

If You Follow These Five Suggestions It's Easy To Carve Thanksgiving Bird

Will that succulent Thanksgiving turkey be carved into beautiful, mouth-watering slices, or will the man of the house hack it into a mangled wreck?

Carving a turkey is an annual trauma for some people, but is simplicity itself for others. As with so many things, it's easy when you know how.

Drawings taken from World Book Encyclopedia show you how. First, remove the leg by turning the turkey on its side with its breastbone away from you. Hold the end of the drumstick and pull it forward as the knife cuts through the joint. (Figure 1.)

Next, carve the drumstick into lengthwise slices by standing it on its thick end and holding the thin end with your hand. (Figure 2.)

Carve the thigh after the leg. Expose the thighbone by slicing down to it. Remove the thighbone by running the point of the knife around it and lifting it up with the fork. Then finish slicing the thigh meat. (Figure 3.)

If you want only a few large slices from the breast, carve with the grain. Slice lengthwise until you reach the wing joint, then remove the wing. Continue slicing until you have carved all the white meat on one side of the turkey. (Figure 4.)

If you want several small slices from the breast, carve across the grain. First remove the wing, then slice at an angle of about 45 degrees. Continue carving slices until you reach the breastbone. Loosen the slices by cutting along the bone under them. (Figure 5.)

And that's all there is to it.

Provided, of course, that you have the proper tools. The article on "Meat and Meat Carving" in World Book says:

"The well-kept carving set is very important to good carving. A good carving knife needs to be sharpened only once in a while, but it should always be steeled before using."

"A meat platter or a carving board allows more room for cutting and makes carving easier. A large carving fork holds the meat much more firmly than an ordinary dinner fork."

Bon appetit, and don't forget the cranberry sauce.

FIVE EASY steps in carving your Thanksgiving turkey are outlined by World Book Encyclopedia.

Ministers' Wives Met On Thursday

The Baptist Ministers' Wives Auxiliary of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association met Thursday afternoon in the parlor of First Baptist church.

Mrs. Dale Clark and Mrs. Lenzy Elmore were welcomed as new members by Mrs. Norman Brown, president.

New secretary for the group is Mrs. James Holder, wife of the pastor of Oak Grove Baptist church.

Mrs. Mames Sides led a program on "Christmas Decorations."

Hostesses for the meeting, all of Kings Mountain, were Mrs. Robert Mann, Mrs. R. L. McGaha, Mrs. Richard Plyler and Mrs. James Holder.

The refreshment table was decorated in the Thanksgiving motif.

The program was closed with a devotional, "The Lord Is My Shepherd", presented by Mrs. James Stamey.

Methodist Circle 7 Held Meeting Monday

Circle 7 of Central Methodist church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. James Cloninger on Grover road. Ten members attended.

Mrs. Clarence Jolly, circle chairman, conducted the devotional, "The Lord Is My Shepherd", presented by Mrs. Paul Walker had charge of the program.

Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cloninger and children, Mark and Jeff, and Mrs. Cloninger's brother, George Sellers, Jr., attended the performance Sunday in Charlotte of Ringling Brothers' Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Kings Mountain Girls Win Top Awards For Scouting Achievements During Year

Twenty-one Kings Mountain Girl Scouts won top awards at Thursday's Court of Awards held at Boyce Memorial ARP church and four of the number received double honors.

Highest honor in Girl Scouting — the First Class award — was presented Jane Yates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Yates, and Brenda Goforth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Goforth. They are members of Troop 4 Cadettes of First Presbyterian church.

Sign of the Arrow and Sign of the Star coveted badges went to 15 girls. Janet Bridges, Nancy Wiesener, Donna Blanton, and Stella Lee Neisler won both awards. These badges are the highest honor a Junior Girl Scout can attain. Other winners of Sign of the Star honor were Vicki Bohler, Gail Blake, Irelou Easley, Cindy Robinson, Connie Pearson and Laura Plonk. Other recipients of Sign of the Arrow were Connie Strickland, Sonja Ware, Lynn Blanton, Debra King, Debbie Ross, Kathy Reynolds and Debbie Bolin.

Miss Kay Anderson, field advisor for the Pioneer Girl Scout Council, made the presentation, assisted by Mrs. Charles Blanton, Neighborhood chairman, and mothers of Girl Scouts.

Members of Brownie Troop 52 served as ushers for the program and a color guard was formed by Junior Scouts of Troop 157.

Mrs. Floyd Queen is leader of Troop 157 of the ARP church, Mrs. Sam Robinson is leader of Troop 155 of First Presbyterian church and Mrs. Raymond Holmes, Mrs. Henry Fite and Mrs. Herman Cash are leaders of Troop 4 Cadettes of First Presbyterian church.

Awards also went to Girl Scouts from Bethware Troop 189.
