COMINGS AND GOINGS

Dr. Bob Patterson has arrived from Texas for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Patterson, coming especially for the 20th year reunion of his graduating class, the class of 1948, at Kings Mountain high school.

A rehearsal dinner on Friday evening will honor the bride-elect and bridegroom-to-be. Mrs. Ruth Hawkins Lynn, mother of the bride-elect, will be hostess to members of the wedding party.

Parents of the bridegroom-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nathan Sykes, Sr., of Smithfield, will entertain at a brunch honoring Miss Lynn and their son on their wedding day Saturday. The brunch will be held at 11 a.m. at Holiday Inn, Gastonia.

Original Recipes For Fried Chicken Win Top Prizes In National Contest

Southern fried ain't the only way to do a Southern chicken. Proving the point, a North Carolina IBM engineer and a Whiteville girl have won top prizes in the National Chicken Cooking $^{1/2}$ cup soy sauce Contest with original recipes.

Agriculture Commissioner James A. Graham reports that Rebecca Bowen, 15, of Whiteville, 1 clove garlic, minced well and Ronald Rader, a Raleigh en-gineer with IBM, have achieved 4 teaspoon black pepper off. Rader and Miss Bowen earned entry to the national contest by winning in North Carolina's tional event. Eight prizes were awarded in each division. The prize-winning recipes fol-
