McGills Honored On Anniversary At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. George D. McGill of Wallace, well-known to a large number of Kings Mountain citizens, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary recently at an open house.

A Kings Mountain native, McGill is brother of I. A. McGill, W. F. McGill, and Mrs. R. L. Plonk, all of Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes Wright, 66th, Marty, Charles and Howard Wright went from Kings Mountain to Wallace for the Sunday afternoon reception.

In Wallace the McGills are active in Wallace Baptist church and in civic and social life of the community of Harrells.

Members of their original wedding party made up receiving line to greet friends and relatives. Arriving guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Leland McGill of Wallace and were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. George Brown, also of Wallace.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. McGill were their son, George McGill, Jr. of Fort Ord, California; Mrs. Ruth Dixon of Siler City; Mrs. C. B. Gilliam of Raleigh; R. C. Dorsett of Siler City; and E. J. Woody of Greensboro.

A pink and silver color scheme was predominant in decorations. On the console at the entrance was a pink poinsettia and a large arrangement of pink glads, carnations and white mums were on the living room mantel. On the desk, a five-branched epergne was filled with pink carnations.

Mrs. John F. Powers and Mrs. Franklin Williams, both of Wallace, pinned individual corsages of silver bells on each guest. Mrs. William Brice of Wallace and Mrs. Herbert Bland, Sr. of Harrells received in the gift room.

In the dining room, a three-tiered wedding cake was at one end of the table, with a silver punch bowl at the other. All serving appointments were of silver.

The floor-length tablecloth was of white lace over taffeta caught with bows of pink satin ribbon. Centering the table was a four-branched silver candelabrum of pink carnations, white snap-pompons and pink candles.

A conversation piece for an antique side table was a candle twenty inches tall, molded from the McGills' wedding candles of 25 years ago. This was set in a base of white poinsettia sprinkled with silver glitter and decorated with silver ribbon and miniature bells. Beside the registry was a picture of George and Elizabeth McGill at the time they were married.

Among reception helpers were

Mrs. Stokes Wright of Kings Mountain and Mrs. John Sutton of La Grange, N. C., formerly of Kings Mountain. Mrs. Sutton is the former Nancy Plonk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Plonk.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Coral Ramseur, Kings Mountain junior student at Queen's college in Charlotte, was listed on the dean's list for the first semester of the academic year 1966-67. Miss Ramseur is daughter of Mrs. W. L. Ramseur and the late Dr. Ramseur.

Woman's Club Elects Officers, Hears Student

Five new officers of the Woman's club were elected Monday night and club members were entertained by an exchange student from Uruguay to highlight the program.

The high school senior from Statesville is in aking her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Evans, formerly of Kings Mountain. She described life in South America, and accompanied herself on the banjo as she sang several numbers for the group.

Mrs. Evans accompanied her "daughter" to Kings Mountain and while here they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Padgett. The International Affairs program was arranged by Mrs. Padgett.

Mrs. Bill Russell was named recording secretary for the two years 1967-69 and Mrs. Paul Hendricks will serve as treasurer. Elected chaplain was Mrs. Arno Haas. Mrs. E. R. Alexander, Jr., will serve as club editor and Mrs. E. W. Griffin was named federation director.

Two new members — Mrs. James Wilder and Mrs. Craig Falls — were recognized by Mrs. D. W. Blanton, president.

Mrs. Sam Robinson, Mrs. D. E. Tate and Mrs. Robert Miller were hostesses for the meeting. At refreshment time they served a dessert course with coffee.

The club lounge and foyer were decorated with arrangements of yellow mums.

Miss Ruth Smith, Dale D. Ledbetter Wed Sunday In Bethlehem Church Rites

A 3 p.m. wedding Sunday in Bethlehem Baptist church united Miss Ruth Lucille Smith and Dale Dwight Ledbetter in marriage.

The Rev. Paul Stokes, uncle of the bride, heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony. The altar of the church was decorated with potted palms, white mums and glads and spiral tapers in wrought-iron candelabra.

Mrs. D. P. Smith, Jr. was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by W. B. (Bill) McDaniel. Mr. McDaniel sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

David P. Smith escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride designed her own wedding gown of white bridal satin. The formal-length dress was fashioned along empire lines with lace jacket and Chapel-length train. The high neckline, sleeves and train of the gown were edged in reem-broidered lace. A jeweled crown held her fingertip veil, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

The bride's three sisters were her attendants. Miss Frances Smith was maid of honor and Miss Sarah Smith and Miss Christine Smith were bridesmaids.

All the attendants wore street-length gowns made by the maid of honor, the bride and their mother. Fashioned along empire lines of yellow brocade, the dresses had long sleeves. A rose of matching yellow held their flirtation veils. Each carried a long-stemmed yellow rosebud.

The bridegroom's father was best man. D. P. Smith of Shelby, the bride's brother, ushered with Bill Falls of Kings Mountain, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Max Thornburg and Harvey Morehead, both of Shelby.

Miss Linda Fitch kept a guest register.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith wore a beige and brown suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a turquoise costume suit with black accessories and a corsage of white mums.

Mrs. L. D. Alexander of Lincolnton, grandmother of the bride, wore a blue jacket dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For their wedding trip which took them to their new home in Raleigh, the new Mrs. Ledbetter wore a rust three-piece suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM Mr. and Mrs. David P. Smith are parents of the bride. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Southern Business college.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ledbetter of Kings Mountain, is a graduate of Shelby high school and is a sophomore student at North Carolina State University in Raleigh.

The newlyweds have occupied an apartment at 2700 Bedford Avenue in Raleigh.

Saturday Evening Church Rites Unite Miss Marlene Oliver, Ronnie D. Denton

Miss Marlene Oliver became the bride of Ronnie David Denton Saturday in a 7 p.m. wedding in Piedmont Baptist church.

The Rev. C. C. Parker, minister of the church, heard the couple pledge vows of the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Delores White, pianist for the program of traditional music, played "Sweetest Story Ever Told", "Bless This House", "O Perfect Love", "O Promise Me" and the traditional marches.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her formal gown of white peau de soie was an Italian design trimmed in lace and seed pearls. Fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves the skirt of the dress was enhanced by lace motifs and highlighted by an aisle-wide lace train. Her veil, of four tiers of illusion, was held by a sequined crown and she carried a long-stemmed white rose.

Ushers were Danny Ellis and Danny Parham, both of Bessemer City.

Members of the two families and friends attended the ceremony. The altar of the church was banked by palms and baskets of white glads, interspersed by cathedral candles in wrought-iron candelabra.

The bride's mother wore a beige taffeta suit overlaid with lace. She wore black accessories and a carnation shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose a red wool suit with black accessories and a carnation shoulder corsage.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs.

C. R. Oliver wore a gray wool suit with matching hat and accessories.

Miss Doris Sisk kept the guest register in the vestibule of the church.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oliver of Kings Mountain, the bride is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School. She is employed in the Quality Control Department of Park Yarn Mills.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of Bessemer City. A graduate of Bessemer City High School, he is employed by Central Yarn and Dye Company of Gastonia.

The newlyweds have returned from a short wedding trip and are occupying a new mobile home on East Gold street.

KIWANIS PROGRAM

Mrs. J. N. McClure and Mrs. Ben T. Goforth, who direct the Kings Mountain high school Chorus, will lead a program of informal music to feature Thursday's Kiwanis club meeting at 6:45 p.m. at the Woman's club. Kiwanians will participate in the "fun program", according to H. D. (Snooks) McDaniel.
