Birth

Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, route 3, announce the birth of a son, Wednesday, June 25, Kings Mountain hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Burris, oute 3, announce the birth of a on, Friday, June 27, Kings Mounain hospital.

Mr, and Mrs. Lawrence J. Black, route 2, announce the birth of a daughter, Saturday, une 28, Kings Mountain hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sisk, 9 Walker street, announce the oirth of a son, Saturday, June 28, lings Mountain hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Roberts, 02 Virginia avenue, Bessemer city, announce the birth of a laughter, Saturday, June 28, Kings Mountain hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry David Hall, 230 Second street, announce the birth of a son, Sunday, June 29, Kings Mountain hospital.

MORE ABOUT

Mrs. Elam's

Continued From Page One Vare Shoals, South Carolina, and Mrs. Lillie Brown of Anderson, 5. C.; one brother, J. B. Roberts of Lyman, S. C.; fourteen grandchildren and seven great-grand hildren.

Active pallbearers were her grandsons, Philip Elam, Jr., J. Edgar Elam, Jr., B. McKenzie mith, Jr., and Richard Smith, a randson-in-law, Dr. Walter Bailand Robert Vance, Honorary pallbearers were Clarence Plonk Jr., Rush Dixon, Jake Phiefer, Norman McGill, Fuller McGill, Clyde Roberts, Hill Lowery, Cameron Ware, Eugene McSwain, Shelby Vance, Bill Sullivan, Boby Baker, Evans Crawford, Clyde Randall, Butler Falls, Menzell Phiefer, Lee Yarborough, Lamar ferndon Hoyt Black vell, Wilson Griffin, E. W. Griffin. Crawford, and Wray Williams.

MORE AROUT Carl Mauney

Continued From Page One gional Office of the Departmen of Housing and Urban Develop-

This tentative site plan is availble in the Redevelopment Commission office in the City Hall and Mr. Laney encourages all interested citizens to inspect the plan at any time. He, or a member of his staff, will gladly ex-plain the plan and comments, sugrestions and recommendations are welcome, Mr. Laney added.

Vance To Preach First Sermon Sunday

Rev Harry D. Vance will deliver his first sermon as pastor of East Side Baptist church on Sun-The new minister comes to Kings Mountain from Meat Camp Baptist church in the Three Forks Association at Boone.

He and his family have occur pied the parsonage at 411 York

TO PHILMONT - Eagle Scout Frank Humphreys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Humphreys, is among 18 Scouts and Scouters from this area who are taking part in the expedition to Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico. The local group left Saturday. Adrian Beam, Life Scout, also a member of First Boptist church Troop 92, is also taking part in the expedition and representing his troop in its attendant activities.

J. H. Smith's Rites Conducted

Funeral rites for James Harvey (Bud) Smith, 57 of Ellenboro, Kings Mountain native, were held

Besides his father, other surivors are his wife, Donia; five ons, James, Walter and Charles and Kenneth Smith of Ellenboro; junior physical education major.

I damrick of Castonia. Hamrick of Gastonia and Mrs. Winfred Gordon of Caroleen: five Patricia Dixon, brothers, Henry Smith of Lees-ville, S. C., Robert Smith of Atlanta, Ga., Roy, Mack and George Smith, all of Kings Mountain; three sisters. Mrs. Viola Devices three sisters, Mrs. Viola Dettmarr Exchange Vows of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Ran

Rev. Harold Brown officiated at the final rites, and interment was in the church cemetery.

Harmon To Fill Baptist Pulpit

worship hour at 7:30 at Bethlehem Baptist church.

Harmon is a sophomore stu-dent at Kings Mountain high

Faith Pastor Assumes Duties

14, and Carol, 11, have occupied the parsonage at 508 Gantt street. Mr. Hicklin attended Gardner Webb college and is presently attending Fruitland Baptist Insti

He comes to Kings Mountain from West Mecklenburg Baptist church in Burlington.

MORE ABOUT

Howard Lutz (Continued From Page One)

former Jaycee.

