Carolina Throwing Firm Expanding

New Addition To Be Operating By April 1

By MARTIN HARMON

Carolina Throwing Company hopes to have a million-dollar plus addition in operation by April 1, W. K. Mauney, Jr., an official of the firm, said Wednesday. Currently underway is construction of an addition with more than 16,000 square feet, estimated to cost $80,000. It will be equipped with most modern air-conditioning, costing about $200,000, and designed to improve the quality of the yarns the company stretches.

Mr. Mauney said the added equipment will approximate a million dollars and will enable the company to increase production from 50,000 to 70,000 pounds per week.

He estimated an additional 15 to 18 employees will be required.

Carolina Throwing Company has been expanded several times since it was founded. The current one is among the most major expansions.

The building is being constructed by Mauney Hosiery Company and will be leased by the throwing firm.

The county's non-tax revenues are few.

In his home county of Rowan, the permanent system is not employed, and the filing deadline would have passed before he could change his party identity.

Postmaster Charles L. Alexander said the volume of mail indicates this year's mailing will set a Christmas season record. Mr. Alexander noted that on a normal day the postoffice registers about 3,000 pieces of outgoing letter mail.

"We appreciate the cooperation of patrons in labeling local and out-of-town greeting cards and mailing early in the day," said the postmaster. He said this policy helps eliminate or better control last minute rush periods.

St. Matthew's Christmas Story

But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying Joseph, thou son of David fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins.

Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Saying, where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all (Continued On Page Six)
