

Richard P. Hord Finishes Training

(M0328) GREAT LAKES, ILL. (FHTNC) Aug. 26—Seaman Apprentice Richard P. Hord, USN, 21, son of Mrs. Carrie E. Hord of 105 Parker St., Kings Mountain, N. C., has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

Erskine Alumni Kick-off Living Endowment Drive

GASTONIA, N. C.—The Gastonia and Kings Mountain Chapters of the Erskine College Alumni Association will kick-off their solicitation for the 1968-69 Erskine Living Endowment Campaign Tuesday, September 17, at 7 p.m. with a joint meeting of campaign chairmen and workers in the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Chester Street in Gastonia.

Robert Falls of Route 4, Gastonia, chairman of the Gastonia Chapter, and Mrs. Tom Richie, 901 Sherwood Lane, Kings Mountain, chairman of the Kings Mountain Chapter, announced the meeting.

Dr. Joseph Wightman, president of Erskine College, and Charles B. Todd, of 817 South York St., Gastonia, national co-chairman of the Living Endowment ment Campaign, will speak at the dinner meeting. John M. Hunter of Aiken, S. C., is the other national co-chairman of the campaign.

Mr. Todd will explain a $10,000 challenge gift offered the Living Endowment by 11 alumni and non-alumni friends of the college. The gift is based on the number of alumni who support the campaign by Thanksgiving, the number who increase the size of their gift from the previous year, and the towns and chapters which attain 95 per cent participation by Thanksgiving.

The Erskine Living Endowment, which has earned the college five national awards in alumni-giving, last year received record pledges of more than $156,000. Over the past decade contributions to the Living Endowment and to the 125th Anniversary Fund conducted by the Living Endowment organization have totaled more than $2 million.

The Gastonia Chapter includes Belmont, Bessemer City, Cramerton, Gastonia, Lincolnton, Dallas, Mount Holly, and McAdenville. Town chairmen within the chapter include Haskell Spencer of Bessemer City, Bessemer City-Cherryville chairman; W. S. Haynie of Cramerton, Cramerton chairman; Mr. Falls, Gastonia; chairman; Miss Eva James of Lincolnton, Lincolnton-Dallas chairman; and Howard Spencer of McAdenville, Mount Holly-McAdenville chairman.

Group leaders for Gastonia include Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Rt. 1; Mrs. Lloyd D. Stewart, 625 Bridle Path Trail; Hunter McElroy, 607 E. Harvie Avenue; Mrs. W. K. Pursley, 1025 Temple Ct.; and Mrs. William R. Culp, 802 Townsend Avenue.

The Kings Mountain Chapter includes Kings Mountain and Shelby. Mrs. Richie is also town chairman for Kings Mountain, while Mrs. Fred L. Baird, Fairway Drive in Shelby, is town chairman for Shelby. Campaign workers for Kings Mountain will include Miss Ava Ware, 206 W. Gold Street; the Rev. Tommy Richie, 994 Sherwood Lane; Mrs. Ernest W. Neal, 207 W. Mountain St.; Norman F. McGill, Jr., 606 W. Mountain Street; Mrs. John L. McGill, 208 W. Gold Street; W. S. Fulton, Jr., 613 E. Ridge Street; and Mrs. W. K. Crook, 206 West Mountain Street.

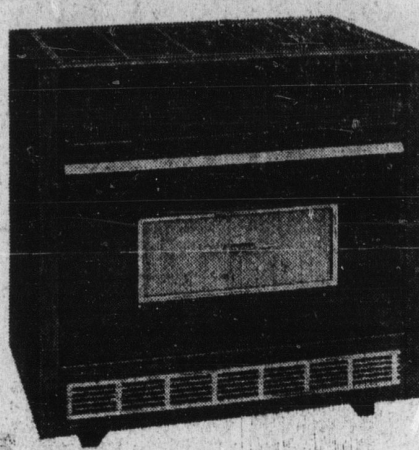

APPOINTED — Marcia Grant of Raleigh has been appointed TAP (Teen-Age Program) chairman of the National Foundation - March of Dimes for North Carolina. Basil O'Connor, president of the voluntary health organization, has announced from the Foundation office in New York. The new TAP chairman is 19 years old and a rising junior at East Carolina University in Greenville. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Marse Grant of Raleigh. Her father was March of Dimes state chairman for three years, 1964-67.

LARGEST BUILDING
The Pentagon, the world's largest office building with some 17½ miles of corridors which ring to the footsteps of some 30,000 people each day, is being equipped with an Electronic Switching System befitting its gargantuan proportions. When finished, the new ESS office will be the world's largest, capable of handling well over 100,000 calls per hour, said R. B. Moore, local telephone manager.
