

MRS. PETER JACOB HAUSER
(Mary Helen Goforth)

MRS. ROBERT EUGENE HALL
(Patricia Greene)

MISS CATHY ANN DOVER
(Bride-Elect of SP/4 Gary Wayne Ledbetter)

MRS. HOWARD MARTIN FRANKLIN
(Ann Elizabeth Snow)

Church Nuptials Unite Hausers, Franklins, Halls; Engagement Announced

Miss Mary Helen Goforth became the bride of Peter Jacob Hauser Saturday in a 4 p.m. wedding in Beulah United Methodist church.

Rev. H. G. Clayton, pastor of the church, was assisted by the Rev. Robert Young, pastor of Boone United Methodist church, in officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

The bridegroom's wedding band was worn by his grandfather, Jacob Hauser, when he married in 1919, and was used in the ring service.

Miss Jean Goforth was organist for the program of nuptial music.

The altar of the church was banked with seven branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers and palms which formed an arch. Brass tree candelabra were interspersed with greenery at either side of the altar. The altar table was centered by an arrangement of white glads and white mums.

Organ program included "Ave Verum" by Mozart, "Arioso" by Franck, "Toccata" by Frescobaldi, "Ave Maria" by Bach, "Panis Angelicus" by Franck, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, and "O Perfect Love" by Barnby. "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte was played after the mothers were seated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown she made and designed of white silk organza over tulle. The A-line gown, with shaped back hemline, was enhanced by a lace yoke and three-quarter length bell shaped sleeves. The Alencon lace train was pleated into the back yoke. Her veil of triple tiers of illusion was attached to a cluster of pearl and Alencon lace flowers and she carried a crescent bouquet of white fringed carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Wayne Stroupe of North Wilkesboro attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Dianne Hauser, sister of the bride, and Miss Susan Goforth of Shelby, cousin of the bride.

All the attendants wore dresses of pale pink crepe, the empire fitted gowns featuring a jesse panel in the back and a lace covered empire belt. They wore bows of matching pink crepe attached to pink illusion and carried crescent bouquets of pink daisies and glameillas with pink velvet ribbon accented with English ivy.

Miss Bobbie Lou McArthur of Red Springs and Miss Judy Gibson of High Point were honorary attendants.

James V. Pressley, Jr. of Kings Mountain, college roommate of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Charles Edward Goforth, Jr. and Paul Goode Goforth, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother was gowned in porcelain blue silk with lace trim. She wore matching accessories and a white orchid at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother chose beige whip cream with embossed design with matching accessories and a white orchid at her shoulder.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Fred Goode, wore a blue dress with white accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Douglas Elmore of Lexington, sister of the bride, presided at the register in the church vestibule where the bridal party formed a receiving line to greet wedding guests after the ceremony.

For a trip to the beach the new Mrs. Hauser wore a yellow A-line dress with white collar and white waistband and enhanced by yellow embroidery. She wore matching yellow and white shoes with matching hat and bag and lifted the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Goforth of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Peter Hauser of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom.

Both the bridegroom and his bride are recent college graduates, both receiving their degrees magna cum laude. Mrs. Hauser received her B.S. in home economics from Appalachian State University at Boone and Mr. Hauser graduated with B.S. in chemistry from North Carolina State University at Raleigh where he will attend graduate school in the fall. Mrs. Hauser was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities at ASU and was a member of Alpha Chi sorority. She will teach home economics in the Raleigh school system in the fall.

The newlyweds will be at home at 29 Maiden Lane, Apartment E, Raleigh.

Among out-of-town guests was the bridegroom's aunt, Miss Emma Gilly, of Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Greene wore a blue linen suit with white accessories.

The bride is a June graduate of Kings Mountain high school. The bridegroom, now in the Army, has just returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam.

For her marriage the bride

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cleatus of Grover announce the engagement of their daughter, Cathy Ann, to Spec. 4 Gary Wayne Ledbetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Ledbetter of Kings Mountain.

A 1968 graduate of Kings Mountain high school, the bride-elect is presently employed by Fiber Industries of Shelby.

The prospective bridegroom, a

1967 graduate of Kings Mountain high school, recently completed a year's tour of duty in Viet Nam with the United States Army. Presently he is stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C.

The wedding will take place July 19, at 4 p.m. in Bethany Baptist church of Grover. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

First Presbyterian church of Mount Airy was the setting Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. for the wedding of Miss Ann Elizabeth Snow and Howard Martin Franklin.

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Richard M. Snow of Mount Airy and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney of Kings Mountain. The bride's mother is the former Alice Betty Mauney.

Vows of the double-ring ceremony were pledged before the Rev. Tom Bagnall.

Mrs. Billy B. Sumrell, organist at Callaway Gardens, Ga., provided the nuptial music.

The altar of the church was arranged with pink and white flowers and background greenery. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of imported French Chantilly lace designed about empire lines with long full sleeves and rolled collar. The skirt was enhanced by a short train. Her formal-length manilla veil of illusion was edged in imported French Chantilly lace and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. The bride designed and made her wedding dress and veil.

Miss Linda Snow attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Lynda Franklin, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Connie Tilley.

All the attendants wore long gowns of peach crystalline sheer styled to match the bride's gown.

