

Even the ash tray rides smoother in Chevrolets

When you're down at your dealer's trying out a new Chevrolet, be sure you pull out the ash tray. Notice how nice and easy it glides, never hanging up or even scraping. The reason is, it rides on ball bearings. Four shiny little ball bearings. (Take the tray all the way out and you'll see them.) You say you don't even smoke? Then look at it this way. That ash tray is a symbol of the way we make cars: Paying extra attention to the little things as well as the big ones, as a way of making extra sure your '67 Chevrolet gives you that sure feeling

Maylo Church Was Setting On Saturday For Wilson-Allen Double-Ring Rites

Maylo Methodist church of Gastonia provided the setting Saturday for a 5:30 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Susan Elizabeth Wilson of Gastonia and Second Lt. Charles Oren Allen of Kings Mountain in marriage.

The Rev. Ralph Reid officiated, using the double-ring service. Mrs. Royce Rhea was vocalist for the program of nuptial music and Mrs. Robert Hicks was at the organ. Mrs. Rhea sang "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" and "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony.

The altar of the church was arranged with spiral tapers in brass candelabrum, white flowers and palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza and imported peau d'ange lace over faille taffeta. The empire bodice was styled with a bateau neckline, and a plastron of lace traced with pearls accented the waistline and extended in garlands down the front panel of the skirt. The A-line skirt, finished at the hemline with a band of scalloped lace, had a detachable Watteau train caught at a bow at the back and spread to Chapel length. Her formal length mantilla veil of triple layers of English tulle was appliqued with garlands of Alencon lace motifs in rose design. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. L. C. Lathan of Gastonia attended her sister as matron of honor. Her formal-length gown of ice pink crepe was designed along empire lines with wine velvet bodice featuring elbow sleeves. She wore a matching velvet headpiece dropped with bouffant veil and carried a cascade of mixed pink flowers.

Participating in the wedding as honorary attendants were Miss Emily Butler, Mrs. Neil Jenkins, Miss Joan Holder, Miss Mary Reed, all of Gastonia, and Miss Alice Holeman and Miss Jane Miller, both of West Jefferson. They wore street-length pastel dresses and carried a single long-stemmed pink carnation.

The bride's mother was gowned in rose peau de soie with matching hat and a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose mauve pink silk shantung with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father. The list of ushers included L. C. Lathan of Gastonia, brother-in-law of the bride; Arthur Allen, Jr. of Kings Mountain, brother of the bridegroom; Royce Rhea of Whiteville; and Barry Jenkins of Gastonia.

Miss Elaine Messer kept a guest register.

For a trip to Sea Island, Ga., the new Mrs. Allen chose a suit of tangerine wool with mink hat and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Seth Wilson of Gastonia, the bride is a graduate of Holbrook high school of Lowell and graduated cum laude from Brevard college. She is a junior student at Appalachian State Teacher's college, Boone.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Sr. of Kings Mountain, is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and North Carolina State University. He is the U.S. Army stationed at Fort Bragg.

Fayetteville will be home for the newlyweds.
