Scouts See Loyalty In Action
A Scout is Loyal.
Loyalty is one of the twelve points of the Boy Scout Law. A Scout is loyal to his country, church, family, Scout Troop and those to whom loyalty is due.
Last week Troop 91 of St. Matthews Lutheran church saw loyalty in action.
Scoutmaster Otis Falls, being unable to spend the entire week in Schiele Scout Reservation with his troop was at the end of the rope. Eddie White, college student employed by Falls and an Eagle Scout graduate of the troop came to the rescue. Eddie, who is not yet old enough to be an official Scout Camp Troop Leader wrote his brother Ray, another Eagle Scout from Troop 91, now an Air Force Sergeant, stationed in Charleston, S. C.
Ray took two weeks leave and lead the troop to camp. Eddie went along for assistance. The
