

Auxiliary To Hear State President

Mrs. Tim Craig of Charlotte, president of the North Carolina Department, American Legion Auxiliary, will be honored guest at the November 7th meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Post 155.

Mrs. J. E. Mauney will be hostess to members and guests at her home on Church street.

Mrs. John Moss, auxiliary president, issued an invitation to all members to attend.

The local Post Auxiliary will join with the Shelby Post Auxiliary in sponsoring a luncheon honoring Gold Star Mothers of the area on November 10th at the Shelby American Legion Building. Luncheon reservations should be made by Nov. 1st with Mrs. Moss. Plates are $2.

The Charlotte Opera Association will present Puccini's "Madame Butterfly", Monday evening, Nov. 11th, at 8:15 p.m. in Charlotte's Ovens Auditorium.

John Richards McCrae is the director of the opera which will feature Maria Ferriero of New York City in the title role. William Olvis, leading tenor of the Metropolitan Opera, will sing the role of Lt. B. F. Pinkerton.

A free youth matinee will be held on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 9th, at 2:30 p.m. in Ovens Auditorium. Doors will open at 1:30 p.m. Seats will be available on a first-come-first-served basis and the performance is open to school children and groups of junior and senior-high students in the Piedmont Area.

IT'S A BOY

Mr. and Mrs. Toney Wells announce the birth of a son, Bryant Toney Wells, Jr., who arrived October 18th, Gaston Memorial hospital, Gastonia. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ware, all of Kings Mountain. The newest addition is Grandchild No. 18 for Mr. and Mrs. Wells and Grandchild No. 10 for Mr. and Mrs. Ware.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Mrs. Ellen Petrosino spent the weekend in Winston Salem at the Children's Home, going especially for the homecoming football game between the Fighting Methodists of the Children's Home and The Vikings of Stokes high school.

Mrs. Petrosino visited her grandchildren, Mike, Pamela and Teresa Huffstickler. Mike is a member of the Fighting Methodist team.

Mrs. Clarence L. Jolly, Sr. spent the weekend in Charlotte with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jolly, Jr. and sons and Mr. and Mrs. John Caune and three children. C. L. Jolly, Jr. is son and Mrs. Caune is a daughter of Mrs. Jolly.

Leigh Ann Odell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Odell, celebrated her second birthday Saturday at a family party at her home.

Young Miss Odell is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Gordon, all of Kings Mountain. Great grandparents are Mrs. Lee Lavender and the late Mr. Lavender of Gaffney, S. C. and great-grandfather is J. D. Lavender of Gaffney.

The birthday cake was topped with a merry-go-round and was cut and served with other party refreshments.

Leigh Anne's mother is the former Becky Gordon.

JUNIOR CLUB TO MEET

Mrs. Bob Stringfellow will present a program featuring slides of Gaston Oral School for the Deaf at Monday's meeting of the Junior Woman's club at 7:30 p.m. at the Woman's club.

The club recently presented a $150 scholarship for a pre-school student to attend the school.

Mrs. Frank Hinson is program chairman. Hostesses will be Miss Jackie Blanton and Mrs. Dick McGinnis.

Mrs. Charles M. Fisher, Sr. of Miami, Fla. returned home Wednesday after spending the past week with her son, Charles M. Fisher, Jr. and family.

Mrs. W. W. Owen of Honolulu, Hawaii, left Wednesday after spending the past month in the Carolinas and Florida with relatives. She was a recent guest in the home of her brother, Charles M. Fisher, Jr. and his family.

(Continued On Page Two)

Bethware Sets Halloween Carnival Tonight

Spooks and goblins will dance and cavort about at a school Halloween carnival Thursday (tonight) at 7 p.m. at Bethware school gymnasium.

The carnival is under sponsorship of the Bethware school Parent-Teacher Association and will be held from 7 until 9 p.m. with Raymond Holmes as general chairman.

Prizes will go to the best costumed and entertainment will feature games and contests. Refreshments will be sold from concession stands in the gymnasium.

ADK Members Held Meeting

Mrs. Claire Leonhardt, Mrs. Gladys Bridges, and Mrs. Margie Treadway were co-hostesses for the October meeting of Sigma Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa which met at the home of Mrs. Leonhardt on Thursday, October 24.

Vice-president Mary Love Page presided over the business session, after which a program honoring the founders of Alpha Delta Kappa was presented by Helen Logan assisted by Betty Modlin, Earcie Cornwell, Martha Bridges, Ann Bryant, and Janet Falls.

During the social hour a dessert course was served by the hostesses.

Local members attending included Mrs. Martha Bridges, Mrs. Love Page, Mrs. Edith Bridges, Mrs. Ann Bryant, Miss Janet Falls, and Miss Helen Logan.