They wore headdresses of peach, pink and white flowers and carried bouquets of white daisies and pink roses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Snow chose a long-sleeved pink crepe dress with matching accessories and a white cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother wore a lime green crepe dress with lace coat and a white cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

Brice Eldridge was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers included Dick Snow and Jerre Snow, brothers of the bride, and James Hofacker.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a reception in the church parlors. The wedding theme of pink and white was beautifully carried out in decorations and refreshments. The bride's table, overlaid with pink tablecloth, was centered with the pink and white wedding cake. Silver candelstick holding pink tapers were at one end of the table. Pink punch was served from a silver service.

The couple's wedding trip will take them to the Virgin Islands. For traveling Mrs. Franklin wore a grey printed voile dress with shirred waistline and sleeves. She wore matching accessories and the roses lifted from her bouquet.

Glenn Sumrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sumrell of Pine Mountain, Ga., cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is a graduate of Pembroke college in Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island.

Son of Mrs. Leon Kaiser of Newark, New Jersey, the bridegroom is a graduate of Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island. He is a member of Sigma fraternity. He is a graduate student at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California.

Society News

Thursday, July 3, 1969

KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C.

SECTION B

Independence Day Events Set; Party Time; Visitors Here

Lea Anne Gann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Gann, celebrated her second birthday Friday, June 27th, with a small party at her home.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Green and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gann of Kings Mountain and great-granddaughter of Charlie Abernathy of Mount Holly.

A color note of pink was carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

Jodie and David Cole, Jeff Black, Sonia Falls and Lynn Cox were party guests.

Numerous July Fourth activities are planned in Kings Mountain.

A "Family Fourth" is slated at the Country club with a Scotch Foursome from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Lunch will be served at the poolside at 12 noon with plates $1 for adults and 75 cents for children. Swimming events and contests for all ages begin at 4 p.m. Trophies will be awarded to the winners. Barbecue supper will be served at 7 p.m. with plates $1.50 for adults and $1 for children.

IT'S A BOY

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bumgardner announce the arrival of their second child, a son, Russell Edward Bumgardner, June 17th, Garrison General hospital, Gastonia.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wray A. Plonk, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Bumgardner. Great-grandparents are Mrs. C. S. Plonk, Sr., Mrs. A. Benton Putnam, both of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. A. L. Hines of Clover, S. C.

The baby is named for his paternal grandfather. Other member of the Bud Bumgardner family is Terry Bumgardner who will celebrate her sixth birthday July 19th.

Roger Lee Greason, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lee Greason of 803 Fourth street, celebrated his third birthday Saturday. A birthday party was held at his home and a decorated birthday cake cut and served with party refreshments.

Those present for party fun were Mrs. Linda Setzer, David, Donna and Timmy Setzer, Frankie Coleman, Jessie James, Johnny James, Mrs. Martha James, Mrs. Estelle Pennington, Shawn Bumgardner, Wayne Ivester, Sheila Smith, Wanda Ford, Stephanie Moss, Ashley Moss, Mrs. Kay Moss and Sharon Greason.

Leah Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Patterson, celebrated her second birthday Monday, July 1st.

A small party was held at the Patterson home in Charleston, S. C. and Leah's decorated birthday cake was cut and served with party refreshments.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Patterson of Kings Mountain. Great-grandmother is Mrs. Elizabeth Lovelace.

Leah's mother is the former Becky Dixon.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Mrs. Ben T. Jackson and children, Benny, Leigh, Kimberley, and Jill are here from Boston, Mass. for a visit with Mrs. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis.

Dr. Jackson will arrive this weekend after a business trip to Europe and will accompany his family to Jacksonville, Fla. for a visit with his parents.

Other house-guests of the Davises and Jacksons were Rev. and Mrs. Robert Houston and son, David, of Boston. The Houstons were enroute to Atlanta.

IN 3 CLUB TOURNNEY

Mrs. Henry Neisler and Mrs. H. D. McDaniel tied for low score and Mrs. Fred Withers held low putt in the 3 club tournament held by Kings Mountain Women's Golf Association Tuesday on the greens of the Country Club golf course.

Members gathered for luncheon and a business meeting after the tournament.

Mrs. Neisler, president of the association, who presided, invited members to attend the Foothills League Ladies Golf Day at Lake Hickory on July 27th.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is a graduate of Pembroke college in Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island.

Son of Mrs. Leon Kaiser of Newark, New Jersey, the bridegroom is a graduate of Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island. He is a member of Sigma fraternity. He is a graduate student at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California.

Miss Goforth, Peter Hauser Are Honored

Miss Mary Helen Goforth and Peter Hauser cut their wedding cake Friday night at an after-rehearsal party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goforth on Wilson Farm Road in Shelby.

Entertaining with the Goforths were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goforth and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills. All are aunts and uncles of the bride-elect.

A color note of pink and white was carried out in decorations and refreshments. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, was overlaid with a white linen cloth and arranged with white snapdragons and pink daisy mums. The three-tier white and pink wedding cake was cut and served from one end of the table. At the opposite end of the table pink punch was served from a silver bowl by Miss Susan Goforth, Mrs. Richard Lowery and Mrs. Steven Goforth. Mrs. Dennis Goforth and Mrs. Fred G. Mills cut and served the cake. Decorated pretzels were served with the cake, punch and salted nuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goforth greeted arriving callers and Mr. and Mrs. Fred I. Mills were at the register. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goforth said good-byes.

Arrangements of magnolias and gardenias decorated the entrance hall, living room and den. The bride-to-be wore a pink sheath dress with a corsage of pink roses.