

NEW LOOK IN HAIR FASHIONS — Models in the recent Hair Design Show sponsored by the Kings Mountain high school Cosmetology Department display the winning hairstyles. From left, June Moore, Jeannie Allison and Mrs. Fred Dixon. Mrs. Moore's hairstyle created by Joy Gaddy, senior student, took the first place trophy in the show. Soft waves and curl in a new, short look for spring and summer was emphasized. (Isaac Alexander Photos)

New Short Look In Hair Fashions

Soft waves and curl, the new tinted medium blonde with gold highlights with a flattering short cut and soft curl. Model in styles shown at a recent show presented by 15 advanced students in the Kings Mountain high school Cosmetology Department. Second place winner in the show was the only male student in Mrs. Lillian Whitworth's class, Jimmy Earney, senior student, used flowers to enhance a short style on light brown hair. His show with an original hairstyle. The hair had been bleached and

TOP WINNER IN HAIR STYLING SHOW — Joy Gaddy, at right, holds the first place trophy she won as top hairstylist in the hairstyling show staged recently by cosmetology students in Kings Mountain. Kings Mountain high school Principal Jake Atkinson presents the trophy to Miss Gaddy, a senior student, as June Moore, model for Miss Gaddy, looks on. (Photo by Isaac Alexander)

Area Students Win DAR History Awards

Carrol Scott Ledford, Sharon Evon Sanders and Vickie Elizabeth Cronan are winners of the DAR history medals in the elementary schools. The history essay contest is sponsored annually by Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Students in the fifth, sixth, and seventh grades of the district system were invited to submit essays on the subject, "Heroines Of American Revolution." Young Ledford is a North school fifth grader, Miss Sanders is a sixth grader from Bethware, and Miss Cronan is a seventh grader at Central Junior high school. Medals will be presented to the winners at school commencement exercises.

Third place winner was Rita Crawford, senior student. Auburn curls were swept to fullness in the back with more soft curls around the face and ears. Model for Miss Crawford was Mrs. Fred Dixon. The three student winners will represent the school in state competition in Charlotte in May. Judges for the show were Mrs. Dorothy Smith, instructor of public school cosmetology at Stanley high school, and Mrs. Evelyn Woods of Woodlawn Beauty Salon in Shelby.

MISS TERESA OLEDIA BELL (Bride-Elect of John Wayne Scism)

Home Arts Club Hears Toole At Tuesday Meeting

James Toole, deputy director of Cleveland County Community Action, was guest speaker at Tuesday night's meeting of the Home Arts club at the home of Mrs. J. Wilson Crawford. Mrs. Harold Crawford, hostess for the meeting, served a salad and sweet course at the beginning of the meeting. Mr. Toole, citing the work of the agency, said its major job is its public awareness program, a need to help any and all who is honestly willing to help himself. Mrs. C. S. Plonk, Jr. introduced Mr. Toole. Mrs. L. E. Hinnant, president of the club, presided.

Junior Club Met Monday

R. Harding Steele, stock broker with Courts & Company of Charlotte, gave the program at Monday's meeting of the Junior Woman's club. Mr. Steele talked on stocks and securities on a program arranged by Mrs. Frank Hinson. Mrs. John Howze and Mrs. Richard Greene were hostesses for the meeting. A dessert course was served at the beginning of the meeting.

Couple Announcing Plans For Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas A. Bell of Kings Mountain, announce the engagement of their daughter, Teresa Oledia, to John Wayne Scism, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Scism of Shelby. The wedding will be an event of June 8th in Westover Baptist church of Kings Mountain.

Society News

ABOUT THIS N' THAT

Senior Citizens club members will gather for their regular luncheon meeting Friday at noon at the Woman's club. A committee from the Woman's club is in charge of the program and refreshments. Kings Mountain Garden club members will visit the high school greenhouses for their program Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. Program chairmen for the meeting are Mrs. Vernon P. Crosby and Mrs. W. L. Mauney.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Mrs. Ellen Petrosino spent the weekend in Greensboro with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Whittimore. Mrs. Don Blackwell and sons, David and Mark, spent the weekend in Greensboro with friends. Mrs. Ruth Wright Patterson, daughter of Mrs. Marie Wright of Kings Mountain, was graduated Monday night from Gaston Memorial Hospital School of Practical Nurses in Gastonia. Going to Gastonia for the graduation exercises were her mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, all of Kings Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Biddix of Charlotte.