12 Area Students On Dean's List

Twelve Kings Mountain students were listed on the spring dean's list at Appalachian State

Monday at 3 p.m. from Ellenboro's Bethel Baptist church of which he was a member.

Mr. Smith died Saturday morn Mr. Smith died Saturday morning at his home of a heart, attack. He was in apparently good health, had worked at an Ellenboro plant Friday night. Friday night.

He was the son of Baxter R.

Smith of Kings Mountain and the late Thlita Jackson Smith.

Besides his father, other surjunior elementary education major; Elizabeth Ann Owens, a omore home economics ma Smith, all of Ellenboro, Capt. jor; Kathryn Gail Plonk, a fresh-dolph Carter of College Park, Ga. and Mrs. Bill Caldwell of Merritt Island, Fla.

Miss Patricia Ray Dixon of Asheville and Richard Wesley Blanton of Kings Mountain were married Thursday in a 2 p.m. wedding in Asheville's Abernathy United Methodist church.

Rev. John H. Christy, Jr. offi-trimmed in lace. A riboon crown

The child died at Kings Moun-Glenn Harmon son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Harmon, will fill the pulpit at the Sunday evening worship hour at 7,200 evening worsh best man.

Mrs. Ronald Kepcham of Leesburg, Va., sister of the bride, was Family Gathering dent at Kings Mountain high school. He has attended Bethlehem Baptist church 13½ years. being burg, va., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a blue A-line streetlength dress with matching head-get-to-gether Sunday evening.

school.

Rev. Robert Hicklin of Burling.

Rev. Robert Hicklin of Burling. ton will assume new duties Sunday as pastor of Faith Baptist at Fort Dix, New Jersey prior to overseas assignment in Germany. The Hicklin family, including His bride expects to join him in his wife and two children, Cliff, Germany.

Negro History May Be Offered

If enough interest is evidenced by students at Kings Mountain; high school to warrant placing Negro History in the curriculum the course will be offered next fall.

Principal Jake Atkinson said yesterday that so far only elght students have enrolled and a minimum of 20 is required.

Students interested in taking a former Jaycee.

He and his wife, Juanita, and their two children, Robert and Thad, reside at 703 Marion street.
They are members of St. Matheran church.

Students interested in taking the course should call the printing course should call the printing

STUDENT WINS AWARD - Winston Moore, left, holds his certificate he received at the State Future Farmers of America convention in Raleigh recently. He also received a cash prize of $30 from his agriculture teacher, M. L. Campbell, right, for outstanding achievement in vocational agricultural electricity for the school year 1968-69. Moore is a rising junior at Kings Mountain high school. Other agricultural teachers accompanying Moore and Campbell to the convention were G. W. Silvers and C. V. Knight.

Guyton Infant's Denise Collins

Graveside funeral rites for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Collins of Kings Rev. John H. Christy, Jr. officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by Thursday morning at 19:30 from Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins, is enrolled in the Western Carolina University Summer Demicroscopic Control of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain, and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Mountain and the late Mr. Collins of the Shady Moun her father, wore a white linen Bynum Chapel AME church cem-

> Besides the parents, three brothers and two sisters survive.

dress.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dixon of Asheville, the bride is a graduate of Lee Edwards high chool.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley

D. Goforth and Mr. Morrow is

FIDDLER SHOW

Howard Creek Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor the third annual Western Carolina Championship Fieddlers Convention and Buck Dance contest Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at Cat Square Opery, Vale, N. C., Terry Brotherton, program chair-

Rites Conducted To Cullowhee

onstration School for Gifted Sixth

American educators. Similar pro- to stop. grams in numerous other states have been patterned after the pio- $250. Miss Mae Sue Goforth served neering program at Western Caro and all are highly gifted academically.

Miss Collins is a student at

John Wayne Martin, son of Mrs. Ora H. Martin, North Pied-Street, Kings Mountain and Business Administration student with major in sales at King's College in Charlotte was named on the Dean's list for the spring quarter. He also attained scholastic honors and was named on the preceding

Drivers Charged After Accidents

Several drivers were charged with traffic violations following accidents on city streets during the past week.