It's A Girl For Brooks Family

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brooks of 409 Waco road announce the birth of a daughter, Leslie Dawn, Monday, October 28th, Kings Mountain hospital.

The baby weighed seven pounds, three ounces on arrival.

MISS ANN PATTERSON (Bride-Elect of Steven James Goforth)

Miss Ann Patterson, Steve Goforth Plan Nuptials; Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Patterson announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to Steven James Goforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Goforth. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The bride-elect is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is now attending Western Carolina University at Cullowhee. The prospective bridegroom is also a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and is now attending Appalachian State University at Boone. Date for the wedding will be announced later.

Thursday, October 31, 1968

KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD

Section B

Fred Withers Speaker Monday To Central P-TA

Fred Withers, principal of Central Junior high school, will be guest speaker at Monday night's meeting of Central school P-TA in the school auditorium.

Mr. Withers will be assisted by various school department heads in giving a program, "Our School Program At Central."

Rev. Charles Easley, P-TA president, issued invitation to all parents to attend.

Careers Club Met Thursday

The Health Careers Club held its fall meeting in the cafeteria at the high school on Thursday night, October 28. President Steve Crosby presided and introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Mr. Grady Howard, Administrator of the Kings Mountain Hospital. Mr. Howard brought interesting and informative on Health Career opportunities in Cleveland County, discussing need and training required for the numerous health careers available in this area.

During the social hour, punch and cookies were served by Cathy Atkinson, Ann Baird, and Barbara Logan, hostesses for the evening.

Dixon 4-H'ers Held Halloween Party

Dixon Community 4-H'ers, sponsored by Dixon Presbyterian church, held a Halloween party Saturday night in the recreation building of First Presbyterian church.

Leaders present with the 35 young people were Mrs. Bud Greene, L. H. (Bud) Stewart, Mrs. Gene Hughes and Henry Dameron, Cleveland County Farm Agent and long active in 4-H activities in Cleveland County. Party refreshments were served.

Rescue Squad To Treat Area Children To Halloween Party As Annual Affair

Cleveland County Rescue Squad will treat children of the area to a free Halloween party at the squad building on East Parker street Thursday night from 6 until 9 p.m.

Children under 12 years of age are invited to participate in the fun games but must be accompanied by their parents or other adults. Treats and refreshments will be provided.

A spokesman for the squad said the Halloween party will be an annual event for children of the area.

Junior Club Wins Award

The Junior Woman's club won a blue ribbon award for its scrapbook and an honor club certificate at the District IV meeting of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs in Forest City Monday.

Compiling the scrapbook relating club activities for the year were Mrs. Bill Allen and Mrs. Jacob Dixon.

STYLED WITH ZIP—In the new mood of fashion for Fall '69 is the cotton corduroy peasant coat with the Slavic flavor, left above. Valor interprets the look in Cone's corduroy, cut on the bias and flavored in the Slavic manner with fur-like trim. At right, cotton corduroy in thick and thin wales shapes a smart ensemble. A turtle-neck sweater peeps out above the cardigan-styled coat, which features flap pockets on horizontal bands of suede. A matching slim skirt completes the three-piece ensemble by Baniff.

Social Calendar

Thursday:

6:00-9 p.m.—Halloween party at Cleveland County Rescue Squad building for children under 12. Treats and refreshments.

7 p.m.—Bethware school Halloween carnival in the school gymnasium under sponsorship of the Bethware school P-TA.

Friday:

12:00—Senior Citizens club luncheon meeting at the Woman's club.

Saturday:

7:30—Circle 1 of Dixon Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Marvin Caveny.

Monday:

3:30—Circle 5 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Grady McCarter, 503 East King street.

7:30—Junior Woman's club at the Woman's club. Hostesses: Miss Jackie Blanton and Mrs. Dick McGinnis.

7:30—Central school Parent-Teacher Association in the school auditorium.

7:30—Circle 1 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. D. H. Houser, 208 North Piedmont avenue.

7:30—Circle 2 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. O. P. Lewis, 309 West Mountain street.

7:30—Circle 3 of First Presbyterian church in the Ladies Bible Classroom, Mrs. J. D. Rhea, hostess.

7:30—Circle 4 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. George Moss, 100 S. Gaston street.

Wednesday:

10 a.m.—Circle 6 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Charles Blanton, 403 Phifer road.

3:30—Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter, DAR, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Mauney, West Mountain street. Program by Miss Fanny Carpenter.

CO-QUEENS—For the first time in Kings Mountain high school history, two beauties reigned as co-queens at homecoming festivities. Crowned Friday at the homecoming game in John Gamble Memorial Stadium were Brenda Leach, left, and Cathy Carroll. They are high school seniors. Other members of the homecoming court were Cathy Hardin, Gail Bennett and Sandy Leabetter. (Photo by Isaac Alexander)

Oak Grove Church Setting Saturday For Evans-Ballard Double-Ring Ceremony

Oak Grove Baptist church was setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Betty Joan Evans of Kings Mountain and Kenneth Davidson Ballard of Gastonia.