Donna Rene Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Parrish, celebrated her third birthday Thursday, February 27th. A small family party was held at the Parrish home and Donna's pink decorated cake was cut and served with party refreshments. Donna is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Parrish, all of Kings Mountain.

IT'S A GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allen Evans announce the birth of a daughter, Haydon Annette, March 3, Cleveland Memorial hospital. The child weighed seven pounds, six ounces. Mrs. Evans is the former Carolyn Owens, daughter of Charles Owens of Kings Mountain and the late Mrs. Owens.

Thursday, March 6, 1969

Mrs. Ware Gives Program At Book Club

"Going Back To College" from a Grandmother's viewpoint was topic of the program at Thursday's Book club meeting at the home of Mrs. Edith Goforth. Mrs. Martha Herndon Ware, grandmother of 10, is going back to school and is a student at Gaston college. Mrs. Ware, wife of Howard Ware, in humorous and serious vein, described how a busy housewife and mother is able to return to books. Mrs. Ware is also a dean's list student. Miss Maude Gardner was present as a visitor. Mrs. J. O. Plonk presided. Mrs. Goforth served a salad and dessert.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

- Thursday: 7:30—American Legion Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Paul Mauney. Speaker: James Toole, deputy director, Cleveland County Community Action.
Friday: 12:00—Senior Citizens club luncheon meeting at the Woman's club.
Saturday: 9:00-12 p.m.—American Legion dance for members and guests at the American Legion Hall. Music by the "New Sounds."
Monday: 7:30—Circle 4 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Margaret Ward, 608 West Mountain street.
3:30—Kings Mountain Garden club at the Kings Mountain high school greenhouse. Mrs. Vernon Crosby and Mrs. W. L. Mauney, program chairmen.

Hamel Relatives Here For Funeral

Mrs. Charles Harrill of Clearwater, Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Harmon of Winnsboro, S. C. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Beam, coming especially to attend the funeral of their uncle, B. H. Hamell, of Lincolnton. Mrs. Harrill is daughter and Mr. Harmon is son of Mr. and Mrs. Beam.

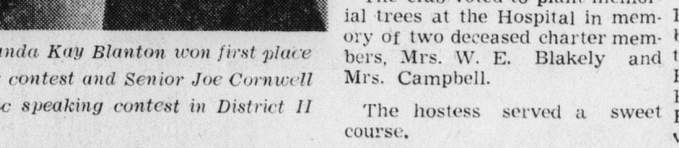

PERSONALS

Mrs. R. H. Leagon of South Hill, Va. is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ben F. Beam and family. Mrs. Leagon came especially to attend the funeral of her brother, B. H. Hamell, of Lincolnton.

KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. SECTION B

Garden Club To Plant Trees At KM Hospital

The Town and Country Garden Club met Thursday evening in the Director's Room of First Union National Bank, with Mrs. Don Blanton as Hostess. Colorful flower arrangements decorated the room. The meeting was opened with a moment of silent prayer and a loving tribute to Mrs. Herman Campbell, Charter member of the club. Mrs. George Moss reported that the club was an Honor Club for the past year. A nominating committee was appointed at this meeting. The club voted to plant memorial trees at the Hospital in memory of two deceased charter members, Mrs. W. E. Blakely and Mrs. Campbell. The hostess served a sweet course.

WIN CONTESTS — Junior Wanda Kay Blanton won first place in the Girl Student of the Year contest and Senior Joe Cornwell won second place in the public speaking contest in District II DECA competition recently.

