spread to a chapel train. A crown of aurora crystals and seed pearls was attached to a fingertip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white gladiolus and white frenched carnations. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Tracy McGinnis, Jr. of Kings Mountain. Also a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and a student at Gaston College. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Strickland of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, she is a student at Gaston College. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Tracy McGinnis, Jr. of Kings Mountain. Also a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and a student at Gaston college, he is a commander of Kings Mountain's Civil Air Patrol.

Miss Mary Williams, Curtis F. George Pledge Vows In Double-Ring Church Rites

Charlotte's Avondale Presbyterian church was the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Mary Branch Williams of Charlotte and Curtis Franklin George of Kings Mountain in marriage. The Rev. Thomas MacLean officiated, using the double-ring service. Spiral candelabra on the altar held white tapers entwined with Jade. Two altar vases were filled with white glads, carnations and chrysanthemums. Samuel Horace Williams gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of embroidered nylon organza designed with long sleeves and highlighted by a chapel-length train. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was draped from a lace and pearl crown applique with roses and she carried a nosegay of white split carnations and roses. Miss Margaret Williams attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids included Miss Jeanette Hinson, Miss Geraldine Spainhour, both of Charlotte, and Mrs. Don Ellison of Winston Salem. All the attendants wore gowns of aqua crepe with Chantilly lace bodices and wattleau detachable trains. They wore matching bandeaux and slippers and carried yellow daisies and pom poms plaited with yellow satin ribbon. The bridegroom's father was best man. The list of ushers included Richard George of Virginia Beach, Va., brother of the bridegroom; Don Ellison of Winston Salem; John McGinnis of Kings Mountain; and Keith Layton of St. Petersburg, Fla. A reception was held after the ceremony in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Louise Shoemaker kept a guest register in the church vestibule. BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horace Williams of Charlotte, the bride is a graduate of East Mecklenburg high school and Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing. She attended Queens Evening college and UNC at Charlotte. Prior to her marriage she was a nursing instructor at Charlotte's Presbyterian hospital. Mr. and Mrs. John George, Sr. of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom. A graduate of King's Mountain high school and Erskine college he has completed a two-year tour of Army service. He is employed by Glidden Company in Greensboro. The couple's wedding trip will take them to the North Carolina mountains after which they will be at home at 1044 Hill street in Greensboro. Margrace Clubwomen To Meet Friday Night Members of the Margrace Woman's club will gather for a covered dish supper Friday night at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. C. W. Falls. It will be the regular monthly meeting of the women's organization.

Miss Louzelle Smith, Elbert Durden Give Wedding Plans; Parties Continue

Miss Louzelle Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur G. Smith, has completed plans for her marriage to Elbert Durden, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Durden of Fernandina Beach, Fla., and announces them this week. The wedding will take place Saturday, June 11, at 7 p.m. in Central Methodist church. Rev. Howard Jordan will officiate, and nuptial music will be provided by Miss Mary Alice McDaniel, organist, and B. S. Peeler, vocalist. Miss Beverly Clower of Atlanta, Ga., will attend her roommate as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will include Miss Louise Price of Monticello, Ga., and Miss Peggy Hester of Monroe, Ga. The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father. Best man for Mr. Durden will be his father, Lee Roy Durden of Cookeville, Tennessee. The list of ushers will include Clifford Flood of Lafayette, Missouri, cousin of the bridegroom-elect; James Brogan of Atlanta, Ga., Perkius Williams of Conyers, Ga., cousin of the bride-to-be; Grafton Withers of Kings Mountain and David Smith, brother of the bride-to-be. Mrs. Eugene Patterson will direct the wedding. A reception will be given by the bride-elect's parents after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. Additional parties honor Miss Smith and her fiance prior to their wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Durden will entertain Friday evening at Holiday Inn in Gastonia at a post-rehearsal dinner honoring Miss Smith and Mr. Durden. The bride-elect and her parents will entertain members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a buffet luncheon Saturday at 1 o'clock at their home on Monroe avenue. Miss Patricia Strickland and Mr. McGinnis were married Saturday afternoon.

Financial Page EXTRA! Market tip: CORVAIR IS A BEST-BUY FOR JUNE CAR SHOPPERS. Includes an image of a Corvaire Monza Sport Coupe and a large table of stock market data.

We Have Over In Stock... Deal Of A Lifetime! By Trading With Us! You Get The New Cars You'll Save Money. CALL or SEE J. T. McGINNIS, Jr. and/or ROB GOFORTH. Victory Chevrolet Company. Phone 739-5471. Corner Railroad At Mountain