MRS. JAMES RUFUS OWENS
(Mary Jane Matthews)

MATTHEWS - OWENS WEDDING SATURDAY

Bethlehem Baptist Church was the scene Saturday, August 17, for the wedding of Miss Mary Jane Matthews and James Rufus Owens, both of Kings Mountain.

The 4 o'clock vows were heard by the Rev. Thomas Richie, pastor of Boyce Memorial ARP Church, in a setting of palms and white gladioli. An open Bible was marked with a rose in the center.

Mrs. Jack Lail, organist, and Miss Nancy Reynolds, soloist, rendered a program of wedding music.

The bride and bridegroom entered the sanctuary together, the bride wearing a street-length dress of white whipped creme with a lace cage. The bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and scalloped sleeves, the scallops repeated in her shoulder length veil which was also enhanced by yellow rosebuds. She carried a bouquet of pale yellow roses.

Miss Marie Limestone of Charlotte attended the bride as matron of honor and she wore a yellow street-length dress and carried a bouquet of pale yellow roses.

The bride's father, Broadus H. Matthews, attended the groom as best man and groomsmen were Hubert McGinnis, Jr., and Pat Murphy, both of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Matthews chose a pink costume with pink accessories for her daughter's wedding while Mrs. Lewis Owens, the groom's mother, wore a beige and white costume with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church with Mrs. Carl McGinnis and Mrs. Hubert McGinnis, Sr. assisting in details of entertaining. A yellow and white color theme was continued in decorations and refreshments at the reception where the wedding cake was cut and served with punch.

The bride was graduated from Kings Mountain High School and Western Carolina College. She will teach in Dallas.

Son of Mrs. Lewis Owens and the late Mr. Owens, the groom is a graduate of Appalachian State University and will teach in the Kings Mountain school system this fall.

Following a wedding trip to Windy Hill Beach, S. C., the couple will reside in Dallas.

MRS. STEEVN RAY BAKER
(Donna Joan King)

KING - BAKER WEDDING IS EVENT OF SUNDAY

A 2 p.m. exchange of vows Sunday in First Baptist Church of Kings Mountain united Miss Donna Joan King and Steven Ray Baker in marriage.

Vows for the double-ring ceremony were heard by the Rev. Robert C. Mann, minister of the church, and Rev. Morris Baker of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Boone. Rev. Baker is the grandfather of the bridegroom.

Mrs. F. R. McCurdy was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocalist for the ceremony was Mrs. Troy Summey of Charlotte. Mrs. Summey sang "I Take Thee Dear" by Johnson-Carter, "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The altar of the church was decorated with a brass arch candelabra banked with mums and on either side a brass tree candelabra. A Grecian Urn filled with French bells and white gardenias centered the altar. Floor baskets of white glads and chrysanthemums were on either side. The altar rails were banked with Oregon ferns.

Willis F. King escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a formal floor length gown created by Georgia Spans out of white silk peau de soie and candlelight lace in an A-line Empire Silhouette.

A heavy relief pattern of re-embroidered French Alencon lace scalloped the neckline and hemline, rising to a cathedral point on the front skirt. Lace rose appliques encrusted with seed pearls and Belgian cut crystals were scattered over the body of the dress and chapel length detachable train. For her headpiece, the bride chose a Gothic crown of Alencon lace studded with pearls and crystals. The tower top was nestled against her high braided coiffure while the lower section encircled the base of her braids.

An Obi veil closed the back opening and floated over the chapel length mantle veil of imported candlelight illusion. The bride carried a cascade of gardenias and rose buds caught with satin streamers tied with love knots of miniature glameillas.

Mrs. Bill Wise attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Connie Dixon, Miss Judy Morris, Mrs. Eddie Robbs and Miss Lana Rogers of Gastonia.

All the attendants wore floor length gowns of hot pink crepe with Empire waistlines and shoulder drape back interest. Their matching funnel hats were of shirred maline with streamers and they carried cascades of pink pompons accented with red rose buds.

Miss Mimi Mercier, sister of the groom, was flower girl and Bobby Dean Mills, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Bill Bondurant, Jr. of Lincolnton was his cousin's Best Man. The list of ushers included Charlie Baker, brother of the groom; Billy King, brother of the bride; Pete Putnam and George Plonk, all of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Richard Brame of Lincolnton, presided at the guest register.

The bride's mother was gowned in a two-piece suit of pink silk with matching accessories and wore a white orchid. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Mills of Morganton, chose a lime green crepe dress and lime accessories and wore a corsage of white rosebuds.

The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua crepe dress with lace overlay and wore a white orchid corsage. His grandmother wore a light blue dress and a corsage of white rosebuds.

Miss Patterson Announces Plans For Aug. 31 Rites

Miss Paulette Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Patterson, today announces plans for her marriage to Leon D. Tongret of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tongret, also of New York.

The wedding will be an event of Saturday, August 31, in Central Methodist Church with the Rev. E. B. Alderman officiating at the 7 p.m. ceremony. The couple will pledge vows of the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. J. N. McClure, organist, will render a program of wedding music and the Rev. Richard Plyler will be soloist.

Lloyd F. Patterson will give his daughter in marriage and she will be attended by Miss Deborah Black of Chapel Hill as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Glenn Hicks and Miss Mary Ann Houser of Kings Mountain, Miss Delores Tongret of New York and Miss Nancy McLaurin of New Orleans. Regina Patterson, niece of the bride, will be a junior bridesmaid.

Charles Tongret will attend his son as best man while three of the bridegroom's brothers will serve as groomsmen: Allen, Sidney and Rolland Tongret. Gene Patterson, brother of the bride, will also be a groomsmen.

Mrs. Donald Patterson, sister-in-law of the bride-elect, will keep the register.

The bride-elect's parents will host a rehearsal party to be given on Friday, August 30, at 8 p.m.

Cake - Cutting

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Hambright honored their daughter, Miss Margaret Hambright, bride of Saturday, and her bridegroom, Jasper Tony Black, at a cake-cutting Friday night following their wedding rehearsal in Macedonia Baptist Church.

Held in the church parlor, refreshments were served from a table covered with green cloth and overlaid with white tulle. Yellow bows caught the middle and end corners of the cloth to complete a color scheme of yellow, white and green. Three-branched silver candelabra flanked a central candelabrum arranged with yellow and white roses and ivy.

A three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom was placed at one end of the table and a punch service at the opposite end. Green and yellow heart-shaped sandwiches, green and yellow mints and nuts were served with the punch.
