

Bright Comedy Next Attraction Of Summer Show

When "You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running" opened on Broadway it was hailed as the best and brightest new American play of the season. When the Robert Anderson play was reviewed it was called "A blizzard of hilarity" (Time Magazine) "A smash hit... Anderson's bold discourses of sex are more than merely titivating; they are illuminating..." (Tom Prideaux, Life Magazine) "Robert Anderson's finest evening since 'Tea and Sympathy'..." In its uninhibited, sharp-eyed, and compassionate look at man at sex-play, Anderson's quartet constitutes the funniest show in town" (Emory Lewis, Cue). "Four funny plays, Rippling beneath the laughing waters is a strong strain of ruefulness" (Walter Kerr, New York Times).

Now producer Stanley Warren has united the unique comedy talents of Paul Ford and Dorothy Loudon to star in the Charlotte Summer Theatre's production of "You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running" the week of July 8 through July 13 (Tuesday through Sunday) at Owens Auditorium.
Everyone agrees that Mr. Ford is a real comic genius who lives in that sparsely populated, but large area of our hearts with Charlie Chaplin, and W. C. Fields. His images of frustrated authority be it military or civilian, have been widely acclaimed: "Colonel Hall" in SGT. Bilko television series, "Colonel Purdy" in the Broadway, movie and television version of Teahouse of the August Moon, the retired air force colonel in "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," the "General" in The Spy With the Cold Nose, and classic roles in films such as "The Music Man", "The Matchmaker", "Advice and Consent", "The Russians

Are Coming", "The Comedians". His acting career gained impetus when he rocked Broadway with laughter in "A Thurber Carnival" and won one of the most ecstatic set of reviews ever bestowed on an actor. As if it wasn't enough, he did it all again, winning unanimous critical acclaim as "Harry Lambert" in "Never Too Late" and repeating the role in the film.
Mr. Ford's co-star Dorothy Loudon will be remembered by Charlotte Summer Theatre audiences for her wacky portrayal of Madame Arcati in "High Spirits" a few seasons ago. Her first stage appearance was in the Jules Feiffer revue, "The World of Jules Feiffer" which was directed by Mike Nichols. She won a Theatre-World Award for her work in "Nowhere to Go But Up." She has toured in the National Companies of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown", "Anything Goes", "High Spirits", "Two For The Seesaw" and "Luv". Her television credits include a two year stint on "The Gary Moore Show", and countless guest appearances on such shows as "Ed Sullivan", "Jonathan Winters", "Milton Berle", "Jack Paar", "Merv Griffin" and "The Tonight Show".

Tickets for the entire season are on sale at the Owens Auditorium box office open 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily and Sundays or by phone -376-4821, also at branch ticket agencies. There is still time to catch the delightful comedy "A Place For Polly" starring Nancy Malone, Darryl Hickman, Betsy von Furstenberg and Evelyn Rus sell playing through Sunday, July 6th. IRS Answers Taxpayers' Questions

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

- Q—A company I interviewed about a job has offered to pay my expenses if I will visit their headquarters. If I take the money will it be taxable for me?
A—Money received as a reimbursement for travel expenses, incurred in being interviewed for possible employment is not taxable and does not have to be reported. However, if the reimbursement is more than your expenses the excess is taxable.
- Q—I was just billed for taxes I've already paid. What should I do?
A—The bill you received was most probably issued before your payment had been credited to your account.
However, if your payment was made more than four weeks ago return the notice or a copy and indicate on it when the payment was made and where it was sent. If you paid by check and the check has been endorsed and returned to you, indicate the number stamped on the check by IRS and the date.
- Q—My house has gone up in value in the 15 years I've owned it. Will I be taxed on this increase when I sell?
A—Profits on the sale of a home are taxable. There are situations, however, where the tax may be postponed or even eliminated.
- A person who buys another house within a year of the sale of his old home may be able to postpone the tax depending on how much the new one costs. Under certain conditions the postponement provision may also apply if a new home is constructed.
- There is no tax on the profit of a home sale for those 65 years of age and over when certain conditions are met.
- Q—I'm taking a job as a waitress at a resort hotel. Will the tips I make count as income?
A—Yes, tips are taxable income and do have to be reported.
- If your tips amount to $20 a month or more, they will also be credited for Social Security purposes. In that case they should be reported to your employer so that he can make the necessary adjustments in your withholding.
- Q—I received several thousand dollars in cash as wedding gifts. Do my husband and I have to pay income tax on this money?
A—No, the recipient of gifts is not liable for income tax. If you deposit the money in a savings account, however, the interest earned will be taxable just like other interest. Persons making a gift may have to pay a gift tax, depending on the value of the gift.
- Q—I just reached 65. Can I have my tax withholding reduced?
A—Yes, persons 65 and over may claim an additional exemption for income tax withholding purposes. To do this, fill out a new Form W-4, Employees Withholding Exemption Certificate, and give it to your employer.
