KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD

Thursday, November 3, 1966

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Howell C. Johnson announce the engagement of their daughter, Diane, to Robert Donald Hurlbut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hurlbut. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The bride-elect is a senior student at Kings Mountain high school. The prospective bridegroom, a graduate of Kings Mountain high school, is attending Gaston Technical Institute. The wedding will be an event of November 25.

Miss Petie Lynn, student at the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy, Chapel Hill, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Ruth Lynn.

Freshen Wardrobe With Colorful Gloves

If your wardrobe needs freshening up, without much expense, fashion experts say you can do it with gloves.

Choose from a large assortment of washables in a dazzling array of colors, fabrics, and designs. Polka dot, tattersall, and plaid gloves go particularly well with simple light, black, and navy dresses.

Selective shopping is important to achieve full value in school clothes, even if only one new item is being added to your child's closet. Look for long-lasting, quality fabrics that wash well and iron easily — or even not at all.

Miss Brewington, Steve Wells Wed October 19

Mrs. Steve Wells, recent bride, was guest-of-honor Tuesday night at a drop-in shower held at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Fred Wells on York road. Sharing hostess duties were her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Jerry Wells of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Kenneth Brittain of Cherryville.

Guests called from 7 until 9 o'clock and showered the bride with miscellaneous household gifts.

The Wells home was decorated in fall flowers, featuring yellow.

The gift table in the living room was decorated in white and yellow.

Decorated cake squares were served with potato chips and cold drinks.

Mrs. Wells, the former Patricia Ann Brewington, wore a dress of gold nubby wool.

Guests included a number from out-of-the-county including the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. J. H. Sistare of Clover, S. C. and Mrs. J. H. Wells of the Chapel Grove community. Also; Miss Jean Sistare of Raleigh; Mrs. Marshall McClure, Mrs. Jane Reagan and Mrs. Richard Sistare, all of Gastonia; and Mrs. Martha Brittain of Vale.

The altar of the church was arranged with cathedral tapers in seven-branch candelabra, palms and all-white glads and mums.

James T. McKee escorted the bride to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of white duchess satin and imported Chantilly lace. The contour bodice was styled with bateau neckline and short sleeves. The dome-shaped skirt was accentuated at the waistline by a satin bow. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a princess crown of seed pearls, and she carried a white purse and accessories and a corsage of white carnations.
