Over 2500 church, gave the meditation, "The Spirit of Christmas"; and Rev. S. T. Cooke, pastor of Ros-well A.M.E. Zion church, pronounced the benediction. Theme of the program was "Keep Christ In Christmas."

Because of microphone diffi-culty, some citizens not near enough to the speaker's platform on the parking lot at the corner of West Mountain at Cherokee had difficulty hearing some of the presentations.
Climaxing the program was the awarding of a bronze plaque to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr., owners of Fulton's, as the mer-chant adjudged to have best-decorated show windows in the Christmas motif.

The arrangements committee for the community's first outdoor Choral Festival included Allen Jolley, chairman; Charles Dixon and Mayor Moss.

KMHS Senior Writes "I Am Thankful . . ."

The following "I Am Thank-ful" essay was written by Judy Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. (Red) Morrison, and read by Rev. James M. Wilder at Thursday's Thanksgiving ser-vice at Kings Mountain Baptist church where the Morrison fam-ily are members.

Miss Morrison represented the city in the Thanksgiving Day Carolinas Carrousel in Charlotte. She was Princess from Kings Mountain high school, where she is a senior.

Her essay follows:
"I am thankful for these United States. I realize that so many teenagers do not have the opportunities which are offered to teenagers of America.

"I am thankful for all our ser-vice-men in Vietnam and those in other troubled areas of the world. These men are fighting for every person in America. They are giv-ing their young lives for you and me.

"I am thankful for my church. So many people do not know what church is. Some know but do not have the freedom to wor-ship in a church. Others know and have the freedom to worship but lack the ambition to attend. I know what church is; I have the ambition; I have the freedom, and I am truly thankful.

"I am thankful for my school and my present and past teach-ers. My teachers have taught me a great deal more than just "reading, riting and 'rithmetic."

"I am thankful for my friends who have shared joys and sor-rows, who have listened to my petty problems, who have laugh-ed at my corny jokes, and who have smiled when a smile was needed.

"I am thankful for my little brother. Even as he peeps in on my date and me trying to see and hear all he can, I am thank-ful for him.

"I am thankful for my parents. If it were not for my mother and my father, I would not be where I am today. They have loved me, cared for me, and watched over me. They have worked and sac-rificed for me. They have taught me to love my friends, my en-emies, and my God.

"I am thankful for faith, hope, love, and immortality.
As I speak of my thanksgiv-ing, I am sure-I am speaking for you.

"I AM THANKFUL . . ."

A prominent executive talks about Practical Patriotism
"As Chairman of the Treasury Department's U. S. Industrial Pay-roll Savings Committee, I have seen how employers and employees of private enterprise make a powerful contribution to our country's future while building new strength into their personal future through systematic savings from pay in U. S. Savings Bonds.
This is truly practical patriotism.
The Payroll Savings Plan helps individual families by providing a simple, steady, guaranteed way to save. And the plan assists in stabilizing the economy through more effective management of the public debt.
Please join with us, and encourage your fellow employees, too, to become practical patriots. Your active support can make this a truly Star-Spangled Savings Plan."
