Local Clubwomen Give Cookie Recipes, Party Pick-Ups, Oatmeal Bar Favorite

Several weeks ago the Herald published a group of recipes submitted by home economic teachers. At a recent meeting of the Junior Woman's club members exchanged cookie recipes and several of the recipes are reprinted for our readers. Miss Mary Alice McDaniel's recipe for Russian teacakes, sometimes called Mexican Wedding Cookies, follows: 1 cup margarine or butter 1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar 1 teaspoon vanilla 2 1/4 cups flour 1/4 teaspoon salt 3/4 cup finely chopped pecans Mix butter, sugar and vanilla thoroughly. Measure flour by dipping method or by sifting. Stir flour and salt together. Blend in nuts. Chill dough. Heat oven to 400 degrees. Roll dough in 1 inch balls. Place on ungreased baking sheet. (Cookies do not spread too much). Bake 10 to 12 minutes or until set but not brown. While still hot or warm, roll in confectioners' sugar. Cool. Roll in sugar again. Makes four dozen one inch cookies.

Mrs. Cal Fingers' recipe forickerdoodle Cookies follows: 1 cup shortening 2 3/4 cup flour, plain 1 teaspoon soda 1 1/2 cup sugar 2 teaspoons cream of tartar 1/2 teaspoon salt Mix together the first three ingredients. Sift and stir in flour, cream of tartar, soda and salt, chill dough. Roll into ball the size of small walnuts. Roll in mixture of two tablespoons sugar and two teaspoons cinnamon. Place about two inches apart on ungreased baking sheet. Bake until lightly browned, but still soft. (They puff up at first and then flatten out.) Bake at 400 degrees for 8-10 minutes.

Stewarts Announce Arrival Of A Son

S/Sgt. and Mrs. Herman O. Stewart announce the arrival of a son, Robert Brent, in Tokyo, Japan. Kings Mountain grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George T. Stewart of the Dixon community. S/Sgt. Stewart and his family will arrive home in early March for a leave before reporting for assignment in Washington, D. C. The Kings Mountain serviceman has been stationed in Japan the past four years.

A high school sophomore, Jane Yates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Yates, was recently the Kings Mountain young woman tapped Teenager of the Year by the Kings Mountain Optimist club. The award to the young man named Top Teen went to Tim Webster, high school junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. James Webster. Active in the Senior Girl Scout Troop here, Miss Yates will soon earn her God and Community Award. She is active in numerous school clubs and organizations, is active in St. Matthew's Lutheran church and was state Easter Seal Child in 1961. She hopes to pursue a career in speech therapy or psychology.

SCHOLARSHIP NOMINEE

Donna Ann Crawford, high school senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Crawford, is among three nominees from Cleveland County for a Katharine Smith Reynolds Scholarship to the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Alumnae committees interviewed county winners Friday. Other nominees, among 1256 nominees for scholarships to be awarded to 12 freshmen in the class of 1968-69, are Karen Ann Edwards, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Byard Edwards, of Shelby, and Leslie Dianne Borders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Borders of Boiling Springs.

Serving on the committee for Cleveland County are Mrs. H. C. Thompson of Shelby, chairman; Mrs. Jack R. Dover of Lattimore and Mrs. W. S. Fulton, Jr., of Kings Mountain. The three women are UNC-G alumnae.

David Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Alexander, celebrated his sixth birthday January 8th.

A birthday party was held at First Baptist Kindergarten and party refreshments were served to the students.

A family party was held on Sunday at the Alexander home and a decorated birthday cake was cut and served.

Young Alexander is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Moore of route two. His paternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Alexander.

Nancy Elizabeth Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William (Bill) Reynolds, was three years old Monday, January 15th.

A family party was held at the Reynolds home.

Young Miss Reynolds is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Couch and Mrs. W. H. Reynolds, all of Kings Mountain. Her great-grandmothers are Mrs. Mollie Fowler of Ravenwood, West Virginia and Mrs. R. B. Sistare of Rock Hill, S. C.

P-TA BENEFIT SET

East School P-TA will sponsor a spaghetti supper for benefit of 1968 P-TA projects at the school cafeteria Friday, January 26th. Supper will be served from 5:30 until 7:30 p.m.

The benefit was first scheduled for this Friday but was postponed because of bad weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Austin, chairman of the projects committee, said parents who would like to volunteer staple food items for the project should take the items to the school cafeteria. The Austins said catsup, onions, spaghetti, cabbage, pickles, mayonnaise, butter, coffee, evaporated milk, sugar, brown-and-serve rolls and homemade cakes are being donated. The cakes should not be delivered until the morning of the benefit, said the Austins.

Mrs. Charles Mauney, publicity chairman, said plates would be available for children and adults.

IT'S A GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. James Stoll announce the birth of their first daughter, Melissa Jo, Saturday, January 13th, Kings Mountain hospital. Other members of the Stoll family are Melissa's four brothers.

Cpl. and Mrs. Jerry G. Gantt announce the arrival of a daughter, Barbara Ann, January 11th, Marine Base Hospital, Cherry Point.

The baby weighed eight pounds, one ounce, on arrival. She is granddaughter of Mrs. Ruth Bridges and the late Elzie Bridges of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Gantt of Cherryville.

Barbara Ann's mother is the former Carol Bridges.

Rev. and Mrs. James M. Wilder are at Princeton University this week attending a seminar for ministers. Rev. Mr. Wilder is pastor of Kings Mountain Baptist church.

The Wilders are expected home from New Jersey on Saturday.