Nora Phillips Saddler, 44, of route 1, Blacksburg, S. C., was charged with failure to stop for a stop sign after a wreck Wednesday afternoon at the S. Battleground intersection with West Gold street.

Police said Susan Marie Ander-son, 17, of 709 Meadowbrook Road, was headed East on Gold and had the right-of-way to make a right turn on S. Battleground. Mrs. Saddler was headed South on Battleground and went under the signal light into the path of Mrs. Anderson. Damages were Mrs. Anderson. Damages were estimated at $125.

Jack Hutchins White, Jr., 16, and Harry Lee Taylor, 49, of Bessemer City, told police they were both in the wrong lane after a two-car crash Thursday night at 8:40 p.m. at the U. S. 74 intersec-tion with Hendrick street. Damages were estimated at $1600.

Anita Montgomery Sanders, 18, of 113 Fulton Drive, was chan ed with failure to see movement in safety after she backed out of a Neazel Walter Weathers, 23, of p.m. route two, was charged with following too close after a two-car wreck Saturday morning. Police onstration School for Gifted Sixth Grade children.

The program, one of the most unusual in the United States for the exerctionally iffed hild her. the exceptionally gifted child, has thought Crocker was going received national acclaim from through the light and was unable

Damages were estimated at

KM Projects

Everett Scott, regional engineer Department of Housing and Urban Development, said he was well pleased with progress of Kings Mountain projects Wednesday. Specifically, he was referring to the Kings Mountain Water Project on Buffalo Creek and the Neighborhood Facilities Building or Cleveland Avenue. Target date for completion of the community center is late August.

At Buffalo Creek clearing and grubbing of land was underway and building of a filter plant was

FROM TRAINING CAMP - Larry Hamrick, Jr., Life Scout in First Baptist Church Troop 92, is back from Statesville where he attended a Senior Patrol Leader training camp. Hamrick is a pa-trol leader in his troop.

Masons To Host District Meeting

Fairview Lodge 339 AF&AM will driveway and was struck by a car operated by Wilma Self host a district meeting of Massis Robbs, 28, of 207 Maner street, at the Kings Mountain Masonic Damages were estimated at $500. Hall on Tuesday evening at 7:30

Announcement was made by Thomas D. Tindall, secretary. Mr. Tindall said distinguished guests expected to attend include the Grand Master of North Carolina and other state officials.

Mr. Tindall invited all local

Late Classified

Masons to attend.

WOULD LIKE TO RENT a fiveroom house, close in with gas heat. Call George Horn, 739-5880

FOR SALE - One 1965 model Allstate Scooter. Also one camping tent used one summer. Can be seen after 3:00 at 516 Phenix St.

by identifying and paying for cost of advertisement. Call 739-3174. FOUND - Dog. Owner may claim

JAYCEE Bottle Pick-Up July 9-12

JULY CLEARA

• MISSES • HALF SIZES

DRESSES

GROUP LADIES'

Summer Skirts

7.95

CHILDREN'S

SIZES 3-12

KNIT TOPS

69c

GROUP

Cut-Off Jeans

SIZES 8 to 18

1.98

McGinnis Department Store

PHONE 739-3116

S. BATTLEGROUND

TO JAMBOREE—Kenny Bridges,

top, and Billy Talbert will attend the National Boy Scout Jomboree July 16-22 in Idaho.

ADVANCE SEASON LAYAWAY EVENT

"State Pride" cotton thermal LOOKS LIKE HAND CROCHET

sale 5.44

A

Ū

72 x 90" size USUALLY 7.00 This is the blanket that started the thermal craze. Right now, use as a lightweight blanket or attractive spread; next winter, top with a light cover. Open crochet weave traps body warmth to keep you snug without bulky weight. Machine washable. Nylon binding.

"State Pride" acrylic thermal

72 x 90" size USUALLY 7.00

rich, deep-accented with durable nylon binding. Modern upkeep too: machine washable and dryable. And

From a key mill just for us! Extra-fluffy virgin acrylic fibers give welcome warmth winter long. Colors are nap comes back softer every time. Never a thought about moths, mildew, allergies. 5" nylon binding.

