Eddie Pinson's Rites Conducted

Funeral rites for Eddie Pinon, 11, of route 1, Grover, were seld Friday at 3 p.m. from Clearview Baptist church, interment following in Grover Cemetery. The youngster died Wednesday night in Charlotte Memorial nospital after being injured in an automobile accident two hours earlier at the intersection of East King street and Carpen-

A native of Cherokee County, he had lived in Grover the past three years. His mother, Mrs. Wynemo

Phillips Pinson, driver of the family's stationwagon which reportedly pulled into the path of semi - tractor - trailer truck operated by Wilson Henry Sutton, 23, of Sharon, S.C., was hospitalized as were two other children, Angela and Tim. The boy was transferred to Charlotte Memorial hospital.

Another daughter, Christine, was treated for minor injuries and released.

Angela, suffering with leg and face lacerations, is listed in improving condition as is her mother, seriously injured in the wreck. Tim was listed in satisfactory condition.

Other survivors of Eddie Pinson are his father, Arthur Pin-son; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Crocker of Grover and Mrs. Flora Phillips of Cowpens, S. C.; his great-grandfa-ther, H. C. Pinson of Blacks-burg, S. C.; and his great-great grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Smith of Cowpens. According to investigating ofdicer David Corn, Sutton's truck slammed into the Pinson auto, a 1961 Ford station wagon, jack-knifed, and drove the Pinson auto into the path of another large truck driven by James Powell, 47, of Lawndale R-1. The drivers of the two trucks were not injured. The fatality was the first traf-dic fatality in the city this year.

The two civic clubs sponsored the event.

Text of the article follows: On August 30, 1966, Kings Mountain's City Stadium was the scene of what must be described as the hardest fought "battle" since the historic Battle of Kings Mountain of October 7, 1780. The Kings Mountain Jaycees and Lions Club fought for the city title of 1966 Donkey Softball Champions. > Jaycees vs. Lions, but it didn't take long to see that it was actually the Jaycees and Lions vs. the Oklahoma Donkeys, The Jaycees did push and pull across two runs compared to a single tally by the Lions to become Champions, of sorts, and as a result inherited a title which we aren't particularly anxious to defend any time soon. Even with the manyfalls and bruises, split britches, and our damaged prides, the project was a success both fun-ancially and financial ly. And when the dust finally settled at City Stadium, those four-legged Okies were probably still snickering about the 1966 version of the Battle of Kings Mountain.