Students Win DECA Contests In District

Two Kings Mountain high school students won honors at the District II DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) Contest, held February 26 at Hunter Huss high school in Gastonia. Junior Wanda Kay Blanton was awarded first place in the Girl Student-of-the-Year competition and will represent the district at the State contest in Raleigh later this month. Joe Cornwell, senior, was second place winner in the Public Speaking contest and will also attend the statewide conference. Other Kings Mountain DECA students going to Raleigh are Mike Bennett, Jimmy Mauney, Paul Thombs, and Elaine Wells.

East Side WMS Is Sponsoring Week Of Prayer

The Women's Missionary Society of East Side Baptist church is sponsoring Week of Prayer for Home Missions this week. The week's program will be climaxed with a play, "Annie Armstrong, Daughter of Destiny," Sunday night. Cathy Carroll will portray Annie Armstrong. GA's of the church had charge of the program on Monday night. RA's will have charge of the service on Friday night. Special offerings during the month go to the Annie Armstrong Home Mission Fund.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bolt, 208 Margaret street, announce the birth of a son, Wednesday, February 26, Kings Mountain hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee Short, 21 Elm street, announce the birth of a son, Wednesday, February 26, Kings Mountain hospital. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cope, 108 Poplar street, Clover, S. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Thursday, February 27, Kings Mountain hospital.

Toole To Speak To Auxiliary Thursday Night

James Toole, deputy director of Cleveland County Community Action, will be guest speaker at Thursday night's meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary. Members will meet at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Paul Mauney on Margrace road. Mrs. John H. Moss, club president, will preside.

Antiques Fair In Charlotte This Weekend

The Original National Antiques Fair will again be back in Charlotte's Park Center Auditorium on King Street March 5-6-7. This Fair, unlike the others in the area, is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution, and attend Crossnore School. Exhibitors will come from New Hampshire to Miami, and will bring a wide range of fine antiques including Period Furniture, Early American and Victorian Furniture. A new Exhibitor, Mr. Edward Smith of Flourtown, Pa., will show a fine chippendale high chest, an early butternut Antiques from Winston Salem will show a fine 18th Century chippendale desk with shell carving, also a small tiger stripe highboy, which is very rare. Mrs. Laura Murray of Enosburg Fall, Vt. and Mrs. Anna Dybeck of Reeds Ferry, New Hampshire will feature fine glass such as Fry, Durand, Steuben, Signed Kaufmann, Peach Blow and Burmese. A number of exhibitors will feature fine heirloom jewelry, as Lloyd Martin of Wooster, Ohio, Miles Paine of Philadelphia, Ben Kay of Philadelphia and others. George Abercrombie of Brevard will feature a large collection of flat silver; M. C. Dean of Troutville, Va., will show a number of silver serving pieces, as well as take orders for resilvering. There will be a greater display of old coins than usual, from four different states. Primitives will again be in evidence, and a display of fine linens. Everything in this Fair will be for sale and at reasonable prices. Hours are from 11 a.m. daily Wednesday through Friday, March 5-6-7. Mrs. Ira Black, chairman of this project for the Chapter, and her members have discount tickets in hand and will be glad to hand to any who are interested. A snack bar will be open for the convenience of guests, as well as rest areas.

DAR Conference Is Slated

The 69th annual North Carolina conference, Daughters of the American Revolution, will assemble Tuesday afternoon, March 11th, on the Balinese Roof of the Robert E. Lee Hotel in Winston-Salem, with State Regent, Mrs. John Carter Goldsborough of Charlotte, presiding. Delegates and alternates from the 94 state chapters will attend. They will be welcomed by Mrs. George K. Brown, Director of District Four, on behalf of the ten hostess chapters of the Fourth District, and also by Mr. Wilson Cunningham, President of the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce. Distinguished guests attending the Conference are Mrs. Erwin Fries Seimes, President General National Society DAR; Mrs. Richard Denny Shelby, Register General NSDAR; and Mrs. Robert Hugh Reid, State Regent of Georgia. The Opening Session, Tuesday afternoon will encompass a Report of the Program Committee, Report of Rules and Regulations, Reports of State Officers, Report of the Credentials Committees and the Election of Nominating Committee.