LETTER TO THE EDITOR

John saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the old earth seemed to pass away. In the clouds he saw the city of God coming down to the new earth.

And he heard a great voice from heaven say, "Behold, God's house is with men and he will dwell with them. They shall be his people and he will be their God. And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes. Never again shall they weep for sorrow. Never again shall they cry for pain. For sorrow, pain, and death shall be no more."

And John saw the beautiful city of God, far more beautiful than anything he had ever seen on earth. The citizens of that city did not need the sun for light, because God was their light.

John saw people from every nation of earth in that city, people whose sins had been forgiven because they believed in Jesus. He noticed that nothing wrong or unclean entered that city. Only those whose names were written in heaven's book were admitted.

Flowing through the city John saw a river of crystal water. Along the banks grew the tree of life bearing ripe fruit. And the leaves of that tree were for the healing of the nations.

When John saw all these things, he fell down to worship at the angel's feet. But the angel lifted him up and said, "Do not worship me, for I am just a servant. Worship God. And blessed are they who keep his commands, for they shall enter the gates of the beautiful city and eat of the fruit from the tree of life."

Jesus then said to John, "I have sent my angel to tell you these things. And whoever wishes may come and drink of the water of life freely, for the invitation is to all men. But only those who hear and obey God's words may share the blessings of heaven." Finally Jesus said, "Surely I come quickly."

And John, the aged prisoner, replied, "Even so, come, Lord Jesus."

Five Local Scouts To Attend Camp

Five boys from the First Baptist church sponsored Scout Troop will be attending special training camps this summer.

Two of the boys will attend the 7th National Jamboree to be held at Farragut State Park, Idaho. This 500 acre camp site is located on Lake Pend Oreille 25 miles north of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and 50 miles east of Spokane, Washington. The two boys are Kenny Bridges, star rank son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bridges, York Road and Billy Talbert, star Scout son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Talbert, Oriental Ave. The National Jamboree only comes once every four years, which means once in a lifetime for most Scouts. While at the Jamboree the boys will live in a tent city containing approximately 40,000 other scouts. The boys will fly out by jet airliner on July 16 and return by July 22.

Adrian Beam, Life rank son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beam, Wells street, and Frank Humphries, Eagle Scout son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Humphries, Floyd street, will take part in an expedition to the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimmaron, New Mexico. These and about 18 others from this area will leave from Boy Scout Camp at Tryon, N. C. on June 28 and return on July 18. They will travel by chartered bus across country stopping at the Redstone Arsenal in Alabama; eating and sleeping at Military bases and visiting many other interesting landmarks on the trip there and back. While at Philmont the boys will take part in all types of scouting, hiking into the mountains, horseback riding, cooking, sleeping under the stars, etc.

Larry Hamrick, Jr., Life rank son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hamrick, Crescent Hill, is at present attending a Senior Patrol Leader training camp at Statesville, N. C. This course is available to boys who are Senior Patrol Leaders or show that they have the ability to become Senior Patrol Leader. Larry is a Patrol Leader and has shown good leadership ability. The course will be taught in the out-of-doors and the boys will sleep in tents. The course dates are June 16 to 24th.

The Piedmont Council was one of five councils out of 500 to be allowed to teach this special training course, leadership skills in almost all fields of scouting will be taught.

"There is no end to the things that are available to a young man who will apply himself in Scouting nowadays. I continue to be awed by all of this and can't understand why every boy 11 years of age to 17 is not active in a Scout Troop; one of the aims of scouting is to prove to a boy that how far he can go is so much farther than he thought," Troop 92 Scoutmaster Ken Pruitt said.
