North Carolina Native Says Gap Widening Between Rural-Urban U.S.

The gap between rural and urban America is growing wider, says a North Carolina native who is now vice president of the University of Missouri.

Speaking at the 1969 Agricultural Outlook Conference in Washington, D. C., Dr. C. Brice Ratchford said:

"Rural communities are lagging, and this shows up in every field where measurement is possible — education, health services, housing, protection and, yes, even recreation. A higher percent of the rural people live in poverty than in metropolitan areas."

"There probably has always been a lag; the disturbing point is the widening of the gap."

Rural institutions are under little pressure to catch up, said Dr. Ratchford, because the rural residents refuse to admit there is a gap.

"Most people in rural areas still firmly believe that the rural community is a better place in which to live, that it has better churches and schools, less crime and poverty, greater morality, more recreation, and more everything else that is good. Obviously, the facts do not substantiate this picture and the real danger of such a view is the legitimizing of the failure to bring about institutional change."

Dr. Ratchford pointed out that the same accelerating technology that is reshaping our farms and industries is having an equal impact on institutions and public services. Not many years ago, for instance, most health services were rendered by a general practitioner in his own office or

Math Errors Delay Returns

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Mathematical errors by North Carolina taxpayers have caused 800 income tax refunds to be delayed so far this year, J. E. Wall, IRS District Director for North Carolina said today.

The mathematical errors, Wall said, will result in some taxpayers receiving a smaller or larger refund while others will receive a bill for additional tax due.

Under the IRS Automatic Data Processing System, computers verify mathematical computations. When an error is detected IRS must make the necessary correction before a refund can be issued.

In the first 150,000 returns processed so far at the IRS Service Center in Chamblee, Georgia, many types of errors other than mathematical have been detected.

These include $28 who failed to sign their return. No tax return is accepted without the taxpayer's signature; two signatures are required if it is a joint return. Unsigned returns have to be sent back to taxpayers for signature before refunds can be processed.

Processing of 705 other returns were delayed because required W-2 Forms were missing.

Wall advises taxpayers to include a W-2 Form from each employer for whom they worked. Employees who lose their W-2 Forms should get a duplicate copy from their employer.

Wall asked taxpayers to use the Form 1040 pre-addressed name label that came with their return. The label contains information vital to the processing of the return including name, address, and Social Security number.

Taxpayers who detect an error on the label should correct it on the label itself. Use of the label allows IRS to process the return more speedily than those without name labels.

The IRS Service Center in Chamblee up to last week had processed 150,842 returns of North Carolina taxpayers due refunds totaling $5,294,355.89.
