IN SOUTH VIET NAM — David M. Hardin AMHAN is aboard the USS Ranger which is stationed in South Vietnam. The ship will be in port in the United States August 25th.

David M. Hardin Aboard Ranger

David M. Hardin AMHAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Hardin of Kings Mountain, is aboard the USS Ranger in South Vietnam. The carrier is one of the Seventh Fleet. Their first visit overseas carried them to Subic Bay, Philippines, the major U. S. Naval support activity in this part of the world. Some of the crew took tours to Manila and other places of interest in the Philippines as a means of relaxation. David joined the Navy two years ago, and was first stationed in San Diego, California. After completing hydrolic training at a school in Memphis, Tennessee he was transferred to the USS

These Films Are Available

Six films demonstrating the art of the film have been recently added to the North Carolina Adult Film Project and are now available from the local public library. Some of the six have won international acclaim and all are sixteen millimeter films available free of charge upon two or more weeks prior request at the library. Films from this statewide cooperative public library collection may not be used in elementary and secondary schools nor may they be used where an admission is charged.

DAYBREAK EXPRESS — a short color trip on an elevated train in New York to the accompaniment of Duke Ellington's jazz.

DREAM OF THE WILD HORSES — a slow motion and soft-focus picture of motion among the wild horses of France's Camargue District.

Parable — the beautiful morality film for the Protestant and Orthodox Center at the recent New York World's Fair.

THE RED BALLON — the classic tale of the little boy in Paris and his balloon.

THE STRING BEAN — unusual combining of color and black and white film to tell the of an old lady in Paris and her string bean plant.

Ranger, headed overseas. His work relates to the maintenance of the air craft. The ship has arrived in the United States for a period of rest and completion of final preparations for the yard overhaul. His address is: David M. Hardin — AMHAN v6-division USS Ranger (CVA-61) FPO San Francisco, Calif. 96601

Saddle Club Is Planning Rodeo Show

BOILING SPRINGS, N. C. — Bull riding and bucking horse riding will be part of the western rodeo flavor to hit Cleveland County Saturday, September 3, when the Broad River Saddle Club sponsors an "open" horse show-rodeo combined.

J. O. Hamrick, board chairman of the club, said a number of rodeo events such as bareback riding, bucking horse riding, the calf scramble, barrel race (separate for boys and girls), pole bending, western pick-up and wagon race will be held during the Showdeo.

Horse show events will include the English Pleasure, Western Pleasure, Championship Pleasure, Costume Class and the Junior Equitation Class.

The eleven events will be staged beginning at 7 p.m. at the Arena off N. C. 150, two miles south of Boiling Springs. Rain date for the show will be Saturday, September 10.

Persons interested in participating in the showdeo should contact the saddle club by writing the:

Broad River Saddle Club, Box 349, Boiling Springs, N. C., or by contacting J. O. Hamrick, Miss Annie Laura Blanton, Joe D. Hamrick, Edwin Bridges, Frank Barbee, Joe Austell, Jerry Dover or Ronnie Ivie. "We are planning a fine show and will have seating facilities for 700. There will be a concession stand at the show. With 10 to 12 bucking horses and six bulls planned for the rodeo part of this show, we are expecting plenty of excitement and fun."

Miss Bridges Is Graduate

Miss Janice Ann Bridges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Bridges of 1107 Gold St. Extension, was graduated August 26th at 5:30 p.m. from Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in exercises held at David Owens Auditorium in Charlotte.

The Kings Mountain nurse will continue her nursing as a member of the staff of the Pediatric Service at Duke University Medical Center in Durham.

Rites Conducted For Mrs. Lutz

Funeral rites for Mrs. Junie S. Lutz, 86, of Gaffney, S. C., mother of Mrs. Ruby Best of Kings Mountain, were held Sunday at 2 p.m. from Shuford-Hatcher Funeral Home in Gaffney, S. C., interment following in Salem Lutheran church cemetery in Lincolnton.

Mrs. Lutz, a native of Denver, N. C., died Saturday in Cherokee County hospital following several weeks illness. She was widow of Alfred Monroe Lutz.

Besides her daughter here she is survived by Mrs. C. J. Franks of Gaffney and Mrs. Irene Clare

Trade your old dish washer for a new KitchenAid

Trade in your old dish washer—your dish rag, your sponge, whatever. You'll be surprised how much it'll be worth. There's never been a better time to trade "sink duty" for the modern, automatic way of doing dishes. And there's not a finer dishwasher than a KitchenAid convertible—a front-opening portable you can build in any time.
