Men's Shirts Taking On New Looks

man trying printed scarves borrowed from the Apaches and gurus shirts direct from the Indian sub-continent.

Something blue could mean a blue oxford shirt that can be livened up by the addition of a boldly patterned scarf loosely knotted at the neck. Even without a scarf, the new blue shirts are bright or deep-toned and no longer washed out looking.

One thing that hasn't changed for fall shirts, however, is the demand that the fabrics be easy-care and easy-wear.

Whether the shirt choice is from the old, new, borrowed or blue category, the fabric that keeps its shape and that launders with a minimum of bother will be the popular choice.

For an easy-wear, easy-care shirt can maintain its fashion image for all seasons and all occasions, Mrs. Miller observes.

By treating an estimated 787,000 patients during 1968, Veterans Administration cared for 175,000 more than was cared for with the same number of beds in 1958.

The Veterans Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q I was drafted and have served two years. Now I am about to be released from active duty but must serve in the Reserves. May I keep my Service-men's Group Life Insurance while in the Reserves or must I convert to a private plan?

A You must convert your SGLI policy to a private plan within 120 days after release from active duty if you want to keep this insurance protection. For further information, contact your nearest VA office when you get back home or write to the Office of Servicemen's Group Life Insurance, 212 Washington Street, Newark, N. J. 07102.

Q I am interested in buying a farm with a GI loan. I am told I can do this even though the selling price is more than the VA appraisal.

A Unfortunately, you have been informed incorrectly. Farm real estate (nonresidence) cannot exceed VA's appraised value. PL 90-301, enacted last May 7, permits veterans to pay more than the VA appraised price for homes not farms. The maximum guarantee for the type of farm loan you mention is still 50 per cent of the loan amount or $4,000, whichever is less. Again, PL 90-301, which raised the VA maximum guaranty on homes from $7,500 to $12,500 did not change the farm guaranty.