Vows of the double-ring ceremony were heard before the Rev. Russell Hinton. A program of traditional music was presented by Miss Evelyn Grigg, organist, and Bobby Webster, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk peau de soie that she designed and made. The bodice was styled with a bateau neckline traced with jeweled handclipped lace medallions. The dome skirt and cathedral train were also embroidered with jeweled lace medallions. Peau d'ange lace and lace motifs outlined with pearls banded her mantilla of English tulle. Her bouquet was a cascade of white orchids, roses, Hahns ivy and Baker fern.

The bride's two honor attendants were Mrs. Andrea Canipe and Miss Sandra Kelly, both of Shelby. David Lee Ballard was his brother's best man, Richard, Roy and Walter Ballard, brothers of the bridegroom, and David Evans, brother of the bride, were ushers. After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nelson Evans of Kings Mountain. She is employed by McLurd and Babington Insurance Agency in Gastonia. The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Joe C. Ballard of Gastonia and the late Mr. Ballard, graduated from Ashley high school and served in the Army. He is employed by Sunshine Uniform Service in Gastonia. When the newlyweds return from a trip to Kallinburg, Tennessee they will reside on Edgemont Avenue in Gastonia.

Air Force Chapel Was Setting Thursday For Wedding Of Miss Skinner, AIC Hord

The Chapel of Brooks Air Force Base, Texas, provided the setting Thursday at 6 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Kathie Gene Skinner and AIC Larry James Hord.

Both the bride and bridegroom are Aeromedical specialists in the United States Air Force and are stationed at Robins AFB, Ga. They had been attending the Aeromedical Specialist Course at the School of Aerospace Medicine, Brooks AFB.

The couple's wedding trip brought them to Kings Mountain for a visit with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ben Hord. Mr. and Mrs. Hord honored the newlyweds at a reception at their home here Sunday.

Chaplain Richard Sheppard officiated at the ceremony. Sgt. Anthony Raines of Long Beach, California gave the bride in marriage.

Miss Phyllis Moriarty of Cascade, Iowa, was the bride's maid of honor. Best man for the bride-groom was Charles C. Perna of Allentown, Pa.

Allen's Sets Holiday House November 7th

Allen's Flower Shop will hold its annual Holiday House Thursday, November 7th.

The Christmas-season opening will feature open house with assortment of holiday decorations on display.

The community is invited to visit from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Wells' Note 30th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wells, well-known Kings Mountain citizens, celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary October 22nd.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wells are Kings Mountain natives and long-time residents of the Dixon community. Mrs. Wells is the former Leona McDaniel.

Other members of the Wells family include a son, Carverth; his wife, Faye Jones Wells; and their three children, Scott, age nine, Robbie, age six, and Sandi, age two.

Pops Orchestra First Concert Of Series

Richard Hayman and the Manhattan Pops Orchestra will appear in concert on Saturday, Nov. 9th, at Gastonia's Hunter Huss Auditorium.

All members of the Gastonia Community Concerts Association are invited to attend the first concert of the season.

By popular demand, this season's program will be devoted to the waltzes of Strauss, Lehar, Kalman and Kreisler.

Pop virtuoso of the harmonica, Hayman has been guest conductor and arranger for the Boston Pops Orchestra for the past 10 years. His recorded arrangement of "Ruby" made every best-seller list and is still popular.

Woman's Clubbers Attend Meeting In Forest City

Six members of the Senior Woman's club attended the District Four meeting in Forest City Monday.

The delegation was headed by Mrs. E. W. Griffin, president. Others attending were Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch, Mrs. W. T. Weir, Mrs. Fred Pritchard and Mrs. Ben F. Beam. Mrs. Griffin gave the president's report during the roll call of club. Presenting the president's report for the Junior Woman's club was Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, representing their club president who was unable to attend.

Miss Willis To Meeting

Beverly Anne Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Willis, Jr., of Kings Mountain, a student at Western Carolina University, recently attended a pre-session conference held on the university campus.

The conference, now in its 34th year, brings together student leaders at the beginning of each academic year to discuss the various phases of university life — religious, social, academic, physical — and ways in which they might be improved.

Miss Willis, a senior majoring in elementary education, is presently serving as president of Women's House Government Association, the judicial body which enforces campus regulations affecting women students.

Senior Citizens Set Luncheon Meeting

Senior Citizens club members will gather for a covered dish luncheon Friday at 12 noon at the Woman's club.

It will be the regular meeting of the club. A spokesman for the Woman's club urges all members to attend.